THE CHICAGO HORROR.

Some Alarming Testimony Before the Grand Jury.

INGENDIARISM A COVER.

If the Statement of Joseph Duggan, Be True the Fatality Was Due to the Criminality of an Organized Gang of Thieves.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

CHICAGO, August 4. EVIDENCE of a startling nature concerning the Cold Storage Warehouse Company was taken by the grand jury yesterday. The witness who gave the evidence was Joseph Duggan, formerly a Stony Island avenue saloon keeper, and the man who first told of the looting of the Cold Storage Warehouse and its firing by a gang of robbers. He was flushed and excited with the inquiry he had undergone, but said he had made a clean breast of it all.

According to Mr. Duggan there were 150 men concerned in the conspiracy, and he declared that he had given the names to the grand jury. He said that from the opening of the exposition right up to the time of the fire goods were stolen, or at least removed from the Cold Storage Warehouse by the wagon load. The wagons used were express wagons generally, though he had known of water carts going out the gates with tanks filled with hams, bottles of wine and other stock.

"Who removed the goods?" he was asked by a reporter. "Employees of the warehouse and a gang that lives on Stony Island avenue, just outside the grounds." "Did you give evidence that would implicate the persons who removed the goods?" "Yes; there will be a sensation when this thing comes out. There are about 100 implicated. I have given the names to the jury."

More witnesses are testifying in regard to the affair today. The bonds of the World's fair officials, found guilty by Judge Stein of contempt of court in the violation of the Klingman injunction by closing the fair to the public Sunday, July 23, were filed yesterday, thereby suspending proceedings pending the action of the appellate court. The case cannot take precedence on the appellate court calendar, and at the earliest possible time will not be called before the end of next October.

Colored people from all parts of the country will visit the fair on Aug. 23, this day having been set aside by the fair management for the African race. The excursion committee has secured concessions from several railroads, and excursions will be run from Louisville and other southern cities and intermediate points. There will also be excursions from the east and west. The exercises will take place in Festival hall, beginning at 3 o'clock. Sisslerette Jones, the black Patti; Harry Burlingame, teacher in the National Conservatory of Music, New York; Sidney Woodward, of Boston, and Mme. Selika will be the soloists. A specially trained chorus of 100 voices, the original Fisk Jubilee singers and the exposition orchestra will participate. There will be scenes from the opera of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," composed by a young negro, Will M. Cook. All the music will be by colored authors. In the evening Fred Douglass will preside and deliver the address. Addresses will also be made by John M. Langston, of Virginia; B. K. Bruce, of Mississippi; Charles M. Morris, of New York, and other prominent colored orators.

One of India's potentates, the Maharajah of Kapurthala, reached Chicago yesterday. Accompanied by one of his half dozen wives and his retinue, he registered at the Hotel Windsor, where sumptuous apartments had been reserved for them. The Maharajah has come to see the fair and will stay until he has "done" the exposition thoroughly.

The paid admissions at the fair yesterday were 90,997.

Rioting Leadville Strikers.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Aug. 4.—Trouble occurred at the Arkansas Valley smelter when the company announced a reduction of 10 per cent. in all wages, to take effect at once. About forty men remained working, but the strikers got together and drove the men who were working out of the smelter. Quite a scuffle ensued, stones and clubs being generally used. No one is reported seriously injured, although several were badly pounded up. The plant will be shut down for the present. The captain of the Leadville militia has asked the adjutant general at Denver for arms and ammunition for use in case of necessity.

Two Hundred Houses Destroyed by Fire. LONDON, Aug. 4.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says that nearly one-third of the town of Port Louis, the capital of the island of Mauritius, was destroyed by fire on July 23. Eight streets were burned, including the Rue de la Chaussee, the principal commercial thoroughfare, on which were located the offices of the leading French and English merchants. About 200 houses, most of which had withstood the great hurricane of 1892, were consumed. The loss amounts to more than 1,000,000 rupees.

Hole-Positively Declines to Run Again. DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 4.—Governor Boies has written a letter to Chairman Fuller, of the Democratic state central committee, positively refusing to be a candidate for re-nomination for governor, being opposed to a third term. He advises his party to make no nomination for United States senator, but continue to stand for the election for United States senator by the people.

A Victim of College Hazards. WOOSTER, O., Aug. 4.—Charles Meininger, an imbecile, is dying in the poorhouse here as the result of a college hazing. Meininger came to this county two years ago from Lancaster, Pa. He was subject to epileptic fits, which have grown until he is helpless. He states that his trouble was brought on while attending school, when a party of classmates subjected him to a hazing.

OBES OBSERVATIONS.

What He Sees and Hears During His Travels.

When compared with the two squares below, Main street, between Centre and Canal, presents a pitiful sight. The property owners on these two squares are letting a rare opportunity slip through their hands by not making a move towards paving. Perhaps when they fully realize the benefits of paving and wish to secure it the Borough Council will not be in a condition to meet the requirements and these people will kick themselves for their tardiness.

One of the most difficult things is to convince the majority of people that a glass of hot water will much more effectively quench thirst than ice water, or even ordinary cold water. Most persons shrink from the bare thought of drinking a glass of hot water on a warm day. Naturally such would be the case, but the shrinking from it is a mistake. It will prove a little heating temporarily, which will be followed by an agreeable coolness, and an abatement of thirst that will surprise. It will not cost much to make the experiment.

The Shenandoah lady who wants to be a young lady all her life should make it a rule to go to bed early, to get up early and to sleep alone on a clean hair mattress that is regularly aired and annually made over. She doesn't want a pillow, and never, never, never a comfortable one on her bed; the pillow is thought to hinder perfect respiration and to spoil a pretty back, and the cotton-weighted cover is known to obstruct ventilation. Blankets and quilts are loosely woven; they allow the excretions from the sweat glands to escape; comfortable do not, on account of the density of the cotton batting the skin is heated, the perspiration does not evaporate readily, and in consequence the lungs, intestines and kidneys are forced to do extra work in carrying off the waste material.

I have been surprised in my rambling about town to find that there are some Democrats who look upon the nomination of P. J. Mulholland for Controller as a joke and do not hesitate to say that he is the milstone on the ticket nominated last Monday. Now I am of the opinion that these people may be treated to a big surprise on the morning following the election next November and that the Controllership is not a plum on which the Republicans can build with certainty. It is quite true that Mr. Mulholland is not a man of wealth or special prominence in the county; it is also true that he had not the advantages for education in his younger days that the young men of to-day enjoy and that he by no means ranks in the higher lines of educated people, but it does not follow that this may defeat him. By his townsmen "Paddy" is known as a good natured, jovial fellow with a good stock of common sense and a good supply of sagacity. Perhaps it was good sense on his part, but before the Democratic convention was held he rejected and emphatically declared that if Harry Mulholland failed to secure the nomination for treasurer he (Mulholland) would be named for Controller, but if Mulholland won the Controllership would not be expected. Many are now inclined to the opinion that "Paddy" had a far better insight of the situation than the majority of his friends thought he had, and I am of the opinion that should he be elected to the office the duties will be performed as well and in all probability better than some of the people who are inclined to taunt him on his lack of education could carry them out. The official is one of the most important in the county, but it must be remembered that the incumbent will have the privilege of a chief clerk as a salary that will be acceptable to a man of ability and if a Controller with any common sense and his efficient chief clerk should strike a snag there is plenty of legal talent at hand at all times on the hill. Mulholland filled the office of Chief Clerk of Shenandoah for two successive years and he left the office with a clean record. I believe that should he be elected Controller he is capable of building up another similar record. Mulholland is poor and lacks educational advantages of many of his fellow men, but he says he has enough common sense to keep his feet out of the sand.

My point is that many of those who are now joking us as a Mulholland may yet dance to his bidding.

The local political pot is beginning to boil in earnest. It was simmering before the Democratic county convention, but since the work of that body has been completed the relative merits and demerits of the respective candidates has occupied the attention of the average Shenandoah statesman. Although this is called an "off year," there will be no lack of interest in political circles in this county.

A few days ago I enjoyed a ride over the Lehigh Valley road, and at East Penn Junction my attention was directed to a novel railroad safety gate, being introduced by that company. They are worked by air pressure. A pump is attached for pumping air into the pipes controlling the gates and whenever these are to be used they will work with a slight movement of the gate tender's fingers. They will come down and return up uniformly and steadily.

During a discussion over the scarcity of sites for dwellings in this town, J. J. Franey made a unique suggestion the other day. He thought that in a pinch a good many building lots could be secured by filling in the old mine breaches of the Kehley Run colliery north of Linn street.

The motto of the proprietors of Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters is, "the greatest good to the greatest number," and so sell a large bottle of a valuable remedy for the small price of 25 cents, and warrant every bottle to give satisfaction or money refunded.

High Priced Neighbors. The Mahanoy City base ball management has a remarkable nerve. When asked to play a game with the home team at the "Trotting park" it very modestly asked for a guarantee of $50. Clubs that play at Mahanoy City receive a guarantee of $25 for each game.

A common cold should not be neglected. Down's Elixir will cure it.

THE LOCAL BUDGET.

Items, Which the Reporters Have Gleaned.

TARDY BOROUGH COUNCIL.

The Regular Meeting Which Was to Have Been Held Last Night Fell Through Because a Quorum of the Members Could Not be Secured.

THE first Thursday of each month is the date upon which the Borough Council is expected to meet to review all business of the month past and arrange plans for the next half month. It is an important meeting and under an old established rule the only one at which bills can be paid, so it is really the forerunner of pay day for the people who perform work for the borough during the month and a failure of the Councilmen to meet is a sore disappointment to these people.

Last night the Councilmen were very tardy and the hour fixed for the opening, 7:30 o'clock, found none of them present. At a few minutes before 8 o'clock some of them walked in and a couple finding that there was not a quorum present and that President Hetteridge was not there, walked out again. The Councilmen who visited the chamber during the evening were Messrs. James, Cookley, Finney, Dougherty, Gallagher, Vandusen, Hudson and McGuire, but the coming and going made it impossible to get eight in the room at one time for a quorum and those who did remain finally went away disgusted.

No meeting can be held now until some night next week and meanwhile any business depending on the action of Council must remain unsettled until that time. Among those who waited last night were Messrs. Franey and Brewer, who are interested in the Columbian Brewing Company, but they said they were not on hand to ask anything of Council in connection with their enterprise, save to make an explanation as to why the bricks which are to be used in the construction of the brewery building have been allowed to block the South Main street pavement. The explanation is called on account of a complaint by a neighboring property owner.

President Hetteridge's failure to put the Board of Health in operation was fully criticized last night. He has had two months in which to make a selection of five citizens, and the summer is fast drawing to a close. Many thought last night that even if he was unable to attend the meeting it was no excuse for a failure of the appointments as the names could have been sent to Council in writing. The presence of the President was not necessary to make the appointments legal, and there is nothing to prevent the President announcing the appointments between meetings of Council.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES." TELEPHONE SERVICE.

The Long Distance Telephone Company is pushing the work of connecting the various towns in this county by the long distance telephone. The line will extend through Mahanoy City to Pottsville and Reading in one direction, and through Tamaqua and Mauch Chunk to Allentown, Bethlehem and Easton in another direction. At Reading and Tamaqua connection will be made with the main lines of the American Telephone Company, extending to Scranton, Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre, Buffalo, Pittsburg, Chicago, Milwaukee, in the west, and Philadelphia, Washington, New York, Boston and Portland, in the east. It will be possible under the new system to hold a clear and intelligible conversation with persons in any of the cities mentioned.

In addition to the through lines local metallic circuits will be provided for business between the important towns of the county, thus avoiding delays in connection incident to the present system. The service is now in operation in Mahanoy City, and is apparently giving general satisfaction.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES." A NEW FACTORY.

Work commenced on the Shenandoah Manufacturing Company's building. The contract for the erection of the Shenandoah Manufacturing Company's hat and cap factory was yesterday awarded to Jesse R. Davis for $2,950. The building is to be located on Euerick street, just north of Canal. It will be a four-story frame structure covering a lot 80 x 30 feet.

Evan J. Davis, who has the contract for making excavations for the foundations, started a large force of men at work yesterday morning.

The Shenandoah Manufacturing Company is a joint stock company which succeeds Robbins & Hennebach. The firm was so successful in its business that the organization of the company and the erection of a new and larger factory was made necessary to meet its orders, which are now coming in from all sections of the United States.

Dadurka Under Hat. Charles Dadurka, who was reported in the Herald a few days ago as having deserted his wife and taking $2,700 of her money, and who subsequently returned and restored the funds has now been placed under $300 bail by Justice Monaghan for assaulting the woman since his return.

Schneider Sells. Michael Schneider has sold his saloon and restaurant at the corner of White and Centre streets and Martin V. Heisenberger is applying for a transfer of the license.

STEAMER SUNK.

An Excursion Steamer Goes to the Bottom of Lake George.

Special to EVENING HERALD. ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 4.—This morning an excursion steamer, carrying several hundred pleasure seekers, went to the bottom of Lake George, near Pearl Point. The life boats were immediately manned, and the brave crew, with the assistance of several passengers, saved all on board with the exception of twelve. Those met their death in a watery grave.

PERSONAL.

F. H. Moyer, of Dresherville, was a town visitor to-day. J. O. Roads, of Pottsville, was in town yesterday afternoon. John Kern is home from Cambria county to spend a brief vacation.

Miss Ruth Williams, of Green Ridge, is visiting relatives in town. Mrs. Fred J. Portz, of North Main street, left to-day for Nesquehanna. Conductor (toldner) of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, is at the World's Fair.

Miss Susie Daniels returned to her home at Shamokin yesterday, after visiting relatives here. Misses Lottie and Katie Burkhardt are spending several days with friends at Mauch Chunk.

The wife of M. Bury, the watchmaker, returned home last evening, after an extended trip to Germany. Miss Williams, of Jersey City, who had been visiting her uncle, S. D. Hess, returned home this morning.

Misses Sadie Kehler and Lizzie Krapp are the guests of Hazleton friends, where they will spend a week. Capt. Bailey, president of the Traction Company, and Hon. D. D. Phillips, of Gordon, were in town to-day.

Miss Sue Fowler left for Pittsburg yesterday. Before returning she will go to Chicago and visit the World's Fair. Mrs. O. B. Frye and sons, Frank and Alton, of Wilkes-Barre, are visiting the family of James Daniels, on North White street.

Rev. Gross and wife are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Kistler. Rev. Gross is the Presiding Elder of the Evangelical church in this district. B. L. Tally and wife, who had been the guests of Mrs. Tally's parents in town since Monday last, left for their home in Baltimore, Md., this morning.

Mrs. Fairchild and daughters, Mahala and Tillie, returned home last evening after spending two weeks pleasantly with friends in New York, Jersey City and other places. Keep your premises clean. The family health depends upon it.

The Schuylkill Press Association meets at Pottsville next Tuesday. The secretaryship of the School Board, at $40 per month, is quite a plum now. A substantial flag pavement is being laid in front of the Folts property on East Coal street.

Trains entering this town still run at a rate of speed contrary to the borough ordinances. The Hobbins property, at the corner of Centre and White streets, is receiving a new coat of paint.

Railroad men under the employ of the Reading company now receive their pay by checks, instead of the cash as heretofore. Captain Jack Crawford, the post scout, well known in this town, was honored by being elected one of the vice presidents at the silver convention in session at Chicago.

All the towns in the county are now experiencing a drought, such as existed about this time last year. Economy should, therefore, be exercised by consumers. The truck of car No. 23, owned by the Schuylkill Traction Company, and which was destroyed by fire at No. 5 several weeks ago, has been shipped away to be rebuilt.

The foundations for the new dwellings to be erected adjoining the Herald office, by F. C. Keese and Charles Smith, is nearing completion and will soon be ready for the frame work.

The English Baptist Sunday schools of this town and Mahanoy City will hold a joint picnic at Lakeside to-morrow. A very pleasant time is expected. The fare for the round trip will be only 25 cents.

BEFORE THE JUSTICES.

The Local Courts are Kept Busy.

THE RESULT OF PAY-DAY.

Squire Monaghan, the Dispenser of Justice in the "Bloody First," Tries Two Cases Upon the Charge of Assault and Battery. Other Local Happenings.

PAY day brought with it the usual quota of arrests and suits before justices and the calendar of the First ward court received several additions to its record. To-day Justice Monaghan was kept busy giving hearings to the "sobered up" who had reclined on the soft sides of the lockup benches over night.

One of the cases was that of Henry Riley, of Lanigan, against Anthony Potrowsky, employed as a blacksmith in the shops at Ellengowan colliery. Riley and another young man named Thomas Griffiths were whistling a tune as they walked into the shop and Potrowsky told them to desist, as the whistling annoyed him. The injunction was not respected and Potrowsky ordered the young men from the shop. An exchange of sarcastic compliments followed and kicking Riley. The latter retaliated very effectively with a "sprag" and then came to town and swore out a warrant. Potrowsky was required to furnish $300 bail for his appearance at court.

Another case was that of Miss Elsie Dowling against her brother, Martin, charging him with assaulting herself and mother, while intoxicated. Martin is only twenty years of age. He imbued too freely in pay day juice and resented a scolding his mother had given and the testimony went to show that he is habitually abusive at home. He was committed to jail in default of $500 bail.

There was quite a lively row in Bradley's row in the First ward last night and this morning Jacob Kookka made his appearance as complainant with a badly swollen head and out face, and an eye that looked like a piece of beef that had traveled from San Francisco to Shenandoah in a car without ice. It was an ugly looking eye. Kookka charges that Mike Powchen and George Anglovich had beaten and kicked him. The latter was put under bail, but Powchen cannot be found.

The battle of Gettysburg. We beg leave to advise our readers to be sure and not forget to see the panorama of the battle of Gettysburg, while in Chicago during the fair. Take advantage of the low rates and see Gettysburg. There is no picture in the world like this of Gettysburg; or other picture presents such a scope of country, gives such a thrilling representation of a battle. It is no wonder it is called "Chicago's Pride, and Greatest Artistic Attraction." It is the original Gettysburg, and has been here on exhibition for the last ten years. To give our readers an idea of its popularity, we can only say that during those ten years over two millions of people have visited it, and it has paid its stockholders over $415,000 in dividends. It is situated in the centre of the city, corner of Walsh avenue and Hubbard court. Any south side cable car takes you directly to it.

Baxter's Mandrake Bitters cure indigestion, heartburn, costiveness and all malarial diseases. Twenty-five cents per bottle. Im

A Family Reunion. Quite a family reunion was held at the residence of George Knecht, at Reading, Pa., recently in honor of Miss Wheeling, America's present Mrs. S. W. Knecht and children of Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Knecht and family; Miss Gertrude Knecht, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Galena Knecht, Miss Sally Knecht, of town; Thomas Train, H. Walger, of New Jersey, and others. Miss Wheeling, after spending three weeks as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Knecht, left for Philadelphia and Cape May. On September 1st she will be joined by Miss Gertrude Knecht, and together they will visit the World's Fair and other points of interest in the West.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Obituary. Mrs. Hennessy, an aged woman who earned a living for herself and disabled husband by doing washing for families in town, died at her home in Brownsville this morning. She had been confined to her home only since Tuesday evening last. Old age and chronic dysentery caused death.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES." He is Known. Dr. Mohrlander says the party who stole the violin from his office in Finney's 21st store is known and that unless the instrument is immediately returned an officer will be sent to look for it.
