The servant girls who went to the World's Fair are reported to be returning to their former homes. They thought they saw exceedingly large wages in Chicago while the fair was being held, but they have not realized this expectation, and many of them have been unable to get employment. The housekeepers of the East, South and West who have been distressed by the departure of their servants, and have done a good deal of work to "fill a gap" to which they are unaccustomed, will welcome the wanderers, and there will be no reproaches.

The old suggestion of forcing the negroes to live in one place, this time in a desolate region in New Mexico and Arizona, has been revived again by an Alabama man in a "piece" which he has spoken before an educational conference. There are just two objections to the scheme. First, 7,000,000 or 8,000,000 human beings can't be forced to live in one place until they are dead, if an Irish bull may be permitted. And, secondly, if the negroes should be deported to New Mexico and Arizona, the people whose prosperity now depends on their labor would raise a riot, with lynching being in which the organizers of the scheme would enact the principal role.

It is announced that a number of Germans now living in Kansas have decided to leave that State and settle in Dorchester County, Maryland. This recalls the fact that some years ago a colony of German immigrants settled in the most barren portion of Carroll County, Maryland, and by skillful farming and thrift have made their lands as fertile and profitable as any in the State. "When a sturdy race like this," says "The Philadelphia Ledger," "begins to leave the State, the Kansas authorities who are responsible for its growth and prosperity may be brought to their senses. At the present low prices which rule for much of the farm land in the Eastern States there is money in farming here for the Western farmer who will bring his economic habits with him. It is the common observation that farming will pay on our side of the continent at the present prices of good farms."

The Democratic crusade against pensioners has induced some investigations, the result of which may have the effect of cooling the ardor of the crusaders. It has been found that while the Southern States only pay $6,000,834 for revenue taxes, there is paid for pensions to their citizens by the National Government $12,608,946. Most of these pensions are paid to Mexican War veterans, many of whom fought desperately against the Government during the civil war. Among them are men who held high rank in the rebel army, as well as the widows of a number of such. The Southern papers have uttered many a growl because of their section being taxed to pay the Union soldiers pensions, yet the figures show that the Northern people are being taxed to pay pensions to the men of the South. These Mexican War pensions are paid, not for wounds or disability, but for simple service. They are paid, as we have seen, to men who tried to break up the Union. Before Mr. Hoke Smith goes on with his work of suspending pensioners in the interests of economy, would it not be well to save the more than $12,000,000 paid to these ex-rebels. Some of the suspended pensioners may not be disabled sufficiently to draw a pension under existing law, but all of them fought for the Union and have a better right to consideration than the men who simply fought for the extension and maintenance of slavery and the disruption of the Nation.

HILL'S SILVER SPEECH.
The New York Senator Speaks for Bimetallism.

A SLAP AT THE ADMINISTRATION.

He Will Vote for the Repeal Bill "Unswayed by Power and Uncorrupted by Federal Patronage"—He Is for Free Coinage at a Diminished Ratio.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—At the close of the routine business in the senate, which comprised no matter of public interest except the presentation of communications from the treasury department adverse to any special legislation in regard to penalties on the sticky tax, Mr. Hill addressed the chair and was recognized.

There were those, Mr. Hill said, who did not wholly agree with the president in his diagnosis of the malady now afflicting the body politic, and who did not hastily join with him in the rosy conclusions that the financial millennium is to come the moment the Sherman law is given.

There were some who had given the subject attention who believed the cause of the present depression was deeper and broader than the Sherman bill, and that its foundations were laid in the evil hours of 1873, when the country unwittingly laid aside the financial policy that had been its guide since the foundation of the government.

Mr. Hill did not believe that simple repeal of the Sherman law would at once restore abundant prosperity, but that many years would be required to recover from the present disturbance. He compared his course in declaring for repeal with the president's course in failing to refer to it until late days.

Mr. Hill favored the increase of the national bank currency as proposed in the pending bill. Concluding, he said he regarded the question of ratio as not timely and as of the least consequence; but if changed at all it should not be enlarged but diminished to 16 2/3, the Latin union ratio.

When he declared that himself and his colleagues would vote for the pending bill, unswayed by power and uncorrupted by federal patronage, there was an outburst of applause in the galleries, which the vice president suppressed, declaring that if any other manifestations occurred the galleries would be cleared.

NORTON'S STRANGE STORY.

Dispatches from New Haven seem to indicate its Truth.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Aug. 26.—Great excitement was created here by the announcement that the young business man who disappeared so suddenly a fortnight ago and was supposed to be drowned had turned up in Atlantic City, N. J. Norton, the young man's father, from H. E. Eldridge, chief of police of Atlantic City.

The latest version of the story is that Norton was in bathing from a small boat some distance from shore when two Italian rowers pulled up to him. He had left his clothes and began to flee. When he swam back he was captured and imprisoned in a sloop, making his escape, as reported yesterday.

Members Talk to Empty Benches in the Lower Branch.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The speech made by Mr. Hill, of New York, in the senate yesterday was remarkable in many respects. When he declared that the president, if he deserted bimetallism, could not rely upon support from him or from Democratic senators, and would have to rely upon the votes of Republican senators, a significant smile of amusement and self-complacency passed through the whole Republican group.

A Murderer's Confession.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 26.—The bodies of the woman and child found weighted with heavy stones in Milwaukee river on Wednesday have been identified as those of Mrs. Joseph King and her five-year-old daughter Grace. Gustave Scharrif, who says he has been living with Mrs. King, and who says he has been trying to sever his relations with her, was arrested and has made a complete confession.

The President's Guests.

BEZZARD'S BAY, Mass., Aug. 26.—The president's yacht carried a jolly party down Bezzard's bay yesterday afternoon. Besides the president there were Governor Russell, Joe Jefferson, Secretary Lamont, Dr. Bryant and A. H. Wood.

Another Fortune for Depew.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Chauncey M. Depew may soon fall heir to an estate of $1,000,000. Years ago he befriended a young man and loaned him $500. The money was evidently put to a good use, for the youth thrived and prospered, and he now writes that he is the owner of estates in Cuba worth $2,000,000, half of which he has willed to the president of the New York Central.

FAIR BUSINESS STILL BOOMS.

The Big Show Will Soon Clear Off Its Floating Debt.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—The attendance at the fair this week showed a steady increase in the number of visitors, and the managers are elated. The financial matters of the exposition are looking brighter.

The finance committee is so well pleased with the general showing made by Auditor General Ackerman that it is considering the advisability of recommending the payment of a third installment of 10 or 20 per cent on delinquent bonds.

Yesterday was the colored people's day at the fair. They came from all parts adjacent to this city, and a fair portion were from the far southern states. The most distinguished men of the black race were among those at the grounds.

Campen Thieves Captured.

CAMPDEN, N. J., Aug. 26.—Two more robberies were added Thursday night to the long list of deprivations of thieves in Camden. In one case the police captured the robbers. In the other a safe was broken open and filled in the glare of an electric street light.

A Barber Raily Injured.

ASHBURY PARK, Aug. 26.—Farrell Crozier, of Trenton, was seriously injured while bathing at the Ashbury grounds. The strong undertow swept him under the pavilion, and threw him violently against the piling. The life saver who went to rescue him was also injured in the same way.

Disaster Follows Disaster.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Following closely in the track of the disastrous fire of Thursday night at South Chicago comes the news that the Illinois Steel company, which employed a great number of those who lost their all in the conflagration, will close down its South Chicago plant Monday. About 3,000 men will be thrown out of work.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures
 "Every Dose Helps Me
 When I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, I think it the best medicine for the blood. My six-year-old boy had sores on his feet, caused by POISON IVY. They became so large and painful he could not wear his shoes. A week after I began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla the sores began to heal up and disappear, and when he had taken two bottles he was entirely cured." Mrs. C. H. TRUSS, South Gibson, Pa.
 Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or grip. Sold by all druggists.
