The Committee Would Not Permit Rev. Dr. Douglass to Ventilate His Well Known Opinions-Anthony Comstock Talks on "Fors to Society."

Montpeat, Jely 10.—The hig Christian afternoon by an audience anxious to hear address on "Foes to Society, Church and State."

Mr. Comstock nominated the foes to church, society and state as intemperance, gambling and evil reading. Of the three the last was the worst the world had to contend with. Why? Because of its baneful effects on the young people. A child's heart was a chamber of imagery. The four walls of that chamber must be decorated. The child carried into it many

In the pursuance of his work in stamp-ing out such evils as he had enumerated his life had been attempted. He pointed to a scar on his forchead in evidence. Smallpox scals had been sent to his house to plant disease there, and the germs of other contagious diseases to his office. His stenographer was even now a crippled and helpless man because of this action on the part of his enemies.

During Mr. Counstock's address a large crowd of French Canadians gathered outcrown of French Canadians gathered out-side and peered at the speakers' platform through a place from which the canvas-had been dropped to let in the air. They become notay and had to be dispersed by the police, and one of the leaders was taken into custody. This summary action induced them to scatter after singing the "Margellulus" is a sort of regulator. "Marseillaise," as a sort of rejoitder to "Stand Up for Jesus," which was sung at the close of Mr. Comstock's address.
Miss Belle Kearney, of Florida, Miss, followed, and at times it was hard for the udience to follow her, owing to the yells of the crowd of Frenchmen outside, who omed in after the applause to Comstock with a howl that might have expressed leflance, derision or anything else but a friendly feeling. The part of the canvas hat had been lowered was raised up and dut out from the sight of the audience a dirty faced Frenchman who was imitating the gestures of the lady speaker inside with the eleverness of a monkey. Miss Kearney said in relation to "gospel tem-perance," that she brought greating from he 200,000 members of the Woman's Chris ian Temperance Union and the 40,000 of the young women's branch. They were all Christian Endeavorers in spirit. "All for Christ," was their creed, their watchword and their cry.

"Senior Christian Endeavor," an address by Rev ries Perry Mills, of Newbury-port, Lass., brought the last meeting in the big tent to a close.

Before adjournment the treasurer, Mr. Shaw, made the official announcement that the number of delegates attending the convention was 16,000. He also as-sured the timid delegates that no violence need be feared at the evening session at the Drill hall, for ample police protection had been asked for and promised. How-ever, it was not deemed advisable to hold an evening service in the tent. This an-nonneement was received in silence. As usual the Drill hall was crowded in As usual the Drill hall was crowded in the afternoon. Rev. Bishop Samuel Tal-lows, of Chicago, was the presiding officer, while the ordinary routine of the proceed-ings were enlivened by cornet due to by the Parks sisters. An address on Gospel temperance was given by Mr. Thomas E. Murphy, the temperance evangelist. He was followed by Mr. A. W. Milbury, of New York, who told the convention "How to Reach the Massea." Rev. A. E. Dunning, of Boston, then spoke on "The Religious Press."

"Social Purity," by Rev. Dr. Douglass, of Montreal, the most prominent Methodist divine in Canada, was expected to be of a rather sensational nature. The venerable preacher has a habit of coming out very strongly on any subject he takes up, and is such a determined opponent of the Roman Catholic church that something of a startling nature was looked for. It was not the intention of the committee running the convention, however, to permit any more obnoxious sentimentalism to be uttered from their platforms, and Doug-lass had therefore to submit his manuscript to the convention censors. The resuit was a m chry cutting down of the ad-dress, and the official copy contained noth-ing to hurt the feelings of the Roman Catholic citizens of Montreal.

St. James Methodist church is in the west and English part of the city. There the tent program for last night was car-ried out. The consecration sermon was ried out. The consecration sermon was preached by Rev. B. Fay Mills, the well preached by Rev. B. Fay Mills, the well known American evangelist, who referred to the good work of the Christian Endeavor society. The Drill hall was divided off in states at the closing meeting, and fully 10,000 people in spite of the rior rumors were present. It was the grand wind up of the twelfth annual convention. Rev. T. J. Lewis, of Westminster, Md., preached the closing serrom.

Resolutions denouncing Sunday opening of the World's fair were unanimously passed before final adjournment. It was at one time intended to dismisa the Drill hall meeting by the rear door, but President Clark, on assurances from the militia that they would protect all the delegates, caused the front doors to be used. Before pronouncing the benedic-tion he told the assembled people that the soldiers would protect them, and that no violence need be feared at the hands of the mob, which numbered 15,000. The delegates were escorted from the hall by the military, singing their hymns as they passed along, and the convention ended without disorder.
