Edward Heneage, Unionist, moved an immedment to the effect that the Irish be excluded entirely from the British house Mr. Gladstone replied that the retention of Irish members would prove the means of reassuring doubters as to the experiment of home rule. After further discus-sion by Joseph Chamberlain and Mr. Bal-four, Mr. Gladstone, amid derisive opposition cheers, moved the closure. It was carried by a vote of 241 to 211. The division on the amendment caused considerable excitement, as it was reported that the Radicals as well as the Parnelltes were likely to go with the opposition. The only Radical who voted against the government, however, was Henry Labou-chere. The Parnellites fulfilled expectation by supporting the amendment, as did the McCarthylics. The result was the re-jection of the amendment by a vote of 240

The Champion Pugitist and Parson Davies Post a Forfelt at the Bingside for a Fintab Fight with the Colored Beavyweight

In November Next, Rosy, Ind., July 11 .- John Griffin, the "Braintree lad," and Solly Smith, the champion of the Pacific coast, met last night in the areas of the Columbian Ath-letic club for a purse of $6,000 and the featherweight championship of the world. The event was the most notable in the history of the newly formed pugilistic organization, and it brought together one of the largest audiences over seen in an arena east, south or west, half an hour before the commencement of operations the big amphitheatre being wowded to suffoca-tion. Before the contests began there were loud calls for Corbett, who jumped over the ropes and said:

"There is a colored pugilist by the name of Jackson who wants to fight me. Jackson is not here to talk for himself, but his manager is here. I want to say that I will dght him, and that I have a check for $10,-000 in my hand that I will whip Peter Jackson at any time or place."

At this moment "Parson" Davies cleared the ropes amid mingled applause and hisses, and from the center of the ring he proclaimed that Jackson had months ago posted a forfeit for a fight with Corbett, and that the latter only required to state the time. "Put up your money," shouled Corbett: "you know I have to fight Mitchell in December
