In the arrangements of the preliminaries it was aunounced that Mr. Pyle, of Pottstown, and Mr. Pat Ryan, of Mahanoy City, act as umpires. It was feared that Mr. Pyle would have a heap of trouble pleasing all on the grounds, but such did not prove to be the ase. He had a picnic. The Shenandoah players retired the Pottsvilles so read by that no close decisions were called for. They all fell to the lot of Mr. Ryan, and the prevailing sentiment after the end of the contest was that if there was a shadow of favor in any of Pumer, of
