IN SENATE AND HOUSE

Senators Hill and Batler Support a Populist Resolution. WASHINGTON, Ang. 24.-The assion of the house restorday was not without in-terest, but the members are beginning to feel the effect of long hours of labor, and their attention to the speakers was rather hatless. Indeed the only speech which remised them from their inthargy was that delivered by Mr. Cummings, of New York. He spoke for less than twenty minutes, but within that time he concentrated a defense of New York democracy against Residence in Gérmany Not a Matter of the democracy of the south. The other star speaker was Mr. Cannon, of Illinois. Against the opinions of a large number of his Republican colleagues, he held and held forcibly—that the repeal of the pur-chasing clause of the Sherman bill would be a mistake. He believed in standing by the Republican platform. The debuie was opened by Mr. C. W. Stone (Pa.), in favor repeal, and his remarks were ably see onded by his colleague, Mr. Dalzell Movers, Ryan, Fitch and Covert (N. Y.) also spoke against free coinage. Mr. Hatch (Mo.) argued against the Wilson bill. Mr. Turner (Ga.) favored the free coinage of silver, but at the highest ratio which had been proposed. Mr. Coffeen (Wro.) and Mr. Taylor (Tenn.) both up-heid the cause of silver, and ware rein-forced by Mr. Maguire (Colo.) and Mr. Hell (Tex.) Minister's Query. Minister's Query. Washington, Aug. 24.—A published re-port regarding the alleged flippant an-swer of Governor Waite, of Colorade, to the inquiry of Baron Fava, the Italian minister, regarding the killing of Italians of Crimito Couch Colo. at Cripple Creek. Colo., in which the gov-ernor was said to have winked at lawless ions, is officially denied. Secretary Gresham asked Governor Waits unofficially for in ormation to enable him to answer the Italian minister, and on receipt of the governor's answer Mr. Gresham wrote an planation to the baron, in which he said that the attack was not due to race prejudice, but to a feeling against cheap labor. Secretary Gresham stated that living at Cripple Creek was somewhat higher than in the case, and that miners and other workmen expected better wages accord when the Americans there found them selves underbid by the Italians they tool forcible means of securing the end they desired, but they did so with no feeling against the unpopular workmen as Ital-inns. They would have acted in the same manner, the secretary stated, had the cheap laborers been of any other national ity. Mr. Gresham expressed regret at the accurrence and hoped, in the usual man-Ity. ner, that it would not disturb the friendly relations between the two countries. It is said at the state department that the reply of Governor Waite to Secretary Grasham was courteous and contained nothing that could give offense to the Italian government.

Immigrants Detained.

PHILADELPHIA, May 94-Twenty-seven of the 500 immigrants by the steamer British Prince are held for further investigation into their condition. Eight of the twenty-seven are entirely destitute, and at present it looks as though they must be returned, as the adoption of this country as their home would only result in their being a charge on the public bounty. Commissioner Rodgers is still receiving many requests from immigrants who wish to leave the country.
