STATE NEWS OF A DAY.

The Appeal of Murderer Salvars for a New Trial has Been Denied.

CARLETON, July 17.—A new trial was refused Charles Salvars, the hanged man in May last, who was convicted of the murder of Policeman George Martin, of this city, and Judge Sadler sentenced him to be hanged. When the sentence condemning the man to death was pronounced some applause came from a number of men in the court room. Salvars quickly turned to those who appeared to be his friends and then for a short time with them he was in conversation. He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff and again placed in jail to await the day of his hanging.

Dropped from the Pension Rolls.

WILLIAMSBURG, July 17.—Grand Army men of this city are stirred up owing to notices received by S. L. Gage that his name has been dropped from the pension rolls. Mr. Gage is one of the oldest pensioners in this city, having been on the list since 1864. A corrus rebel bullet in his left arm, and there is a wound near the elbow that never healed. The arm is almost helpless. Some time ago Mr. Gage applied for an increase, but instead of getting it he has been notified that he has been dropped entirely. There is much indignation arising over the dropping of such a worthy pensioner.

Determined to be Happy.

WILKESBARRE, July 17.—Reed Helms, a young man of Hyde Park, seems determined to be unhappy. About two months ago he became engaged to Miss Helms. Miss Helms, however, would not marry him. Miss Helms finally concluded to ignore the opposition of her parents, and the lovers eloped to Hinghamton, where they were married. Saturday night Helms told a friend that marriage was not what it was cracked up to be. Later he was found unconscious. He had taken a big dose of poison with suicidal intent. The doctors came in the nick of time and saved his life.

Two Alleged Households.

READING, July 17.—James A. Zone and William A. Stevens both claim the same woman for a wife. Zone resides in Lebanon, and had Stevens and his alleged best friend inquiring the whereabouts of Stevens. Stevens declares that he was married to her in 1877, and that eight months later his wife deserted him. In 1891 she was wedded to Stevens, and it is said that she had not yet divorced her husband No. 1. To complicate matters Stevens declares that when he fell in love with Mrs. Zone she told him she was unmarried. This she contradicts.

Prominent Lancaster Citizen Dead.

LANCASTER, July 17.—Colonel David W. Miles, one of Lancaster's most prominent citizens, died after suffering for a long time from greyness. He was 62 years of age and was born in Chambersburg. He enlisted in the Seventy-ninth regiment as captain, but was soon promoted to brevet colonel. In politics he was a Republican, and after the war served a term as register of wills of this county. He was frequently spoken of as a candidate for mayor and served in council.

Fatal Accident in a Tunnel.

PITTSBURGH, July 17.—Engine 125 of the Pittsburgh and Western road, ran into a mass of stone at the mouth of tunnel No. 1, near Underhill station, completely wrecking the engine and six cars and killing Engineer Frank Balley, Fireman John O'Neill, of the same road, and Engineer Charles Angell, of west-bound train No. 35, were both badly hurt. The roof of the tunnel had caved in, depositing many tons of rock on the track.

Refused to Accept His Alleged Debt.

WEST CHESTER, July 17.—Ex-Representative W. Wirt McConnell, of Honeybrook township, instituted suit for damages against the Pennsylvania Railroad company. A few days ago he offered his mileage tickets to the company, but the company refused to pay other fare and he was put off the train, by which action he alleges he was injured.

A Gift from Mr. J. W. Mackay.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—James Mackay, a cousin of John W. Mackay, the "bonanza king," who has been in poor circumstances, has just received a remittance, after application, from the wealthy California banker, who refused to talk of his gifts, but the neighbors say that it is $10,000. He is nearly 70 years old, a veteran of the Mexican war and the late rebellion and draws a small pension.

Electric Cars Collide.

LEBANON, July 17.—Two cars on the Annull Electric railway collided half way between this city and Annull. Both cars were smashed. Motorman Smith and Spots were both badly injured. P. P. Faber, a York local passenger, was also hurt. The other passengers, though greatly frightened, escaped injury.

Lebanon County Delegates.

WILLIAMSBURG, July 17.—At a meeting of the Lebanon county Democratic standing committee held here the following were placed in nomination as delegates to the state convention: Andrew Ott, J. H. Kies, James H. Eganer, John Engler, S. J. Jarrett, C. W. Williamson, Edward N. MacCollin and Adam Shrey.

Guaranteed Over a Keg of Beer.

SHAMOKIN, July 17.—Michael Frazier was stabbed under the left shoulder by a companion, Powell Sevitch, while they were emptying a keg of beer at the former's boarding house in West Shamokin. A big butcher knife was used and his wound is near the heart. It will probably prove fatal. Sevitch has fled.

American Life's Dividend.

HARRISBURG, July 17.—Judge Simonon handed down an opinion overruling all the exceptions filed to the report of the auditors distributing the funds in the hands of the receivers of the American Life Insurance company, and sustaining their report.

Appointed Alderman for Chester.

HARRISBURG, July 17.—Governor Pattison has appointed Philip P. Galesby, a member of the First ward in Chester, the elected candidate having failed to file his acceptance at the state department.

Mine Fire at Shamokin.

SHAMOKIN, July 17.—Fire broke out in Green Ridge mine and is burning fiercely. The mine is owned by the Union Coal company, and employs 400 hands. It will be flooded.

Accused of Forgery.

KENNETT SQUARE, July 17.—Charles Summerell, a prominent business man of this place, was arrested here on charges of forgery preferred by the national bank here.

FREELAND'S FAILURE.

Shabby Trick Played on the Shenandoah Club.

THEY FAILED TO APPEAR.

Nearly Fifteen Hundred People on the Home Grounds Surely Disappointed Over Their Non-Appearance and the Home Management Was Very Indignant.

NE of largest crowds of the season was at the Trotting park yesterday afternoon to witness a game between the home team and the Freeland club. The latter club, however, failed to put in an appearance, and was a great disappointment not only to the spectators, but to the management as well. On Friday Manager Bradigan received a telegram stating that the Freeland club would positively be here on the date arranged, and that was the last heard from them. The members of the home team entertained the crowd until 3:30 by preliminary practice, when the crowd became uneasy. A scrub nine was picked from the crowd, styling themselves "The Neversleeps," and an exhibition game was played. This, however, did not please the cranks, some of whom wanted to see the color of the money which they paid the ticket-seller at the gate. These being no likelihood of the Freeland club putting in appearance, the crowd gradually made its way to the gate. The man with the bag of ducats was seen quietly wending his way towards the grand stand, and immediately the hungry crowd was in his wake. As viewed from the grand stand, the scene presented a novel appearance, resembling one very forcibly of a shepherd leading his flock. The crowd was finally pacified by the liberal offer of the management to give a free game. This seemed to meet the requirements of the occasion and at 4 o'clock the crowd quietly left the park.

The home management is no wise to be blamed for the failure of the Freeland club being present. It was a greater disappointment to them, if anything, than to the patrons of the park. Two reports were circulated yesterday as to why the Freeland club did not arrive here, and neither have been denied nor affirmed by the Freeland management so far. One was that while on their way to town they met with an accident at Jedd, and the other places them at Mahanoy City acting the part of firemen, and by the time the flames were extinguished they were in anything but a fit condition to play ball. Their failure to be present, and to so notify Manager Bradigan, will certainly injure their reputation, and cause other clubs to be very reluctant in giving them dates.

SATURDAY'S GAME.

The home team crossed tacks with the strong Hazleton aggregation on Saturday, at the latter place, and met defeat. The home players suffered greatly at the hands of the umpire, who is manager of the opera company playing at Hazleton. It was apparently his desire to put the good will of the audience with the expectation of a good house at the company's last appearance. This he failed to do, however, as the audience gave evidence of their disapproval of his partiality on several occasions. The playing of the home team up to the seventh inning was excellent, when they seemed to lose heart because of the umpire's partiality. Hooff occupied the box up to the seventh inning, when he was relieved by Betley. The following is the score by innings:

Pottsville was defeated on Saturday by the score of 9 to 3. The Pennsylvania railroad team, composed mostly of young boys, was the club that lowered their colors. Hill, the former's creek pitcher, was knocked out of the box, but was being as numerous as flies around a molasses barrel. The manner in which the young boys from Philadelphia pounded the ball made the heart of the average Pottsville fan sad.

The next game on the home grounds will be with the strong Eastern club. "Shenandoah is winning, and against strong base ball teams. The club must certainly be a good one or it would not put up the game it does. Pottsville and Shenandoah had better get together and decide which is the superior one. We believe both teams are afraid of defeat and are not anxious to have the game played." The foregoing statement made by the Ashland Local is incorrect in one particular. The Shenandoah club is not afraid of the county seat wind-finders and has exhausted every means in trying to arrange a game with them.

Interest in base ball is being revived in Shamokin again. A diamond is to be laid out and fenced at Indian Park at a cost of $700 and the first game will be played on August 15th.

John Krut, a newspaper reporter, has become manager of the Hazleton base ball club. The Shenandoah team will play this week at Bloomsburg, Milton and probably Williamsport.

Shenandoah patronizes the game better than any town in the county. To show Pottsville's chagrin at their defeat on Saturday the score telegraphed here was 2 to 3 in their favor; while the correct score was 9 to 3 the other way.

He must state the kind of a school in which he was educated, and also if he is married or single. TO START TO-NIGHT.

The World's Fair Tourists are Getting Ready.

SIXTEEN IN THE PARTY.

They Will Reach Niagara Falls To-morrow Morning and on Wednesday Will See the Wonderful Sights at the Great Western City—The Homeward Journey.

O-NIGHT the Herald's World's Fair school teachers' excursion will leave town. The departure will be made at 8:08 p. m. via the Lehigh Valley railroad and when the excursionists arrive at Penn Haven Junction they will find in waiting a Pullman palace car attached to the Philadelphia express train, which will take them to Suspension Bridge and Niagara Falls.

The party will consist of Misses Nellie Baird, Agnes Stein, Mamie H. Wasley, Virgie Hollister, Salome Brumm, Minessville, and Emma and Birdie Wasley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baird, S. G. M. Hollister, Esq., and S. A. Artie; Eimer J. Wasley, E. H. Brumm, Rev. Robert O'Boyle, George Porta, and a Philadelphia gentleman friend of Mr. Hollister.

The party will be under the guidance of a Philadelphia railway official and J. M. Boyer will go as a representative of the HERALD to see that the arrangements are carried out according to contract.

According to the schedule the party will arrive at Niagara Falls at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. The day will be spent at the Falls and in the evening a start will be made for Chicago, over the Grand Trunk Railway. The White City will be reached on Wednesday.

According to the terms of the contract the excursionists will spend six days in Chicago and will then start via the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to Washington, where one day will be spent.

Upon arrival the excursionists will have a choice of several first class hotels and everything will be done to make them comfortable so far as the accommodations are concerned.

The homeward journey from Washington will be made via Philadelphia, South Bethlehem and Penn Haven Junction.

Miss Mahala Fairchild has received her ticket for the trip to Niagara Falls, but has decided to delay the trip for a few days.

Misses Mary A. Connelly and Carrie Faust, the fifth and sixth prize winners, have also received their tickets for the Boston trip and will in all probability start to-morrow.

This trip will be made via Elston and the new Poughkeepsie bridge. It is said to be one of the most delightful routes between the coal regions and the great "city of culture."

The HERALD tried its best to have a Palace car start from town with the World's Fair tourists, but as fifty passengers could not be guaranteed the negotiations fall through.

Democratic Meeting.

The untimely death of one of the sections of the county were in Pottsville on Saturday to name a date for holding the Democratic convention. The meeting was called for the members of the Standing Committee, but that did not deter the usual coterie of office seekers from being present. The town was overrun with politicians, Shenandoah being represented by its quota. The date fixed by the Committee July 31st, for holding the county convention, seems to meet with favor at the hands of a majority of the candidates. The convention will be held in Union hall, Pottsville. Much speculation has been indulged in as to what position the Controller would occupy on the ticket. The committee members settled the matter by placing the order of nominating Controller directly preceding that of Commissioner. The early date of the convention is considered a death-blow to the judicial aspirations of George J. Wallinger, and several other small-fry politicians.

The Name Omitted.

We are in receipt of a communication from some one signing himself "One of the Cannibals of town." The writer has failed to attach his name to the communication, which is an invariable rule of this office. Until that is furnished we cannot give the matter space in our columns.

The Grier Funeral.

The funeral of the late Peter Grier, of Centerville, took place to-day. The remains arrived in town this morning accompanied by delegations of the Odd Fellows, G. A. E. and P. O. S. of A. lodges of Centerville. They were transferred to the Pottsville train and taken to Donaldson, where interment was made.
