COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

Work of Reporters at Frackville, Gilberton and Other Places.

Miss M. Wainright, of Elk county, is the guest of Mrs. John Haupt.

Miss Helen Cahoon, of Girardville, is visiting relatives in town.

John Lauck, Orville Miller and Thomas Beldow left for the World's Fair on Monday.

On Monday a large pigeon hawk swooped down on a chicken in the yard of Mrs. E. Nice, of Lehigh avenue. Some young men working around the stable threw some stones at it, one of which struck the bird and stunned it. It fell into Daniel Hoffman's yard, who secured it. It is a handsome specimen and is now in the possession of Harry Sienfor.

Miss Maude Madara is visiting relatives in Hazleton.

Lawrence Ellis, of Minersville, is compounding medicines at Bieller's drug store during Will Holt's vacation.

On Wednesday Leeman James Kolbach's team met with a serious, and what might have resulted in a fatal, accident, while driving with a load of ice to Mahanoy Plane. About two hundred yards this side of the Lawrence breaker the brake gave out, throwing the heavy wagon on the hind quarters of the team. The team took fright and dashed down the road at a fearful pace. About one hundred yards below the breaker the runaways dashed into a team coming up the road, completely wrecking the buggy and driving one of the spokes of the broken buggy into the side of one of the runaway horses. A little south of this, and not far from that dangerous curve in the road, the team ran into the bank, throwing the wounded animal underneath, and smashing the wagon. It is simply miraculous that the team escaped dashing into the breach. Mr. Kolbach escaped any serious injury, but by the loss of a horse and broken vehicles will be out about two hundred dollars.

A dangerous customer, while in his cups, got full of benzine to the neck, on Tuesday evening, and with an ax endeavored to demolish furniture, residence, fences, and everything destroyable at his home on Nice street. The place is just outside the borough limits and that is just what saved the "jag" from costing a good round sum of money. As it is, the landlord may institute criminal proceedings.

Miss Bertha Beard is enjoying a few weeks, vacation among Reading friends.

Miss Carrie Wagner and Miss Rachel Sanner left on Saturday afternoon for Williamsport where they will spend a few weeks visiting friends.

Wesley Eller, of Olean, N. Y., formerly of town, left on Tuesday for his home in New York. Mr. Eller is prospering in the miller business in the Empire state.

Our genial baker, Al Steahle, took a trip to Camden last week, accompanied by Miss Keihl, of Ashland. They returned as Mr. and Mrs. Steahle, and the happy young couple's many friends are now busily engaged in extending their congratulations.

A band of gypsies camped at Head of Grade are attracting a number of our people, young and old, who go there to have their fortunes told. There may be a stringency in currency throughout the country, but the way the ducaats roll into the hands of these fortune tellers would lead one to suppose that this neighborhood is an exception.

GILBERTON.

Miss Clara Borer, of Phila., is among the visitors to town.

James McDevitt and wife were at Philadelphia during the week.

John T. Davis' houses in the west end were treated to a coat of paint.

Thomas Wynne will soon have a new block of houses on Railroad street ready for occupancy.

Thomas Fellows should be careful with his fast team and not drive so fast through town.

Thomas Judd is laid up with a severe scalp wound, received at Gilberton colliery Monday.

Miss Carrie Holt, a Pottsville school marm is visiting her father, a druggist at this place.

William Jarvis has a fine pavement laid before his property.

E. F. Dolan has fixed his house preparatory to changing the postoffice.

John Lattery will shortly move to Philadelphia and will be succeeded in his present business by Robert Zimmerman, night foreman at Draper colliery.

James Henry is now a full-fledged tea merchant.

Daniel Purnell, of Spring City, is a town visitor.

The new slope on the mammoth vein at Draper colliery is about finished, the workmen's last set of timber being almost completed. Work opening new gangways and fixing the bottom will begin at once. This last lift is the fifth, being one deeper than elsewhere in the Valley. It is eighty yards in depth and it is supposed that from sixty-five to eighty yards still remain before the basin is reached. Mr. Matthews is to be congratulated on the work done since he assumed charge of this colliery. They are also making room for a new slope on the Printree vein in the second lift.

MAHANOY PLANE.

Miss Maggie Tucker, one of Northumberland's charming and vivacious young school marm, returned home on Wednesday, after sojourning among friends in town for the past few weeks.

Miss Lizzie Parcell, of Arnot, Tioga county, is spending a few weeks in town as the guest of her uncle, Mr. James Murphy, of North Main street.

Francis Duffy, employed as a brakeman by the P. & E., had his hand badly mashed on Monday.

Mrs. Kate Dormer, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents in town.

Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick contemplates taking a trip to the World's Fair in the near future.

Secretary J. E. McKeon has been very busy during the week assigning text-books to the different schools throughout the borough, and keeping account of the same. His labor has been increased considerably since the duties of librarian devolves upon him. At the last meeting of the School Board Miss Gleason was appointed to her former position at Gilberton and Miss Horan was transferred to Gil-secondary room in this ward. School will open on Monday, the 21st inst., and pupils will be supplied with books free of charge. It is the duty of parents, as well as teachers, to see that these books are cared for properly.

George Torpey arrived home from Chicago Wednesday.

Garrett Connors, Jr., came up from New Jersey Saturday to spend a few weeks among his old friends.

John Ryan is about on crutches in consequence of a hurt received while at work. It is rumored that John will take unto himself a wife in the near future.

Frank Duffy had several fingers smashed while coupling cars on the town track Monday.

Sabina and Katie, Durkin, two prepossessing young ladies, of Ashland, spent Saturday here visiting friends.

Denila Hulihau and Kate Severt were married in St. Mary's church Thursday. James Hunt, of Big Mine Run, was groomsmen, and Mary Severt, a sister of the bride, assisted her. Father McGinn officiated, and after the ceremony which united the young couple for life they repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where an elaborate repast awaited them. Subsequently the bridal party drove to Mahanoy City and returned via Shenandoah. We extend our congratulations.

St. Mary's church was the scene of another pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon, when Peter Higgins and Winnie Early, both of Gilberton, were made one. They afterwards were driven to Pottsville and dined at Zimmerman's cafe.

MAIZEVILLE.

Miss Ellie Horan has been changed from Gilberton to teach at Mahanoy Plane. We bespeak success for Miss Horan.

The Sidney colliery is still idle, waiting for some one to take hold of it. There is nothing to lose, gentlemen; let some one try it.

Prof. Sweeney, of Orwigburg, who is interested in the sale of text books, was here on Wednesday.

Measr. Gorley and Middleton each suffered the loss of a fine cow; the former's was killed on the railroad and the latter's died.

Thomas McCook, a gay young machinist of Philadelphia, spent Tuesday with his parents at this place.

A tally-ho party left for Ringtown on Sunday and report having a good time.

White's Wonder Worker, 50 cents per bottle, 3 bottles $1.00. White's White Wonder Soap, 10 cents per cake; 3 cakes, 25 cents. 8-13-3t.

Grand Display of FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

.....In Wraps

We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indolent braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
