

THE EVENING HERALD.

VOL. VIII.—NO. 113

SHENANDOAH, PA., THURSDAY, JULY 13, 1893.

ONE CENT.

Absolutely Free!

To every customer who purchases goods to the amount of $45.00 CASH!

We will give as a present Shepp's Photographs of the World.

J. P. Williams & Son.

Now on Sale!

A crash in Window Shades. Spring fixtures with fringe,

23 Cents.

Only four gross will be sold at this price.

Max Schmidt,

116-118 North Main Street, - Shenandoah, Pa.

For This Week Only!

JOB LOTS!

Ladies' Black Oxford Ties, one hundred pairs, formerly sold for $1.25, will be closed out at 75c.
Misses' Black Oxford Ties, about fifty pairs, former yd for $1.00 will be closed out at 70c.
Children's Black Oxford Ties, about fifty pairs, formerly sold at 75c, will be closed out at 50c.
Ladies' Russet Shoes, about fifty pairs, formerly sold for $1.25, are now going at 90c.

JOSEPH BALL, 14 South Main Street, SHENANDOAH, PA.

Prices lowest, when quality is considered. One price to all.

Now in Order—House Cleaning.

All those in need of Carpets, Window Shades, Lace or Chenille Curtains, Rugs, Mats, etc., call at

J. J. PRICE'S, OLD RELIABLE,

NORTH MAIN STREET.

Big Inducements to Buyers

—AT THE—

People's Store!

Ladies' Black Oxford Ties, patent tip, 6c, elsewhere $1.00.
Ladies' Russet Oxford Ties, 75c, formerly $1.25.
Children's Black Oxford Ties, 50c, cheap at 75c.
Ladies' Foxed Garters, 90c, reduced from $1.25.
Men's Tennis Shoes, only 40c.

M. A. FERRY, 121 North Main Street, SHENANDOAH, PA.

For Sale!

Three Cars Choice No. 1 Timothy Hay.

One Car of Bird Straw.

One Car Minnesota Patent Flour. Nothing Finer in the Market at any Price.

25 Barrels Choice Eye Flour—Strictly Pure Rice—Not Mixed with Low Grade Goods.

AT KEITER'S

FRANEY

TEACHERS ELECTED.

The Old Corps Re-elected in its Entirety.

HARMONIOUS MEETING.

Every Teacher Received the Fifteen Votes of the Board—The School Term Fixed at Ten Months—An Election of J. officers and to Fill Vacancies To-morrow Night.

SCHOOL Board met last night and disposed of considerable very important business in a most harmonious and unanimous spirit. All the members of the board were present and all voted for the old corps of teachers. The following were the gentlemen who responded to the roll call: Messrs. Conroy, O'Hearn, Hanna, Titman, Lynch, Ogden, Boddall, Davenport, Trezise, Brennan, Burke, Manley, Gallagher, Muldoon and Devitt.

By direction of President Conroy the election of teachers was preceded by the routine order of business, which covered reports of committees, whereupon Mr. Gallagher, as chairman of the committee on teachers and salaries, read a report setting forth a belief that the course of the School Board in the past had been for the best interests of the schools and recommending that the re-election of the old corps of forty-six school teachers, as they had been true to their trust. The committee also recommended that the salaries remain the same with the following exceptions: That two dollars per month be added to the salary of Miss Cline, making it $75 per month; that the salary of one of the Turkey Run schools be reduced from $65 to $55 per month; and that the salary of one of the Coal street school be increased from $50 to $55 per month, equalizing the salaries in all these schools. The committee also recommended that another assistant be elected for the High School at a salary of $65 per month and that two additional primary schools be opened.

The board accepted the report and adopted the recommendations by a unanimous vote.

The committee on building and repairs then submitted the following bids received for repairing the High school building: F. W. Wilson, $1,200 and $50 for extras; J. L. Hasler, including extras, $1,410; J. R. Conroy, $1,450; J. W. Johnson, $1,500; Shenandoah Feed & Lumber Co., $600; M. P. Fowler, $1,325.

The board awarded the contract to the Shenandoah Feed & Lumber Co., adding $100 to the bid to compensate the contractors for cleaning the building after the work is done.

The treasurer was authorized to pay off a $500 school bond held by C. J. Quinn.

Mr. O'Hearn moved that the school term be fixed at ten months. Mr. Davenport seconded to strike out the figures "10" and insert "9".

Mr. Gallagher opposed the amendment and said the board should not take a backward step.

Mr. Boddall said he didn't regard the expense of a ten month term as much as he did the little work done during the tenth month. He thought it would be an advantage to have the children out of school during June.

Mr. Hanna said that there isn't much instruction in the last month of any term as that period is taken up by examinations. He thought that a reduction of the term would create great dissatisfaction among the taxpayers.

Mr. Davenport answered he believed the bulk of the taxpayers were not satisfied with the increase of the school term and increase of salaries made last year, as the increased assessments had run up taxation to the highest point the people can bear it. He did not think the children advance any more in a ten months' term than in one of nine months.

Mr. Hanna said the greatest good should be done for the greatest number. There are a number of people in the town who will not be able to give their children the benefit of education in the advanced grades, as they will be obliged to send them to work, and for that reason their children should be given the advantages of long terms while they can go to school.

The amendment was finally defeated and the school term fixed at ten months.

The committee on heating and fuel was authorized to secure a new boiler and heating apparatus for the Lloyd street building.

Superintendent Whisker made a statement on the arrangement of dates for the opening and closing of the next school term and the Board decided that the schools shall open on Monday, September 4, 1893, and the term shall end on June 29, 1894. This will not allow for the usual Christmas holiday season, but it will allow for the institute period.

The board went into an election of teachers which resulted in a re-election of the old corps by a unanimous vote. The corps embrace: Clara Cline, Annie E. Coogan, Jeannette H. Ramage, Lizale O'Connell, Bridget Burns, Anna M. Dangler, Amelia C. Schoener, Mahala Fairchild, Maggie Cavanaugh, James R. Lewis, Ella M. Clauer, Carrie W. Faust, M. P. Conroy, Annie E. Mansell, Jane T. Lambert, Sallie E. Conroy, Mary A. Stack, Hattie L. Hoss, Eliza J. Finnerty, Frank B. Williams, Mary A. Laflerty, Lizale Loh, Missie Harsett, Mary A. Connelly, Mary H. Wadley, Mary A. Lynch, Maggie C. Brennan, Sallie Fadden, Annie M. Kinchel, M. H. Britt, R. A. Mc Hale, Irene Shane, Carrie Smith, Mary E. Fox, Corinne Tempert, Lillie B. Phillips,

Refrigerators!

I have a number of Refrigerators that will be sold

ROYERSFORD'S DEFEAT

The Home Team Plays Good Ball.

ANOTHER VICTORY OURS.

The Game at the Trotting Park Yesterday Afternoon Again Proves the Home Team the Equal of Any in the County and Superior to Potsville.

THE people who witnessed the game of baseball at the Trotting park yesterday afternoon saw one of the best up-hill contests ever played on the diamond in this section. After the conclusion of the first inning the spectators were unanimous in the belief that the visitors were outclassed and that the home team would have a walk-over to the goal of victory.

Fulmer went to bat first and Ruckel captured his easy fly. "Umph" said one of the spectators. Martin followed with a two base hit, and "Harris" arose from all sides. Marley then scored a hit, and the crowd went wild. Harris, at second base, unflinched Heckenman's fly. Setley made a hit. Leonard missed Toole's smack to center. Messit struck out. Henry got to first on Goodheart's snuff and Hofford got his base on balls. Fulmer then went to bat again, but was retired on McKenzie's throw to first, and the side left the field with six runs to their credit.

"Well, well, well! what a picnic!" was heard from all parts of the grand stand. Then Setley went into the box, and what bills he did pitch. McKenzie took up his bat and struck out. Harris and Stevenson did the same thing. Three strikes out in succession. "Where are they at? Good boy, Setley!" Shenandoah was in an ecstasy of delight.

The visitors did not get rattled, but took the terrible tidal wave with admirable grace. "See, Martin, bang it," shouted some of the enthusiasts. Martin did bang it and made a hit, but a moment later Conway retired him when he tried to steal to second. Conway also retired Malarkey by bagging his foul play. Heckenman got to first on Harris' error and Setley followed with a hit, but Powers prevented them from scoring by bowling Toole's fly.

The Royersford boys also failed to score. In the second inning and retired the home team in one, two, three order in the third, after which they settled down to batting and succeeded in scoring three runs with the assistance of two hits and an error by Malarkey and Heckenman.

The grand stand people became thoughtful and those who dared give expression to their sentiments said, "We must not be too jubilant. These frenzies from below may play ball yet."

In the fourth inning there was cause for more rejoicing on the part of the home team supporters. The visitors played raggedly in the beginning, and the home team scored two more runs. The side was then retired by three throws to first base, one by the pitcher, and two by McKenzie.

Neither side scored after that until the seventh inning, when Setley made a two bagger and a single, and the visitors earned a run.

The home team was put on the gridiron in the eighth inning. Conway started out with a hit and Jeffrey followed with another. The hearts of the three Shenandoahs were in their mouths, but when the tension was greatest the reliable Henry relieved them with a double play, unassisted, by cutting Jeffrey off at second and throwing Ruckel out at first. He also retired the side by pulling down McKenzie's fly ball.

In the ninth Heckenman's fly went to Conway, Setley made a hit and stole to second, but his work went for naught. McKenzie retired Toole at first and Jeffrey captured Messit's fly.

Again the Shenandoah people were thrown into a nervous state. Harris and Stevenson made hits in succession. Goodheart struck out. Bowers then hit to right field and the visitors were enabled to add two runs to their score through Hofford being hampered by a horse and carriage driven too near the field by "Sack" Peters.

The score now stood 8 to 6 with only one man out. The spectators were in a state of almost breathless excitement. The visitors seemed to have Setley's delivery in good sight and "Sack" Peters' horse seemed to be their mascot, but the agony was soon after ended by Heckenman throwing Leonard out at first and Hofford pulling down a fly ball hit by Conway to right field, in spite of the horse.

The spectators had been given a good game after all and Shenandoah was on top.

NOTES.
The Royersfords are playing at Potsville this afternoon.

Either the Eastern state league club or the Royersfords will play the next game with the home team here.

Many people think Setley weakened considerably during the latter part of the game. "Whiskers" referred to in this column recently was not intended for Souther Scanlan. It's all right.

Messit is playing for the Royersfords to day, while Martin and Hofford have been borrowed to help Potsville out.

The home team plays at Freedland tomorrow and at Hasleton on Saturday. May cheap to close out the stock.

Refrigerators!

Also Ice Chests cheap.

ROYERSFORD'S DEFEAT

The Home Team Plays Good Ball.

ANOTHER VICTORY OURS.

The Game at the Trotting Park Yesterday Afternoon Again Proves the Home Team the Equal of Any in the County and Superior to Potsville.

THE people who witnessed the game of baseball at the Trotting park yesterday afternoon saw one of the best up-hill contests ever played on the diamond in this section. After the conclusion of the first inning the spectators were unanimous in the belief that the visitors were outclassed and that the home team would have a walk-over to the goal of victory.

Fulmer went to bat first and Ruckel captured his easy fly. "Umph" said one of the spectators. Martin followed with a two base hit, and "Harris" arose from all sides. Marley then scored a hit, and the crowd went wild. Harris, at second base, unflinched Heckenman's fly. Setley made a hit. Leonard missed Toole's smack to center. Messit struck out. Henry got to first on Goodheart's snuff and Hofford got his base on balls. Fulmer then went to bat again, but was retired on McKenzie's throw to first, and the side left the field with six runs to their credit.

"Well, well, well! what a picnic!" was heard from all parts of the grand stand. Then Setley went into the box, and what bills he did pitch. McKenzie took up his bat and struck out. Harris and Stevenson did the same thing. Three strikes out in succession. "Where are they at? Good boy, Setley!" Shenandoah was in an ecstasy of delight.

The visitors did not get rattled, but took the terrible tidal wave with admirable grace. "See, Martin, bang it," shouted some of the enthusiasts. Martin did bang it and made a hit, but a moment later Conway retired him when he tried to steal to second. Conway also retired Malarkey by bagging his foul play. Heckenman got to first on Harris' error and Setley followed with a hit, but Powers prevented them from scoring by bowling Toole's fly.

The Royersford boys also failed to score. In the second inning and retired the home team in one, two, three order in the third, after which they settled down to batting and succeeded in scoring three runs with the assistance of two hits and an error by Malarkey and Heckenman.

The grand stand people became thoughtful and those who dared give expression to their sentiments said, "We must not be too jubilant. These frenzies from below may play ball yet."

In the fourth inning there was cause for more rejoicing on the part of the home team supporters. The visitors played raggedly in the beginning, and the home team scored two more runs. The side was then retired by three throws to first base, one by the pitcher, and two by McKenzie.

Neither side scored after that until the seventh inning, when Setley made a two bagger and a single, and the visitors earned a run.

The home team was put on the gridiron in the eighth inning. Conway started out with a hit and Jeffrey followed with another. The hearts of the three Shenandoahs were in their mouths, but when the tension was greatest the reliable Henry relieved them with a double play, unassisted, by cutting Jeffrey off at second and throwing Ruckel out at first. He also retired the side by pulling down McKenzie's fly ball.

In the ninth Heckenman's fly went to Conway, Setley made a hit and stole to second, but his work went for naught. McKenzie retired Toole at first and Jeffrey captured Messit's fly.

Again the Shenandoah people were thrown into a nervous state. Harris and Stevenson made hits in succession. Goodheart struck out. Bowers then hit to right field and the visitors were enabled to add two runs to their score through Hofford being hampered by a horse and carriage driven too near the field by "Sack" Peters.

The score now stood 8 to 6 with only one man out. The spectators were in a state of almost breathless excitement. The visitors seemed to have Setley's delivery in good sight and "Sack" Peters' horse seemed to be their mascot, but the agony was soon after ended by Heckenman throwing Leonard out at first and Hofford pulling down a fly ball hit by Conway to right field, in spite of the horse.

The spectators had been given a good game after all and Shenandoah was on top.

NOTES.
The Royersfords are playing at Potsville this afternoon.

Either the Eastern state league club or the Royersfords will play the next game with the home team here.

Many people think Setley weakened considerably during the latter part of the game. "Whiskers" referred to in this column recently was not intended for Souther Scanlan. It's all right.

Messit is playing for the Royersfords to day, while Martin and Hofford have been borrowed to help Potsville out.

The home team plays at Freedland tomorrow and at Hasleton on Saturday. May

ROYERSFORD'S DEFEAT

The Home Team Plays Good Ball.

ANOTHER VICTORY OURS.

The Game at the Trotting Park Yesterday Afternoon Again Proves the Home Team the Equal of Any in the County and Superior to Potsville.

THE people who witnessed the game of baseball at the Trotting park yesterday afternoon saw one of the best up-hill contests ever played on the diamond in this section. After the conclusion of the first inning the spectators were unanimous in the belief that the visitors were outclassed and that the home team would have a walk-over to the goal of victory.

Fulmer went to bat first and Ruckel captured his easy fly. "Umph" said one of the spectators. Martin followed with a two base hit, and "Harris" arose from all sides. Marley then scored a hit, and the crowd went wild. Harris, at second base, unflinched Heckenman's fly. Setley made a hit. Leonard missed Toole's smack to center. Messit struck out. Henry got to first on Goodheart's snuff and Hofford got his base on balls. Fulmer then went to bat again, but was retired on McKenzie's throw to first, and the side left the field with six runs to their credit.

"Well, well, well! what a picnic!" was heard from all parts of the grand stand. Then Setley went into the box, and what bills he did pitch. McKenzie took up his bat and struck out. Harris and Stevenson did the same thing. Three strikes out in succession. "Where are they at? Good boy, Setley!" Shenandoah was in an ecstasy of delight.

The visitors did not get rattled, but took the terrible tidal wave with admirable grace. "See, Martin, bang it," shouted some of the enthusiasts. Martin did bang it and made a hit, but a moment later Conway retired him when he tried to steal to second. Conway also retired Malarkey by bagging his foul play. Heckenman got to first on Harris' error and Setley followed with a hit, but Powers prevented them from scoring by bowling Toole's fly.

The Royersford boys also failed to score. In the second inning and retired the home team in one, two, three order in the third, after which they settled down to batting and succeeded in scoring three runs with the assistance of two hits and an error by Malarkey and Heckenman.

The grand stand people became thoughtful and those who dared give expression to their sentiments said, "We must not be too jubilant. These frenzies from below may play ball yet."

In the fourth inning there was cause for more rejoicing on the part of the home team supporters. The visitors played raggedly in the beginning, and the home team scored two more runs. The side was then retired by three throws to first base, one by the pitcher, and two by McKenzie.

Neither side scored after that until the seventh inning, when Setley made a two bagger and a single, and the visitors earned a run.

The home team was put on the gridiron in the eighth inning. Conway started out with a hit and Jeffrey followed with another. The hearts of the three Shenandoahs were in their mouths, but when the tension was greatest the reliable Henry relieved them with a double play, unassisted, by cutting Jeffrey off at second and throwing Ruckel out at first. He also retired the side by pulling down McKenzie's fly ball.

In the ninth Heckenman's fly went to Conway, Setley made a hit and stole to second, but his work went for naught. McKenzie retired Toole at first and Jeffrey captured Messit's fly.

Again the Shenandoah people were thrown into a nervous state. Harris and Stevenson made hits in succession. Goodheart struck out. Bowers then hit to right field and the visitors were enabled to add two runs to their score through Hofford being hampered by a horse and carriage driven too near the field by "Sack" Peters.

The score now stood 8 to 6 with only one man out. The spectators were in a state of almost breathless excitement. The visitors seemed to have Setley's delivery in good sight and "Sack" Peters' horse seemed to be their mascot, but the agony was soon after ended by Heckenman throwing Leonard out at first and Hofford pulling down a fly ball hit by Conway to right field, in spite of the horse.

The spectators had been given a good game after all and Shenandoah was on top.

NOTES.
The Royersfords are playing at Potsville this afternoon.

Either the Eastern state league club or the Royersfords will play the next game with the home team here.

Many people think Setley weakened considerably during the latter part of the game. "Whiskers" referred to in this column recently was not intended for Souther Scanlan. It's all right.

Messit is playing for the Royersfords to day, while Martin and Hofford have been borrowed to help Potsville out.

The home team plays at Freedland tomorrow and at Hasleton on Saturday. May

ROYERSFORD'S DEFEAT

The Home Team Plays Good Ball.

ANOTHER VICTORY OURS.

The Game at the Trotting Park Yesterday Afternoon Again Proves the Home Team the Equal of Any in the County and Superior to Potsville.

THE people who witnessed the game of baseball at the Trotting park yesterday afternoon saw one of the best up-hill contests ever played on the diamond in this section. After the conclusion of the first inning the spectators were unanimous in the belief that the visitors were outclassed and that the home team would have a walk-over to the goal of victory.

Fulmer went to bat first and Ruckel captured his easy fly. "Umph" said one of the spectators. Martin followed with a two base hit, and "Harris" arose from all sides. Marley then scored a hit, and the crowd went wild. Harris, at second base, unflinched Heckenman's fly. Setley made a hit. Leonard missed Toole's smack to center. Messit struck out. Henry got to first on Goodheart's snuff and Hofford got his base on balls. Fulmer then went to bat again, but was retired on McKenzie's throw to first, and the side left the field with six runs to their credit.

"Well, well, well! what a picnic!" was heard from all parts of the grand stand. Then Setley went into the box, and what bills he did pitch. McKenzie took up his bat and struck out. Harris and Stevenson did the same thing. Three strikes out in succession. "Where are they at? Good boy, Setley!" Shenandoah was in an ecstasy of delight.

The visitors did not get rattled, but took the terrible tidal wave with admirable grace. "See, Martin, bang it," shouted some of the enthusiasts. Martin did bang it and made a hit, but a moment later Conway retired him when he tried to steal to second. Conway also retired Malarkey by bagging his foul play. Heckenman got to first on Harris' error and Setley followed with a hit, but Powers prevented them from scoring by bowling Toole's fly.

The Royersford boys also failed to score. In the second inning and retired the home team in one, two, three order in the third, after which they settled down to batting and succeeded in scoring three runs with the assistance of two hits and an error by Malarkey and Heckenman.

The grand stand people became thoughtful and those who dared give expression to their sentiments said, "We must not be too jubilant. These frenzies from below may play ball yet."

In the fourth inning there was cause for more rejoicing on the part of the home team supporters. The visitors played raggedly in the beginning, and the home team scored two more runs. The side was then retired by three throws to first base, one by the pitcher, and two by McKenzie.

Neither side scored after that until the seventh inning, when Setley made a two bagger and a single, and the visitors earned a run.

The home team was put on the gridiron in the eighth inning. Conway started out with a hit and Jeffrey followed with another. The hearts of the three Shenandoahs were in their mouths, but when the tension was greatest the reliable Henry relieved them with a double play, unassisted, by cutting Jeffrey off at second and throwing Ruckel out at first. He also retired the side by pulling down McKenzie's fly ball.

In the ninth Heckenman's fly went to Conway, Setley made a hit and stole to second, but his work went for naught. McKenzie retired Toole at first and Jeffrey captured Messit's fly.

Again the Shenandoah people were thrown into a nervous state. Harris and Stevenson made hits in succession. Goodheart struck out. Bowers then hit to right field and the visitors were enabled to add two runs to their score through Hofford being hampered by a horse and carriage driven too near the field by "Sack" Peters.

The score now stood 8 to 6 with only one man out. The spectators were in a state of almost breathless excitement. The visitors seemed to have Setley's delivery in good sight and "Sack" Peters' horse seemed to be their mascot, but the agony was soon after ended by Heckenman throwing Leonard out at first and Hofford pulling down a fly ball hit by Conway to right field, in spite of the horse.

The spectators had been given a good game after all and Shenandoah was on top.

NOTES.
The Royersfords are playing at Potsville this afternoon.

Either the Eastern state league club or the Royersfords will play the next game with the home team here.

Many people think Setley weakened considerably during the latter part of the game. "Whiskers" referred to in this column recently was not intended for Souther Scanlan. It's all right.

Messit is playing for the Royersfords to day, while Martin and Hofford have been borrowed to help Potsville out.

The home team plays at Freedland tomorrow and at Hasleton on Saturday. May

ROYERSFORD'S DEFEAT

The Home Team Plays Good Ball.

ANOTHER VICTORY OURS.

The Game at the Trotting Park Yesterday Afternoon Again Proves the Home Team the Equal of Any in the County and Superior to Potsville.

THE people who witnessed the game of baseball at the Trotting park yesterday afternoon saw one of the best up-hill contests ever played on the diamond in this section. After the conclusion of the first inning the spectators were unanimous in the belief that the visitors were outclassed and that the home team would have a walk-over to the goal of victory.

Fulmer went to bat first and Ruckel captured his easy fly. "Umph" said one of the spectators. Martin followed with a two base hit, and "Harris" arose from all sides. Marley then scored a hit, and the crowd went wild. Harris, at second base, unflinched Heckenman's fly. Setley made a hit. Leonard missed Toole's smack to center. Messit struck out. Henry got to first on Goodheart's snuff and Hofford got his base on balls. Fulmer then went to bat again, but was retired on McKenzie's throw to first, and the side left the field with six runs to their credit.

"Well, well, well! what a picnic!" was heard from all parts of the grand stand. Then Setley went into the box, and what bills he did pitch. McKenzie took up his bat and struck out. Harris and Stevenson did the same thing. Three strikes out in succession. "Where are they at? Good boy, Setley!" Shenandoah was in an ecstasy of delight.

The visitors did not get rattled, but took the terrible tidal wave with admirable grace. "See, Martin, bang it," shouted some of the enthusiasts. Martin did bang it and made a hit, but a moment later Conway retired him when he tried to steal to second. Conway also retired Malarkey by bagging his foul play. Heckenman got to first on Harris' error and Setley followed with a hit, but Powers prevented them from scoring by bowling Toole's fly.

The Royersford boys also failed to score. In the second inning and retired the home team in one, two, three order in the third, after which they settled down to batting and succeeded in scoring three runs with the assistance of two hits and an error by Malarkey and Heckenman.

The grand stand people became thoughtful and those who dared give expression to their sentiments said, "We must not be too jubilant. These frenzies from below may play ball yet."

In the fourth inning there was cause for more rejoicing on the part of the home team supporters. The visitors played raggedly in the beginning, and the home team scored two more runs. The side was then retired by three throws to first base, one by the pitcher, and two by McKenzie.

Neither side scored after that until the seventh inning, when Setley made a two bagger and a single, and the visitors earned a run.

The home team was put on the gridiron in the eighth inning. Conway started out with a hit and Jeffrey followed with another. The hearts of the three Shenandoahs were in their mouths, but when the tension was greatest the reliable Henry relieved them with a double play, unassisted, by cutting Jeffrey off at second and throwing Ruckel out at first. He also retired the side by pulling down McKenzie's fly ball.

In the ninth Heckenman's fly went to Conway, Setley made a hit and stole to second, but his work went for naught. McKenzie retired Toole at first and Jeffrey captured Messit's fly.

Again the Shenandoah people were thrown into a nervous state. Harris and Stevenson made hits in succession. Goodheart struck out. Bowers then hit to right field and the visitors