FRANKVILLE

Miss Nellie Rank, of Philadelphia, was the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. N. Rank, of Lehigh Avenue.

Paymaster Guy will dispense the June wages duca to the Reading boys on Tuesday next.

Mrs. Long, of Donaldson, is the guest of her son-in-law, Simon Moore, of Rice street.

Misses Nellie Rank and Ella Dehan leave this morning for the World's Fair.

The Schuylkill County Medical Society will meet in Frankville in August.

Lewis Morgan and family, of Girardville, were town visitors over Sunday.

Miss Alice Johnson, of Pottsville, is the guest of Miss S. Haupt.

Mrs. Hulzer and family, of Orwigsburg, returned home after a pleasant visit in town, as the guests of Mrs. M. Gerber.

Harry Evans and wife were among the favored few who enjoyed picnicking at Tumbling Run this week.

Mr. Sells, the Womelsdorf distiller, was a town visitor on Wednesday.

A very pleasant home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Weidner, of Lehigh Avenue, on Tuesday, his daughter, Sarah, being married to Richard Rother, of Reading, Rev. H. T. Clymer officiating. Many guests from Reading and surrounding towns were present and the festivities were participated in by a large number of relatives and friends in town. The Meredith Cornet Band serenaded the happy young couple, and was the recipient of a very graceful acknowledgment. We tender our compliments, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Rother every possible joy and prosperity.

During the week three members of the Frackville Rifle club met a similar number of the Girardville Rifle club at the latter place for a friendly match. The Frackville club won a decided victory.

Baker Bright enjoyed a pleasant trip to Baltimore during the week. He tells some big crab stories.

Mr. and Mrs. George Folmer and Miss Ella, of Orwigsburg, were the guests of Harry Evans during the week.

The merchants of town, commencing yesterday, have inaugurated a Friday half holiday for the clerks. Hereafter all stores will be closed on Friday afternoon during the warm weather.

Thomas Vaughn, who recently returned from Colorado, is now one of the engineers at the Frackville and Gilberton light and power company's plant. He succeeded Grant Thomas.

Frederick Elbie and Miss Annie Hess returned home on Monday after a week's pleasant visit to relatives in Reading.

Miss Smith, one of Pottsville's fair young ladies, is the guest of Miss Sarah Haupt.

Will Kleese, accompanied by one of Tamuqua's fairest daughters, Miss Griffiths, spent Sunday in town visiting friends.

Miss E. Thomas, of Scranton, is the guest of her sister, the Rev. Mrs. W. Schuler.

On Wednesday evening a young lady from Mahanoy Plane, one of a party spending the evening at Mr. Beustinger's, of Gordon, had a very narrow escape from instant death. The party was returning from the house, and in doing so crossed over the barny pits of the lower plane. The young lady in the dark stepped into the barny hole just in front of the barny, which had been signaled to start up. The signal man, with a coolness and quickness known only to railroaders, sprang to the bell and signaled to stop, then rushed to the pit, expecting to find the young lady severely injured, but very fortunately she was able to help herself and beyond a few bruises and rolled dress, escaped from what may be truly termed the very jaws of death.

GILBERTON.

Anstok, the painter, of Frackville, is treating the school building to a coat of paint. The present school board is striving hard to improve our schools in every way.

Shaeffer & Co. have workmen engaged banking up a course for the creek which overflowed its banks. It is their intention to keep it from spreading.

Mrs. W. R. Middleton has left for Branchdale to spend a week visiting relatives.

A tally-ho party, consisting of several of our gay young lads and lassies, drove to Fountain Springs and Gordon Wednesday night and report having an excellent time.

An embryo pool, of this place, gets the credit of competing fairly well, but Mulball, of Shenandoah, never hears of it.

A goodly number of our people take advantage of the daily excursion to Lakeside. The fare is reasonable and the trip delightful.

Cornelius Leahy, of Mahanoy City, was a welcome visitor this week. "Con" is well posted on county politics.

MAHANOSY PLANE.

John J. Quinn, of Mahanoy City, is now devoting all his time to business. He is making money and don't give a Continental for politics. John is a firm advocate of the "No second-term" doctrine, however.

An epidemic among the curs of town, that howl and bark all night, might be a calamity to the dogs, but it would be a blessing to those who are compelled to listen to their everlasting barking all night.

Miss Lizzie G. Love, of Allentown, Mrs. Maggie B. Jones, Minersville, and Dr. S. T. Schmidt, of Reading, were the guests of Miss Mary Farrell during the week.

The school board held a special meeting on Monday last for the purpose of opening proposals and awarding contracts for a steam heating apparatus in East ward school building. Seven bids were received, the lowest bid being $1150.00. P. F. Kane was awarded the contract for building wall and excavating, his bid being $451.00.

OE EST.

Le Plus Beau Place de la Region de Anthracite.

When the above is translated it reads, "This the nicest place in the Anthracite region," and applies very appropriately to Lakeside, the great popular summer resort of this region, and which will be a point of great attraction on August 15th, next, when the Grand band of town will hold its grand musicale.

There is nothing in which the people of the anthracite region take as much interest as in a feat of good, wholesome music. They will travel miles to hear a concert of good talent and knowing this the management of the festival predicts that the attendance at Lakeside on August 15th will be the greatest ever seen in the history of the famous resort.

The Grant band has a reputation of an A 1 standard and the announcement that it will give a concert is a sufficient attraction to draw thousands of people to any place.

The festival the organization will give on August 15th will be in keeping with the well-earned reputation. It will be of a high standard and the very best talent from various sections of the country will be secured regardless of expense to make it so.

But the people who will travel to Lakeside on the day stated will not be given an over-abundance of music. There will be other means of first class entertainment in the form of scull races, single and double, swimming contests and a first class pigeon shooting contest. There will also be a base ball game between the Shenandoah team, champions of the coal region, and a nine of players picked from the best in clubs of other towns in the region.

It will thus be seen that the entertainment will be varied, but of a high class order all through, and during the entire day the people who visit the park will find some source for pleasure and entertainment, and in addition the above specified attractions there will be the boating, shooting gallery, dancing pavilion and other regular attractions of the season.

Besides all this it must be remembered that Lakeside is the only place in the region open to people seeking a day of recreation. It is one of the prettiest and most convenient spots in the state, and the Grant band could not have selected a more suitable place for their great day than among its beautiful shade trees on the borders of the lovely lakes.

Refreshments of all kinds will be supplied at reasonable prices on all the parts of the ground, and the music in the immense dancing pavilion adjoining the hotel will be furnished by the famous Schoppe orchestra of sixteen pieces.

Don't fail to be with the Grant Band at Lakeside on August 15th. Special trains will be run from all points at all times during the day. Additional information will be given in the large posters to be issued shortly.

COUNTY SEAT MATTERS

From Our Regular Pottsville Correspondent.

THE JUDGESHIP CONTEST.

A Review of the Political Field as Seen From the County Seat Through Republican Glasses—Many Aspirants Are Now on the Anxious Bench.

Special HERALD Correspondence.

POTTSVILLE, July 22, 1893.

LET us look into the political situation as it is at this writing, and on the Republican side of the canvass. Messrs. William D. Seltzer, of Pottsville, and T. H. B. Lyon, of Mahanoy City, are the only announced candidates in the G. O. P. who aspire to the position made vacant by Judge D. R. Green's death and temporarily filled by appointment by the Governor of Hon. Mason Weidman. So far as legal learning and attainments are concerned both of these gentlemen are capable of filling that position and Mr. Seltzer claims a better right to the preference by his party because of a whole generation's law performed so willingly and without compensation for his party. If Mr. Lyon has any counter claims, other than his attainments which are conceded, the little sparrows have failed to inform your correspondent what they are. Yet either of these gentlemen would make an acceptable candidate of the party and the only question for the coming Republican convention to find out is: which would be the strongest candidate on the ticket to draw votes from the dominant party, the other party's convention having previously named its man?

MR. S. H. KOCH'S POSITION.

Leaving that question to be decided by the convention when it convenes, I am constrained to look a little into a position occupied at present by the last nominee of the party for a similar office, ex-District Attorney Koch, who made a gallant fight last year and was a standard bearer, who, though defeated by recent Republican voters, came into the campaign with a greater popular popularity than he ever had. His position might be put in these few lines:

He is a watching and a waiting.

While the others are a-baiting

For the whale.

But he'll soon take up his line

And cast it out so fine

As to get the fish, head and tail.

Better illustrated, perhaps, would be Mr. Koch's position by a recital of the following fable:

"Two voracious and ambitious lions from the jungles of Africa followed the footsteps of a certain Professor Dick, who, armed with only a sun glass, perambulated the country in search of knowledge. To avoid being chased up the Professor climbed a tree under which the lions, who he will name Bill Lion and Tom Lyon, took a snose after little efforts to coax Professor Dick to come down and be done up. Taking in the situation Prof. Dick swung his sun glass and got first a focus on Bill Lion's tail, setting it on fire; then turning his attention to Tom Lyon's tail he had soon deflagrated that appendage and Tom woke up with sudden pain and looked at Bill in rage. Bill blamed Tom and Tom blamed Bill for each other's disaster and they set to and chafed each other to death; then Prof. Dick slid down from his perch, skinned them both and carried their hides to his boarding joint in triumph.

Apply this little story to the situation and keep your eye on the professor when he comes home to dinner.

IN THE ENEMY'S CAMP.

The contest in the other party is progressing pretty well, thank ye, considerin' the hot weather. Judge Weidman's friends, encouraged by the reports of the candidates for other offices that their delegates will be asked to head the ticket with Weidman as the sure winner in the race, regarding it suicidal to put one on the ticket who was once beaten for the same office, are taking the situation quietly and coolly, while Mr. Wallinger and his lieutenants are working like beavers to build a dam which is intended to stop the flow of delegates in the direction of his opponents' camp. Build it as high and as strong as he may, some of the fish are likely to get through the wickets or jump over the bank and swim into the Weidman stream. Yet Mr. Wallinger may win the nomination. He is working against big odds, is said to have lost his biggest working officer, Senator King, who though friendly, prefers to keep out of the fight, and yet he may get the nomination. It all depends on the enthusiasm he can create when the boys come to town on the 30th. Many delegates will be elected for him who will be Weidman when they get here and many will come here for Weidman who can be persuaded to be for Wallinger if the right man sees them. With out two or three good lieutenants who will put in the fine lace work at the proper moment Mr. Wallinger's name is Dennis.

HENRY OF NAVARRE.

The bold, dashing and popular Henry of Navarre of this campaign is Harry Muldoon, the sold man.

Mr. Muldoon will not be too soon if he is here by noon.

And his 3-regime will follow on Sunday afternoon.

The handsome Knight Harry entered the lists for Treasurer last spring. His leading opponents for the same nomination are George Folmer, Jr., of your big town, and Michael Duffy, of Minersville, both good men.

There is another aspirant—only an aspirant—

Easels!

Ex-Sheriff Joshua Monroe Boyer, whose pole is not long enough for this particular perambum this summer.

Mr. Muldoon has engaged a nice second floor room in the Shiner building for his headquarters and he can be found there receiving his delegates and the good reports of his canvass when the ball opens in earnest. Just now he can be likened to a 2-10 racer who has reached the first quarter pole a neck ahead in the lead. By good management such as has characterized his canvass thus far, he will reach the goal the winner. During the past week Muldoon traveled into some of the upper and lower end districts and met with much encouragement. Mr. Folmer canvassed the east end, including Tamuqua, and paid a visit to Middleport, New Philadelphia and the "Krick." He is working hard and deserves much better success than he is likely to secure. Mr. Duffy is hustling, too, and may come into the convention with a better showing than he is now accredited with being able to marshal.

THE PUSHING PURCELL.

Mr. Thomas Purcell, of Tamuqua, took a ride down the country on Wednesday with O. J. Argood, who is a good all around worker in two languages. Omas can tell a good story, sing a lively song and laugh as heartily as any man we know of and Purcell couldn't have selected a better companion. Meanwhile John J. Toole, the present incumbent, is not idle. As he is no slouch as a campaigner, his opponent will have to put in some big ticks to weaken him. Purcell has for his allies some of the fellows who charge Toole with unfaithfulness last fall and if Jack fills of nomination he can attribute it to the silent and effective work of some of these people and their friends. The latter has secured headquarters where also Recorder Schurzmann will hold forth on the day before the untimely meet to parcel out the plums. I tell you it is going to be red hot herabouts from the evening of the 23rd until sunset on the 31st. All the available vacant and some other offices in town are being secured for headquarters and the hotels from the Merchants' to the Northeast will be crammed and jammed with sweltering and wavering Democrats, full delegates and partly delegates, their cousins, uncles and nephews.

It will be a picnic and don't you forget it.

POINTS.

Patrick Phillips is making a quiet and effective canvass for Register.

Frank Webber, of North Manheim, has one of the Commissioner plums very nicely cornered.

Jim Leahy, of Gilberton, has the other, if he only holds it.

For townsmen, Mulholland, are neck and neck. Johnny Cypoe, of Frailley, is another in the field, but he is a little late.

Kirk, for Prothonotary, is ahead, with Mike Brannan a good second.

John E. Doyle may get himself ready to perform the arduous duty of drawing his salary as an Auditor.

Mr. David Whitehouse will be the Republican nominee for Treasurer or all signs must fall. Even the sparrows are singing his praises.

Your own Benny Seyers is rapidly endeavoring to get the nomination for Commissioner.

The Hoosters, all a knowin'.

Keep up a lively cawin'.

PROPERTIES FOR SALE.

Shenandoah Offers Opportunities to Seekers of Investment.

The following enumerated properties are for sale and information concerning them may be had upon application at the HERALD office:

1.—A row of frame houses containing apartments for six families. Will net at least 15 per cent. on the price asked. Location in the heart of Shenandoah.

2.—A splendid factory site, 30x30 feet in size, in the heart of Shenandoah, and including large building. Cheap.

3.—Lot and large building with railroad at front and rear, with or without 8 horse power engine, boiler and shafting. Splendid building for a factory.

4.—An elegant new house in Pottsville, complete in every detail, all conveniences, large and high rooms. Lot 60x170 feet. Large henery.

The New School Building.

Work has progressed so rapidly on the new West street school building that the frame work is almost completed. Yesterday Mike Heffron, one of the workmen, placed a flag at the pinnacle of the tower, which is to grace the northeast corner of the building and supplemented the act with quite a patriotic speech in which he said that some of the boys who will be educated in the building may become presidents of the country. The work of introducing the Smead-Mills heating and ventilating apparatus has also advanced very satisfactorily and the placing of the furnaces, pipes and brickwork attracts many spectators.

TEACHERS AT BOSTON.

They Tell of Their Safe Journey and Arrival.

LETTER TO THE "HERALD"

Misses Connelly and Faust, as the Guests of the "Herald," Are Enjoying Themselves Viewing the Many Places of Interest at Cultured Boston.

BOSTON, Mass., July 19. EVERYTHING passed pleasantly upon our trip to Boston. We arrived at Philadelphia about the noon hour on Tuesday, and, upon inquiry, learned that the only through train to Boston left Market street station at 7:00 p. m. This train was due at Boston at 8:30 a. m., but being late it was 10:00 o'clock when we reached the city.

The ride was a lengthy one and would have been more enjoyable could we have viewed the scenery, especially from the Poughkeepsie Bridge. The territory along the route is one of the most picturesque in the East. The view from Poughkeepsie Bridge is incomparably striking and beautiful. We hope to have the pleasure of taking in the beautiful scenery along the route on homeward journey.

We are pleasantly domiciled at the United States Hotel, the accommodations being of the best. Its splendorous, sanitary excellence, and unequalled location make it most desirable for transient visitors and tourists. It is located in the central part of the city, and covers an entire square.

The places of interest visited this afternoon were the Public Garden, Boston Common, Old South Church and the State House. The Public Garden and the Boston Common are beautiful parks, containing fountains, statues and lakes. The latter is especially noted for its many fine trees, there being over a thousand. The walks are spacious and shady, and the public drives are always crowded with handsome turnouts. These parks afford the residents of this city much enjoyment, as places of recreation.

The Old South Church, which we visited, contains a large museum of rare colonial and revolutionary relics. Some of them are valued very highly, as it would be impossible to duplicate them. It afforded us much pleasure to pass through this historic building and view, for the first time, the many curiosities of the days of 1776.

The famous State House stands in the summit of Beacon Hill, at the head of the Common. At the entrance are marble statues of Washington, Adams, Lincoln and others. The state library is in this building, as well as the offices of the state officers. From the cupola a superb panorama of the city, harbor and suburbs may be seen. The view from this point is grand. Boston harbor and bay, with their headlands and islands, unrivaled coast and marine situations, suburb situations showing the beauties of many, summer resorts—all abound in nook and corner, so to speak, of this grand section of our glorious country. This view was indeed a treat to your guests.

Tired and warm after four and a half hours of sight-seeing, we returned to the hotel to rest.

Our program for Thursday a. m. includes a visit to the historic Faneuil Hall, Bunker Hill, Charlestown and New England Conservatory of Music. From this visit we expect to gain much useful knowledge and pleasure.

We shall keep you informed as to our movements from time to time until our arrival home.
