LETTER FROM NIAGARA.

Interesting Correspondence From a Shea andon't School Teacher.

EDITOR HERALD-In consideration for the great kindness shown me by my friends dur ing the contest in giving me their support, I ing the contest in giving me their support, I not think it necessary to accompany this will endeavor to tell what I saw on my trip small number, and consequently they were we passed through the beautiful Wyoming Valley and could not help remembering how here occurred a massacre during our struggle for independence. Beside noting the points of beauty on all sides, dered some fine selections. But the objective point was the Falls, and thither we went. When, as I am writing, I think of the impression which this most wonderful creation of a Supreme Being had on me, and hear its mighty roar, I fail to find words to describe it, and most heartily wish that all may some day behold it.

Among the many points of interest which we visited I would name Goat Island, Luna Island the triple islands of three sisters and the Whiripool Rapida. We also crossed the Suspension Bridge to view the Falls from both the American and Canadian sides But to me the most awe-inspiring part was to stand at the foot of Horseshoe Falls and look up at that enormous volume of water ever rushing over a perpendicular height of 165 feet, and never ceasing in its flow. It has been estimated that five billion barrels of water flow over every twenty-four hours, a quantity which the finite mind cannot grasp, As we stood here the spray rose to the heaven like a thick veil or mist, while on looking from the top this mist and the sun shining on it formed a most beautiful rainbow with a back ground of what looked to me like a great mass of ice broken into countless small pieces

At every turn some new beauty struck the sight until at length we turned away bowildered and could but exclaim, "How wonderful are Thy works!"

When we crossed the bridge we soon discovered that we were not treading on our native soil, because here we saw the English flag floating around us instead of our glorious stars and stripes. Here we went through beautiful Victoria Park, and had our attention drawn to the battle field of Lundy's

I could now tell the height of the different falls and the width at different places of the river, but so much has been written on this point, which all have undoubtedly read, that interest. As our stay here is drawing to a close, with indulgence I will use the words of another to express the impression which the Falls have made.

"Flow on forever, in thy glarious robe Of terror and of beauty. Yes, flow on, Unfathemed and resistless. God hath set His rainbow on thy forehead, and the cloud Mantled around thy feet. And He doth give The voice of thunder power to speak of Him Eternally-bidding the lip of man Keep silence, and upon thine after pour Incense of awe-struck praise."

TRAMPS ENJOYING LIFE.

Band of Thieving Nomada Encamped in a Productive Place.

There are over fifty tramps in rendezvous about half a mile from Slabtown, in the Roaring Creek Valley, who are living on the best to be had in that neighborhood, and they seem to be enjoying themselves. They have SHENANDOAH, PENNA. nearly all the comforts of a home there, and are right in the centre of a good producing neighborhood, where they have little trouble in getting food. The only thing they inck is "cawfay." That, they say, is very difficult to get, so their neighbors persist in keeping it out of the cellar and they lock the upper part of their bouse

When a reporter called at the camp the other afternoon there were a dozen or more of the wandering boys stretched beneath the shady trees, and close by them were the dying embers of a fire in a rudely constructed fire place, and the remains of three or four fat pullets, innumerable rossting cars and potatoes. Their neonday meal had just been ended and they were enjoying a sleep which their medical adviser told them was a splendid aid to digestion. None of them seemed to be troubled with dyspepaia or kindred disonsee, but they were taking no chances.

They all awakened when the reporter ontered the camp, and with remarkable unanim ity they inquired:

"Say, cap, hev ye got any terbaccer?" and learning that "cap" had none, they fell back into a doze again, unmindful that a stranger was in camp, and with the reckless abandor of men who do not need to lie awake to guard their valuables. One big fellow who could not look toward the creek without shuddering at the thought that it was largely composed of he was Colorado "Pete."

'I'm not a tramp," was his superfluor opening explanation; "I'm on de bum temp prilly. De slup in allver turn me out of work au I'm forced into dis. I've tried to get sumthin' to do but can't. Y' see I've been used ter workin' about the silver mines, an' I can't get a tap to do at me trade. I can't work very well at anything else, an' I've got ter wait till Congress passes de free coinage law. It's not true dat we've been robbin' people about here. Course we've bin foragin' a little. I'll admit dat, but den we must live, an' how'll we live unless we get sumthin to eat? It's rediclus to think so. We call dis place Camp Wait, part in honor of my friend Guverner Waite and part because we're waitin' t'see wot Congress will do. Say can't you duffup nuff staff to get us cawfay? 1 tink if I could jess get one cap of good black cawfay it ud put my stommick in first class shape. Deres nuthin' like caway when you's travlin' 'less 'tis a snifter of booze now'n then."

"Tell you wot," said a worn and weary one who was resting his head at the roots of the tree that shaded Gov. Waite's gen leman fren',"dis Chanshul stringgency is jus ruinnin rected in the yard at the rear of the White the country. Would you b'lieve it, out dere's tousands of hones men, like me, trown idle by it. My bizness is rained an' I'm lef widout a fren' in de worl'. W'ot biznes was I in? # FINE DRESS GOODS =

RESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete-china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

We find the most stylish and ....In Wraps the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single, double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indescent braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached-sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
