Pauls, Aug. 23.—The Italian ambasonior, in an interview with M. Dupuy, after expressing the regret of the Italian government for the excesses committed in Italian cities against France, informed him that the officials responsible for the mainten-ance of order in flome had been dismissed and that reparation would be made for any injuries done to French property.

M. Dupuy, in his reply, expressed the French government's regret for the Aigues-Mortes affair, and assured the aubassador that the safety of Dalian work-men would be guaranteed. He added that the French inquiry tended to show that the Italians were the agressors.
