HOW TO LOCATE ALARMS. If the alarm is sounded from box 15 the fire bell will strike one, then pass and strike five which will indicate that the fire is in the vicinity of No. 15's box. Every alarm is repeated four times.

AT THE FAIR.

Shenandoah People Having a Good Time in Chicago.

EDITOR HERALD:—Our party arrived at Chicago on last Thursday night and with the early morning hours of Friday the dazzling splendor of the great White City arose before our eyes. The World's Fair is certainly marvellous and it abounds with wonders. To our mind the midway pleasure presents a world of novelties and since our arrival here we have devoted much of our time to careful observations of all its quarters, under the guidance of the irrepressible John Finney. Country cousins and others fill the midway pleasure daily. They simply pour through the gates from the moment of the opening, and then lay themselves out to see the sights. From morning until night the great street contains all the characters and all the scenes of a successful country fair. Inside the vilage inclosures far different scenes are frequently being enacted. The half-naked Dahomians may be seen on the grass outside the doors of their huts, sharpening their spears and donning the habiliments of war. The handsome yellow-skinned Samosians, with their weapons and their bodies clothed with green wreaths. The slight, graceful Japanese with their bodies decorated with dresses embroidered with designs, queer and fantastic. The Turks, in their multiple costume blending all the colors. Such are the people we meet here on this great thoroughfare and the immediately adjacent districts. As to the Fair in general I can only say that once within the gates, joy is unconfined. There is something for the enjoyment and amusement of every one.

Friday was Illinois day at the grounds and a great day it was, too. A quarter of a million people helped celebrate it and all the tribes of the earth passed in procession. The state militia was also in line and all the corps were reviewed by Governor Altgeld, whose action in pardoning the Anarchists a few weeks ago caused such a stir throughout the country. The crowd was a tremendous one. It was a crowd out for pleasure, and it found what it sought. All day and evening the Illinois building was filled with men, women and children who saw something to please in everything. There was no dampening their ardor. Even a shower did not lessen the good time they were having, and when the time for the fireworks came they were in just as good humor as when the first parade began.

Saturday was colored American day at the exposition. I never saw such a crowd of colored people in one place before, and I have made dozens of trips to the South. A negro is so rarely seen upon the streets of Shenandoah that it was naturally a surprise for anyone from that town to see such an aggregation. But let me say that the dignified manner of its observance did honor to the race. The ideal negro in the estimation of the average Shenandoah youth is "Billy, the Boob-black," or such negroes as recently visited the town selling patent medicines and attracting crowds about them by playing tunes upon banjos, telling funny stories and singing ridiculous songs. The ideal negro in Chicago on Saturday was that grand old statesman and sage, Frederick Douglass. The program which was carried out during the day reflected the highest credit on those who listened as well as on those of special gifts in music and oratory who took the part of entertainers. It is not extravagant to say the music, the declamation, and the oratory, which were listened to by an audience of several thousand persons, have not often been surpassed by any race on any occasion.

Finney has purchased a book of immense size and in it he enters nightly the impressions he receives of the fair. He threatens to read from this book when sitting in the Council Chamber, at Shenandoah, while his colleagues wait for the electric light to burn. He told me this on the quiet, but as an act of humanity I think I am justified in warning the Councilmen to look for Finney's big book when he returns. H. B. CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 27.

Threat Muric Acid in Her Face.
BRIDGEPORT, N. J., Aug. 25.—When young Mrs. Theodore Wilson, of Shiloh, answered a ring at her door bell she was confronted by a masked man, who hurled muriatic acid in her face from a bottle. She seized him, tore off his mask and claims to have recognized him as a well known young man of Bridgeport, who was recently arrested for stealing. Mrs. Wilson's dress and clothes were badly burned by the acid, but she will recover. No arrests have been made.

Will Accept Monthly Payment.
BELLEVILLE, Pa., Aug. 29.—Considerable dissatisfaction has been occasioned throughout the mining districts over the action of the miners in the Broad Top region and at the Troy mines in the Clearfield region, agreeing to accept monthly payments while the present depression exists. This action is in violation of the rules of the United Mine Workers' association, and a mass meeting will be held at Houtdale next Saturday to consider the question.

Liberty Bell on Its Journey.
NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The Columbian Liberty bell was escorted from the dock of the Citizens' line, at the foot of West Tenth street, to Jersey City yesterday. The bell was artistically draped with the Stars and Stripes, but sufficiently exposed to give all those along the line of route an opportunity to see it. It is to go to Chicago by way of Philadelphia, Wilmington, Washington, Baltimore, Harrisburg and Indianapolis.

A Philadelphian Knocked Off a Car.
LINCOLN, Ill., Aug. 28.—Thomas Crady, a waiter from Philadelphia, was found lying terribly mangled at the foot of the embankment near this place. He made an ante-mortem statement to the effect that as he was climbing up the side ladder of a freight car he met a brakeman who hit him on the head with a lantern, knocking him off the ladder, when he fell between the cars to the rails. He will die.

The Colored Baptists.
CARLEISLE, Pa., Aug. 29.—Yesterday was the closing day of the colored Baptist convention, representing a number of southern states, which has been in session here for several days. The morning exercises were deemed entirely to business. After several short addresses by visiting clergyman and general handshaking the convention adjourned to meet at Winchester, Va., next August.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Health Officer Miles Putting the Town in Good Condition.

The local Board of Health acted wisely in selecting Edward Miles as Health Officer of this town. His work, beyond a doubt, shows that he is the right man in the right place. Since his appointment to this important position he has made daily investigations of numerous complaints, and within a short time he will have the town in a good sanitary condition.

As a general rule he finds property holders and tenants willing to carry out his instructions in removing the filth from their premises, and he is seldom compelled to issue the second notice. This is gratifying to the Health Officer, and will materially aid him in the performance of his duties.

Market alley, which heretofore was one of the most filthy streets in that part of the town, now presents an entirely different appearance. The same can be said of the alley at the rear of the Catholic church. The lobbies and backdoor properties, on West Centre street, are both undergoing a thorough cleaning process, as well as a number of other properties in different parts of the town.

The Health Officer has also inspected a number of cellars that are in anything but a healthy condition, and those will receive immediate attention. In fact, a number have already been placed in a sanitary condition. The Board of Health will hold its regular meeting Friday evening, when the report of the Health Officer will be received and acted upon and other business that may come up for consideration transacted.

Of Interest to Athletes.

James Robinson, the athletic trainer at Princeton College, Princeton, N. J., says: "I have found it imperative to have sure and simple remedies on hand in case of cuts, bruises, strains, sprains, colds, rheumatism, etc. Shortly after entering upon my profession, I discovered such a remedy in ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. I tried other plasters, but found them too harsh and irritating. ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS give almost instantaneous relief, and their strengthening power is remarkable. In case of weak back put two plasters on the small of the back and in a short time you will be capable of quite severe exercise. In 'sprain' and 'distention' of the legs and feet runo times weaken. This can invariably be relieved by cutting the plaster in narrow strips, so as to give free motion, and applying on muscles affected."

GRANGERS AT WILLIAMSON'S JUVENILE.

A Large Assembly at the Twentieth Annual Exhibition. CARLEISLE, Pa., Aug. 29.—Yesterday was the opening day of the twentieth annual inter-state exhibition of the Grangers, at Williams Grove. Several thousand persons, from nearly every state, with their families and friends were present in the grove. The exercises took place in the auditorium at half past one o'clock, when Hon. Leonard Rhoads, worthy state master, who has been selected as the presiding officer for the week, arose and delivered a stirring address to the large audience, and announced the big exhibition formally opened. He was followed by Manager Thomas in a speech of welcome.

The display of machinery is large, over one hundred carloads of exhibits being unrolled during the past few days. Distinctive Granger are coming in on every train, and the show will be as big as past years, both in attendance and display. In the evening stereoscopic views of the World's Fair were displayed on canvases to a large crowd. Today will be devoted to temperance.

The Revolution in Buenos Ayres.

BRENOB AYRES, Aug. 29.—The government has forbidden the newspapers to publish military or political news, and a vigorous censorship has been established. The governor of the province of Corrientes, who fled to Paraguay to escape from the victorious revolutionists, is now returning with reinforcements to attack the revolutionary army.

Five Drowned.

TROY, N. Y., Aug. 28.—A special to the Times says: The yacht Alpha captained near Elm Point, Lake Champlain, and Captain G. P. Witherbee, Willie Brender, Whitman Brush and two persons named Gildea and Joubert were drowned. The boat sank about a third of a mile from the shore in twenty feet of water. Joseph LeBarge swam ashore.

Wash Day at Ocean Grove.

OCEAN GROVE, Aug. 29.—Yesterday was "wash day" at the camp meeting. The morning sermon was preached, as it has been for the past fifteen years, by President Thomas Hanson, D. D., of Pomfret, N. H. Rev. Isaac Naylor, the Yorkshire Evangelist, preached in the afternoon, and Rev. Alfred Barnes, of Boston, in the evening.

Storm Victims Washed Ashore.

SOUTHAMPTON, I. I., Aug. 28.—Another body was washed ashore at this place yesterday. It is believed to be one of the crew of either of the ill-fated vessels which were recently wrecked in the recent storm. Arvid Johnson's body was found Sunday night. He was one of the men lost in the wreck.

The Gold Arrived Safe.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The much heralded shipment of gold coin sent from San Francisco to this city arrived at the sub-treasury. Instead of $10,000,000, as reported, the consignment consisted of only $4,000,000.

TWO THIEVING BOYS.

A Girardville Woman Robbed of Her Savings.

Mrs. Swenk keeps a bakery on Parker street in Girardville. Yesterday she placed $21 in a box and made arrangements to take the money to a bank. Mrs. Swenk left the box on the counter while she went next door to see if her sister, Mrs. Parker, was ready to accompany her. During the absence two boys named Willie Evans and John Finnegan entered the bakery to buy cakes. Finding no one in the place they appropriated the box containing the money. Mrs. Swenk caught Evans as he was leaving the store, but Finnegan escaped. Evans surrendered two dollars and said his companion had the balance of the money. Finnegan has not been seen since. He has left Girardville and is supposed to be in Coal Dale. Evans is a nephew of the William Evans who tried to blow up his house at Girardville last week with dynamite.

The motto of the proprietors of Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters is, "the greatest good to the greatest number," and so sell a large bottle of a valuable remedy for the small price of 25 cents, and warrant every bottle to give satisfaction or money refunded. 1m

The Line Open.

The electric cars on the Mahanoy Plane branch of the Traction Company are again running regularly on schedule time. Passengers are transferred at Gilberton where the tracks are torn up. This will continue to be the rule until the courts decide the disputed question that led to the tearing up of the rails and the subsequent riot.
