A UNITED FRONT.

The Republican party of Schoylkill county, at present, is in excellent condition to make a strong fight during the approaching canvass. Judging from outside appearances, all differences that have existed in the past seem to be healed, and the work of the committee appointed by Chairman Texts to revise the revise for revise to revise the revise to revise the revise to revise the revise the revise to revise the revise the revise to revise the revise to revise the revise to revise the re Davis to revise the rules governing the Davis to revise the rules governing the party will materially assist in coldifying our ranks.

O'jections were raised from to take sources last year because delegates to the state convention were elected the year previous, prior to the announcement of any of the candidates for state offices. This, however, was the rule governing the party, and the best plan was to quietly submit, and at the first opportunity have the rule changed in secondance with the wishes of the in accordance with the wishes of the party voters.

Tois Chairman Davis' committee has very wisely done. The change as Lart to party representation a so appears to be favorably received. The work of the committee, as a whole, is to be commended, and shows a desire on se their part to accode to the wishes of the great bulk of Republicans.

But harmony will ever be an empty bubble as long as a certain Pottaville. clique, assisted by the Bepublican, create internal stille and more "a mere plaything for the threwder political managers of the opposing party," when others are using their best endeavors to bring about the opposite state of affairs.

What the party re ds in this county in unity, and the selection of a strong ticket-men who can community party vote, and whose integrity and fitness for the position to which they sepires will draw from the app sing party. Unless this result is accomplished the chances of victory are not very bright; with it, our success is assured. Locally, the par'y is in excellent condition. The Republicans of Shene. andoah will be heard from in Novems ber in no uncertain tones, and it will KONO be the result of party unity. They have set an example that other portions of the county might follow with profit to the organization. Unity in party organization is essential, and never more so than at the present
