The Home Team Loses Three Straight.

POTTSVILLE'S VICTORY.

Our Beauties Drop a Ball to Mahanoy City, Pottsville and Bellefonte—Darkness Materially Aided the County Seat Team in Winning From the Champions.

LARGE and enthusiastic crowd from this place accompanied the home team to Pottsville on Saturday to witness the first game of a series of five between these two teams. The Shenandoah contingent had great faith in the ability of our champions downing the representatives of the county seat and were very anxious to back their faith with an abundance of Shenandoah money. Lucky for them, however, the Pottsville sports were not willing to accept any bets even at two to one.

The game was advertised to begin at 4 o'clock, but it was 5 before play began. The delay was caused by the Pottsville management trying to force Umpire Ryan, of Mahanoy City, upon the Shenandoah boys. Mr. Ryan may justly have a fondness for showing a base ball audience what he doesn't know about umpiring, but he certainly made himself obnoxious even to the Pottsville people by his persistent efforts in delaying the game. The champions have been roasted so often by this same Mr. Ryan—who knows no more about a game of ball than Blind Tom—that Manager Bradigan has very wisely decided not to allow him to officiate in any game with Shenandoah. The home team has the right of selecting the umpire, but the visiting team has the right of objecting, and if the selection is not satisfactory, the visiting team has the privilege of putting in an extra umpire. This right Manager Bradigan claimed, which Pottsville people would not grant. In fact they stated they would have Ryan or nobody. The offer to allow them to select one of their own players or some one from the audience had no effect. They had little faith in the ability of their team winning without the assistance of the umpire, and if it could be done by the latter Mr. Ryan was the man to do it.

Mr. Ryan amused the audience by his actions in calling the game three times in favor of Pottsville by the score of 9 to 0, until even the Pottsville "bleachers" became disgusted with such childish actions, and demanded another umpire. Finally Manager Eber was forced to accept the proposition of the Shenandoah management and selected James Boyle, of New Boston, whose work was faultless and gave general satisfaction.

When Umpire Boyle assumed his position and called time the grand stand was packed and the fence from right to left field was crowded. Both Fox and Bradley were on their mettle and shortly afterward stole second. Toole knocked a hot grounder to Eber, which the latter fumbled, Martin taking third on the error. Fox gave W. Henry a base on balls, filling the bases. This was a critical point in the game, and when F. Henry stepped to the plate perfect silence prevailed. Fox appeared to be nervous, and was unable to get the ball over the plate. He gave the batter a base on balls, forcing Martin home.

Shenandoah maintained the lead until the fatal eighth inning was reached. At the beginning of this inning it was impossible to see the ball, darkness having fallen on the grounds. To this fact alone is the success of Pottsville due. They were beaten and they knew it. McGottigan opened the inning with a clean hit to centre field, and Bradley gave the next two men their base on balls, filling the bases. Hill hit a hot grounder to Ward, which he was unable to see on account of the darkness, and McGottigan scored. Jones followed with a hit, sending in two runs. The next three men went out in order. In the eighth Shenandoah drew a blank, owing to their inability to see the ball.

BELLEFONTE VS. SHENANDOAH.
The game at the Trotting park yesterday afternoon between the Bellefontes and the home team drew a fair sized audience. The Bellefonte team is one of the strongest in the River League, and all the players are taken from the State League clubs. It is the strongest team Shenandoah has yet faced.

Meany, late of the Southern League, did the twirling for the visitors, and he did his work well, only four hits being made off his delivery. He kept the runners hugging the bases, Fulmer being the only home player to steal a base. Shenandoah appears to be on the toboggan, as they are not putting up the game they are capable of doing.

The first inning both teams went out in one-two-three order, but in the second the Bellefontes scored two runs. Walters faced Bradley and went out on a fly to Toole. Meany was given his base on balls. McGee hit for two bases. On Henry's wild throw to the plate to head off Meany, McGee took third. Reed hit to Martin, and on the latter's error McGee scored the second run. Reed was caught napping at first by Messitt, ending the inning.

In the third inning Shenandoah took the lead with a safe hit by Messitt. Bradley was given his base on balls, and a bunt hit by Ward filled the bases. Fulmer was the next man up, and he lined out a two-base hit, bringing in two runs. He subsequently stole third, and on a bad throw by Roberts scored. Shenandoah drew blanks after this inning until the eighth, when they scored two runs. Bradley hit to Wetzel, and Ward followed with another safe hit. The former was caught between third and the plate and run down. Fulmer reached first, and on Martin's out to right Ward tallied. Stewart subsequently brought in the second and last run for Shenandoah by a safe hit, Fulmer scoring.

Bellefonte again scored in the sixth and eighth innings. In the sixth McGee was declared safe at first on an error by Stewart. Reed followed with a hit to Bradley, and on the latter's error reached first. Steele, the next man up, lined a corker, bringing in two runs. Steele was thrown out at second and Miller retired the side by a fly to Toole.

In the eighth Reed hit to Martin and was retired at first, and Steele followed with a hit to Bradley. On the latter's error he was safe, and through an error of Martin's Hobson filled the bases. Wetzel followed with a hit to Henry, who was retired at first. On a safe hit by Miller and a three-bagger by Walters four runs were scored. Meany was retired at first. The score:

GOVERNMENT APPOINTMENTS.

Justice Monaghan Made an Inspector of Immigration.

The Administration has given Shenandoah two good plums of a size and quality that will no doubt appease the appetites of the local Democrats. The appointees are Justice J. J. Monaghan and Michael Muldoon. The former receives the richest plum, his appointment being Inspector of Immigration at Philadelphia, vice John M. Stratton, resigned. Secretary Carlisle and Mr. Stratton had a disagreement and as a result the latter was told that his resignation would be accepted. It was promptly handed in and Mr. Monaghan's appointment followed.

Mr. Muldoon's appointment is a clerkship in the postal department at Washington. He leaves town on Friday to begin the fulfillment of his duties.

Justice Monaghan was sworn in at Washington last Thursday, but the appointment was not made public until Saturday night.

On Friday Mr. Monaghan reached Philadelphia and at once proceeded to the office of the Commissioners of Immigration. Arriving there he introduced himself as the new appointee. Some of the clerks were inclined to be a little funny when they first saw "Squire Jack" and before they found out who he was. Some thought he was a "hay-seeder," but their minds were soon disabused. A Hungarian who had just landed was in the office under inspection and the "Squire" took him in hand. The Commissioners and clerks were amazed when they heard Monaghan and the immigrant fire Hungarian at each other and in great surprise one of the Commissioners exclaimed, as he addressed the Justice, "I thought you were Irish?" "I'm an Irish-Hungarian," the Justice replied. He then explained that during his term as Justice of the Peace in Shenandoah he had been called upon to try hundreds of cases in which Poles and Hungarians had become involved and through the trials he had acquired a pretty fair knowledge of the languages. All agreed that the training the Justice had received by reason of these trials had made him especially adapted for the new appointment.

Inspector Monaghan was cordially received at the Philadelphia office and on Friday afternoon his appointment was celebrated by the captain of the British Prince, now docked at Philadelphia, who gave a dinner on board the ship.

The appointee returned to town Saturday evening. When asked if he was satisfied with the position he enthusiastically replied, "I'm right in it." Mr. Monaghan says he has not made any definite arrangements yet, but his present intentions are to spend three or four days a week in Philadelphia and the rest of the time with his family and friends here. He says that under no circumstances will he move to Philadelphia. All his private business interests are here and he owns considerable property in the First ward, so that he would be obliged to make frequent trips to keep track of them, and as Shenandoah has always been his home, he has concluded to give Philadelphia the business end of his future.

The position to which Mr. Monaghan has been appointed has an annual salary of $2,000 attached to it, besides allowances for expenses. His headquarters will be at 1224 Chestnut street, and when he is not there a clerk, also a government employe, will receive the callers. "I want all the Shenandoah boys to call and see me when they are in Philadelphia. They will always be welcome and can put their feet on the desk and make themselves perfectly at home," said the Inspector to-day.

It is understood the appointment was made through the influence of Congressman Reilly and is looked upon as a means of side-tracking from the post office fight in this town. The latter presumption was confirmed to some extent to-day by a reply made by the "Squire. When asked if he was still a candidate for the position of local postmaster he unhesitatingly replied, "No, I am out of that fight. What I have received satisfies me."

Points.
The Reading Coal & Iron Company has discharged a number of clerks in Philadelphia because of the transfer of a portion of its business to the Lehigh Valley. A number of discharges have been made in the transportation department also.

The mail carrier between Ashland and Centralia receives the magnificent sum of $12.50 a month for the service. The distance is two miles and two trips a day are required. The Philadelphia and Reading has abrogated the contract existing between the company and Cox Brothers & Co., involving the movement of one million tons of anthracite coal yearly. The claim upon which the Reading receivers base their right to abrogate the contract is that the company did not get a fair proportion of the profits out of the rate paid for tonnage. Cox Brothers would not raise the rate and therefore the contract was annulled.

G. S. Murer, of Lavelle, has been elected to succeed J. A. Noecker as assistant principal of the Ashland high school.

The Nurse Fell.

A nurse employed by Vincent Czerwinski, of East Centre street, slipped and fell down a stairway with the infant of the family in her arms. The nurse escaped with a few bruises, but the child still hangs in the balance. The child is one year old.

MINERS RECEIVE PAY

Wages for Last Two Weeks of July.

ONLY TOWN MINERS PAID

The Ellengowan and Knickerbocker Employes are Still Waiting for Their Money. It is Rumored That the Next Pay will be Made Early in September.

SATURDAY was a cold day for the mine employes at Maple Hill; the blast was felt with nipping effect by the business section of this town. Most of the Maple Hill residents deal here and when the paymaster fails to appear among the miners there it acts as a damper upon many of the business men. A report got abroad on Friday last that the Maple Hill people would receive their pay the next day and when they did not get it many feared the Shenandoah miners would be disappointed to-day. This, fortunately, was not the case. The pay car arrived to-day and the employes of five collieries, aggregating about three thousand men, received their wages for the last two weeks of July.

The collieries which the paymasters visited were Indian Ridge, Shenandoah City, West Shenandoah, Turkey Run and Kohinoor.

The employes of the Ellengowan and Knickerbocker collieries are still unpaid, but they will probably share in the cargo when the ship arrives at Maple Hill, the time for which is not yet settled.

There is not the slightest indication of when the Philadelphia & Reading will pay again, although a gentleman holding a position under the company expressed an opinion to-day that after the 1st of September the affairs of the company will be in such an improved shape that the wages for the first two weeks of August will be paid within the first two weeks of the new month and will pay regularly thereafter twice a month.

It was reported on the streets to-day that several of the business men of town were seriously contemplating calling a public meeting for the purpose of preparing a plan of conference with the P. & R. C. & I. Co. with a view to getting some idea of what the future is likely to bring forth. Some of them intimate that they will not be able to withstand an indefinite continuance of the present state of affairs. If the company could give them something upon which to base a hope for better working time at the collieries and more regular pay days they will be able to arrange their affairs so as to temporarily bridge over the difficulty.

BLAND DEFEATED.

The Anti-Silver Men Score the First Victory.

Special to EVENING HERALD.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 28, 3 p. m.—Bland's free coinage proposition at the ratio of 16 to 1 was defeated in the House this morning by a vote of 225 to 123.

The amendments at the ratio of 17 to 1 up to 20 to 1 were all defeated by an average vote of 240 to 100. All these amendments are connected with the repeal of the silver purchasing clause of the Sherman law of 1890. These having all failed the House will now face the naked issue of unconditional repeal.

Bland conceded the defeat of the amendments last night. At the same time Bland said he believed the anti-silver men would secure a sweeping victory and that the Wilson repeal bill will go through.
