IT WAS A HARD STRUGGLE

The Democratic Faithful Remain in Session From Ten O'clock Yesterday Morning Until One This Morning—Many Combinations Formed.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

POTTSVILLE, August 1st. HAIRMAN O'CONNOR proved himself the right man in the right place when he assumed the presiding chair in yesterday's Democratic convention. From the time he rapped for order until the gavel descended for final adjournment, he had the large number of delegates under his control. The convention was a noisy body of men. It would not be a Democratic assembly were it otherwise. For fifteen hours—from ten o'clock yesterday until one o'clock this morning—the "unofficial" divided into many factions, battled for supremacy. Union hall never before was the scene of such intense excitement.

The ticket which the Democratic voters of Schuylkill are expected to elect next fall is as follows: Judge—MORON WEIDMAN, Treasurer—GEORGE FOLMER, SR., Prothonotary—S. C. KIRK, Clerk of the Courts—JOHN J. TOOLE, Recorder—HENRY SCHEURMAN, Register—JOHN CURRIAN, Controller—P. J. MULHOLLAND, Surveyor—JACOB KEEBNER, Commissioners, JAMES LEAHY, J. P. MARTIN, Poor Director—JOHN KINNEY, Auditors, J. E. DOYLE, M. J. FOGARTY.

The committee on resolutions, of which John J. O'Connor, the efficient and obliging clerk of the almshouse, was chairman, submitted the following as the result of their labors: The representatives of the Democracy of Schuylkill county in convention assembled reiterate their confidence in the justice and wisdom of the Democratic party principles as declared in the National and State platforms. Resolved, That we record our appreciation of and faith in the ability and integrity of President Cleveland, and heartily endorse his course as being for the best interests of the whole country, thereby commending itself to the approval of every patriotic citizen. Resolved, That the just as course of Governor Pattison has justified the anticipations and predictions of his friends. Resolved, That the course of Congressman Kelly meets with the approval of his constituents. Resolved, That we approve the record of Senator Monaghan, of the Thirtieth District, and Representatives Dence and Folweller, of the Second and Third Districts, respectively.

The reading of the resolutions acted upon the enthusiasm of the convention as a wet blanket does upon a small blaze. They were adopted as a matter of form, eliciting no applause.

When Shaffer, of Orwigsburg, arose in the convention for the purpose of placing the name of George Folmer, Sr., in nomination for the office of Treasurer, every delegate in the hall was all attention. Carl Coogan did a like service for Muldoon. When the vote was being recorded a pin could have been heard descending to the floor, the interest in the result being so intense. Many rumors were about in reference to desertions from the Muldoon ranks. The vote proved that the latter's forces were badly marshaled, and the Folmer lieutenant had made inroads upon the Captain's lines. The result of this contest is a sad disappointment to the class of voters that make the Democratic majorities in this county possible.

The nomination of Folmer was looked upon as a death-blow to S. C. Kirk, but he made the nomination for Prothonotary by a handsome majority. Kirk broke the strength of the Folmer coalition, and John J. Toole and Henry Scheurman were easily nominated for Clerk of the Courts and Recorder respectively.

It required three ballots to decide the choice of the convention for Register. The first vote resulted as follows: Becker.....82 1/2, Hammel.....149 1/2, Martin.....85, O'Neil.....95, Phillips.....92 1/2, Kistler.....73, McKernan.....142, Smith.....129, Miller.....102 1/2, Curran.....104 1/2. There was no choice, and the Irish element were beginning to believe that their portion of the ticket would be small. Just before the second ballot Mr. Reber expressed the views of that element in these words: "In view of the fact that five offices have already been distributed, and among that number there being only one Irish candidate, I appeal to this convention to make the next nominee an Irishman. We want a ticket that can be elected in the fall; we don't want half Dutch or all Irish."

The second ballot also resulted in no choice, and in accordance with a previous resolution all candidates were dropped except the two highest. The third and final ballot resulted as follows: Curran.....55 1/2, O'Neil.....27 1/2. The fight for the most important office at the hands of the convention was somewhat of a surprise. There were five candidates named, the first ballot resulted as follows without a choice: Donohue.....64, McCarthy.....112, Mulholland.....101, Coyne.....127, Linsweaver.....101. The second ballot resulted in the selection of Mulholland by 5,897 votes. James Kashner was nominated on the first ballot for Surveyor.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. The greatest fight of the day, outside of the Treasuryship, was the contest for Commissioners. There were nine candidates, and each was confident of success. The first ballot resulted as follows: Leahy.....82 1/2, Messerschmidt.....62 1/2, Martin.....62 1/2, Weber.....32, Snyder.....114, Hoban.....107 1/2, Ferguson.....257 1/2, Hathaus.....27 1/2. The second ballot, after dropping the two lowest and the withdrawal of Snyder's name, resulted in the choice of Leahy and Martin by the following vote: Weber.....4 1/2, Leahy.....304 1/2, Martin.....20 1/2.

POOR DIRECTOR. The convention became somewhat unruly when Poor Director was reached. The nominees were Peter Condon, John Bergan, John Kinney, Lewis Kropp and Daniel Krohl. The first vote resulted as follows: Condon.....154, Bergan.....236, Kinney.....271, Kropp.....93 1/2, Krohl.....60 1/2. The second ballot resulted in the selection of Kenny, the three lowest being dropped.

COUNTY ADDITORS. When the nominees for Auditor was called for the following were named: John E. Doyle, John Conners, August Waechter, Robert Dressler, M. J. Fogarty and Frank Ackerman. It was decided that the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes be declared the nominees. Doyle and Fogarty were the lucky ones, as the following vote shows: Doyle.....200 1/2, Waechter.....87, Fogarty.....247 1/2, Dressler.....65 1/2, Ackerman.....113 1/2, Conners.....210 1/2.

This closed the work of one of the most remarkable conventions held in Schuylkill county. At 10 o'clock this morning Chairman O'Connor dropped the gavel for final adjournment.

USE DANA'S SABSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES." TOWN VIEWS. What the Local Democrats Think of Yesterday's Work. The result of the convention was taken as a surprise in this town and before the announcement on the Controllership was Muldoon's victory, however, and a pacifying effect, yet there is an undercurrent of antagonistic sentiment that warrants the belief that the Republicans can fill a number of offices on the court house hill this fall if they are judicious in their nominations.

A prominent Democrat stated last night that the tricky hand of "Jack" Toole was clearly discernible in the slate made yesterday, and he will be called to account next November. While there are a number of Democrats who profess to believe that the ticket is a strong one, it is quite evident that most of the candidates on it have a hard battle before them.

According to the gleanings last night the friends of Harry Muldoon are sorely disappointed, yet they say they will follow their leader's advice and stand by the ticket. A well known Irish Democrat said last night, "Jack Toole is certainly entitled to considerable credit for the work he did today. No one but Jack Toole could accomplish the same result, but if the Republicans are wise they will nominate a popular Irishman for Clerk of the Courts and Jack's career on the hill will end on the first of January, next. He has been of great service to the party, but he has been simply repaid during the past eight years and there is no particular reason why an asylum should be established for him on the hill."

The defeat of "Honest John" Bergan is also felt here and there is a prevailing opinion that the successful aspirant will have a hard time to hold the usual vote. There was no brass bands out last night. On the contrary, a number of prominent Democrats devoted considerable time to giving advice to the Republicans. Ordinarily this action on their part would be taken as a bluff, but there are excellent grounds for the belief that the disintegration is deep rooted and the Republicans have an excellent opportunity.

The motto of the proprietors of Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters is, "the greatest good to the greatest number," and so sell a large bottle of a valuable remedy for a small price of 25 cents, and warrant every bottle to give satisfaction or money refunded.

Important Notice. There will be a joint meeting of the School Directors and school teachers of the Shenandoah district in room 6 of the Centre street school building, on Wednesday evening, August 2, 1893, at 8:30 o'clock. The regular monthly meeting of the Board will be held at the same place after the adjournment of the joint meeting. By order of PATRICK CONRY, Pres. Attest—FRANK HANNA, Sec'y.

A BRUTAL HUSBAND.

Beat His Wife Until She Became Insensible.

GRAZED BY PETTY THEFT.

The Brute Disappeared After Nearly Killing His Wife and is Among the Missing. His Wife Believes He is Out of His Mind.

ADAM FREIDBERG, a Polish Jew, is a fugitive and has left a wife and three children in miserable circumstances on West Strawberry alley. Fear of prosecution by his wife drove him away and none of his intimate acquaintances have any idea of where he went.

Freidberg peddles cheap jewelry and notions for a living. A few nights ago he discovered a cheap ring was missing from his case and found it on the finger of one of his children, a girl about five years of age. He proceeded to administer punishment and became so savage that the wife interfered. Freidberg resented the interference by forcing his wife into another room and pounding her with a belt until she became insensible. He then left the house and upon his return resumed his cruel work by knocking the unfortunate woman down and kicking her until her body was almost covered with bruises. He then left the house and has not returned since.

Mrs. Freidberg says she believes her husband is out of his mind. He was in an asylum about eight years ago and was discharged as cured, but has frequently given slightly symptoms.

West Shenandoah colliery resumed operation today. The borough council will hold its regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening next. Frank McDermott, the manager of the P. & E. telegraph office, won the thanks of the six hundred taxpayers last night.

The telegraph wires were worked pretty lively between this town and Pottsville yesterday by anxious Democrats. The much-talked for leaks in the gas pipes on Main street were discovered yesterday in the connections leading to the Brown and Otto stores.

Michael Mellet says the delegate elections in town on Saturday had no bearing upon the postoffice. He says that appointment was settled weeks ago and he is the man. Michael Heaton, who was one of the Democratic aspirants for a Commissioner, was obliged to return from Pottsville at noon yesterday on account of being attacked by cramps.

Before the School Board meets for the transaction of regular business to-morrow night there will be a preliminary meeting of the superintendent, directors and teachers to consult upon a line of text books for the 1893-4 term.

A blind man singing to his own accompaniment on an organ, which is fastened upon a light truck so that it can be easily moved from one place to another, is the latest attraction on our streets.

Many of our townsmen hope the home base ball management will not be obliged to call upon Setley for service again. He made use of most foul language before ladies on the grand stand during the last game.

Many people are wondering whether President Betteger, of the Borough Council, will appoint a Board of Health at the meeting on Thursday night. He said two weeks ago he had decided in four members, but was at loss as to the fifth.

Watkin Waters Post, No. 146, G. A. R., of town, attended the camp fire of Meredith Post on Saturday night and had a jolly time. The Grand Band accompanied the post on the trip, and was highly complimented by the people of Frackville on the selections it rendered.

TO ENFORCE THE LAW.

Secretary Carlisle's Instructions to Collector Hendricks.

SMUGGLING MUST CEASE.

The Practice of Attaching the Official Seal to Certificates of the Chinese Has Aided in Evading the Law—Officials Either Corrupt or Indifferent.

Special to EVENING HERALD. WASHINGTON, August 1. ECVY CARLISLE has taken a hand in the Chinese situation at New York, which has been the occasion of so much friction recently between treasury agents and Collector Hendricks. Several letters have passed on the subject, and Secretary Carlisle brings the matter to a close in a long letter in which he says that the practice of allowing department officials to attach the official seal to certificates issued by the Chinese consul at New York was inaugurated before the present method of evading the law became prevalent. He proceeds:

"Your assumption that the responsibility for the execution of the laws relating to the exclusion of Chinese rest alone upon the collector is unwarranted. Upon that officer is devolved the duty of examining and deciding upon the testimony presented by Chinese persons claiming the right to enter the United States, but in all cases of doubt it is his duty, as it is the usual practice of collectors of customs, to submit the case to the secretary of the treasury for his decision, with whom lies the ultimate responsibility for the enforcement of these laws, and whose lawful instructions in the premises should be obeyed by the collectors."

The department cannot occur in your view, that the unauthorized practice, discontinued by its order of the 13th inst., of authenticating the certificates of the Chinese consul at New York by the signature and seal of the collector should be resumed. Evidence is before the department in one case where a Chinese person represented himself to be a member of a firm of Chinese merchants in New York and was so certified by the Chinese consul at New York, which certificate was duly authenticated by the seal of the custom house and the signature of one of your clerks, when in point of fact the Chinese person who presented himself at the cut, a house was another and entirely different person from the one named in the certificate.

"This man applied for admission at one of the frontier custom houses upon the effects mentioned, which, according to your theory, would be conclusive evidence of his right to enter, inasmuch as the photograph was that of the person who presented himself; but it was not that of the person named in the certificate, who was a real personage, formerly residing in New York and who was still in China. That many cases of this kind have occurred is beyond question, and the department sees no good reason for the continuance of a practice by your office which, in instances like that mentioned, only serves as an aid to those engaged in violating the law."

"It is an ascertained fact that many hundreds of Chinese laborers have come into the country within the past year under the guise of merchants, students, gentlemen or other persons of the exempt class, aided in some cases by customs officers, who were either corrupt or indifferent to their duty in the premises. It is my duty, as it is my purpose, to employ all the means at my command to enforce the law in good faith, and to that end I respect the cordial co-operation of all officers of the customs."

Employers and Employees Come to Terms. PITTSBURGH, Aug. 1.—The striking glass workers at Irwin have accepted the 5 per cent. reduction in their wages and returned to work. In Pittsburgh seven of the Jones & Laughlin mills closed down. A large number of men are idle, with no immediate prospect of work. The machinists who have been making repairs at Oilwell's mills went on a strike against an increase of from nine to a ten hour day. The Scottish Rolling Mill company, employing 300 men, have signed the Amalgamated scale. Work will resume in a few days.

Asbury Park's Baby Parade. ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 1.—Founder Bradley's fourth annual baby parade took place this afternoon. Upwards of 500 babies participated, among them being two pairs of twins, a set of triplets, a poodle, a Chinese baby and a number of colored infants. Fully 25,000 people witnessed the imposing parade.

Porter Returns to Journalism. NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The Press this morning contains a two column article announcing the return to editorial charge of that paper of Robert F. Porter, late census superintendent, who was one of its founders and its first editor-in-chief.

Histing Minnesota Miners. DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 1.—A riot is in progress at the mining town of Virginia, in the Mesaba range, and four ringleaders are in jail. The trouble is believed to be caused by delay in payment of wages at the Franklin mine.

Death of a Noted Car Builder. NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., Aug. 1.—John Stevenson, the well known car builder, died yesterday. Death was the result of a general dissolution caused by old age. Mr. Stevenson was 54 years of age, and a native of Ireland.
