PURISHED DAYLY, SUNDAY EXCEPTED Terrible Destruction Wrought in the Town of Pomeroy,

OVER HALF A HUNDRED DEAD.

Reports from Other Sections Indicate a Total Less of One Hundred Lives-Sad Scenes Among the Ruins of Desolated Homes-Relief Needed.

POMEROY, Ia., July 8.—Fifty three dead, seventy-five fatally injured and 160 with broken limbs, cuts and bruises, more or less severs. This is what the torunde of Thursday night accomplished in the mat-ter of cannalty. The town of Pomercy is one complete wreck. There is scarcely a house left standing. About fifteen acres of debris constitute now what was a thriv ing villaga. Splinters are all that remain.

Pomeroy is part and parcel of the prairie, the death dealing wind having left it barren and desolate. Scarcely a true remains.
