And Other Prominent Personages-Ex-Governor D. B. Francis. Wetcomes the Governor on Behalf of Missonri's World's Fair Commission.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.-Missourl Day at the fair brought with an invoice of southern sunshine and warm breezes which were very welcome after the take winds of the past two days. Governor Stone and staff, escorted by the troops from Kansas City and St. Louis, came into the grounds shortly before 2 o'clock, receiving a hearty wel-come as the procession arrived at the yellow structure opposite the Fine Arts oullding.

After several selections by a band, B. H. After several selections by a band, B. H. Hendricks, of Kansas City, invoked divine blessing upon the assemblage, after which Nathan Frank, of St. Louis, welcomed the governor on behalf of the state World's fair commission. Governor Stone then delivered his address. He commended the work of the commission and in speaking of Missouri's exhibits in the different buildings showed that he had allowed nothing pertaining to the representation of his state at the fair to escape his observation. His words were loudly

Hon. D. R. Francis, ex-governor of the state, followed with an address on "Mis-souri at the World's Fair." Senator Cochran spoke of the commissioners of Mis-souri, and Rev. Pope Yeoman told of education and society in the state. Hon. Louis Houck described southeast Mirsouri in a glowing manner, and the work of the World's fair commission in the state and "At the Exposition" was ably portrayed by the executive commissioner, J. K. Gwynne. After the exercises the governor held a reception, lasting for over an hour. The paid admissions at the fair yesterday were 154,432.

Chicago Rioters Fined.

CHICAGO, Ang. 31.—Joseph Wezel and Michael Harovit, the men arrested for participation in Saturday's riot at the City hall, were fined $100 each by Justice Bradwell on the charge of disorderly conduct, and held for the criminal court in bonds of $500 and $500 each on the charges of riot and assault. During a mass meeting yesterday several of the unemployed became violent and threatened to do the police, but they were soon brought into subjection. During the riot the back door of Battery D armory stood wide open. The battery has four 18-pound Napoleons and four Gatling guns, all of which the officer n charge said were ready for business,

Why? Why is Strictly Pure White Lead the best paint? Because it will outlast all other paints, give a handsomer finish, better protection to the wood, and the first cost will be less. If Barytes and other adulterants of white lead are "just as good" as Strictly Pure White Lead, why are all the adulterated white leads always branded Pure, or

"Strictly Pure White Lead?"

This Barytes is a heavy white powder (ground stone), having the appearance of white lead, worthless as a paint, costing only about a cent a pound, and is only used to cheapen the mixture. What shoddy is to cloth, Barytes is to paint. Be careful to use only an old and standard brand of white lead—the

the President or the Secretary of the Treasury Bearing Nor Over Four Per Cent. Interest in Order to Procure Gold to Maintain a Sufficent Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Aug. III.-Mr. Sherman held the close attention of the senate and of a large audience in the galleries for over two hours yesterday, as he set forth in terms and vigorous language—very rapidly delivered—the reasons why he supported he bill to repeal the purchasing clause of the act of July, 1890, and why is should be passed with as little delay as possible. Incidentally be resommended giving anotherity to the president or the secretary of the treasury to issue bands bearing not over 4 per cent, interest in order to pro-

The first applicant for a hearing before the ways and means committee was James M. Swank, managed of the American Iron M. Swank, managed of the American Iron and Steel association, It was suggested that notice be sent at once to Mr. Swank to appear next. Monday, but it was finally decided to leave the date open to hear whoever might be present in case Mr. Swank was not here. The committee voted in accordance with its determination to hold hearings, to meet at 10:10 a.m. Mon-day, Sept. 4, and daily thereafter at the same hour until the hearings shall have been concluded. In his letter to Chairman wilson requesting the privilege of being heard before the committee Mr. Swank stated his object to be to protest "against the adoption of a policy which would call for a general reduction in the existing tariff on our imported commodities." The iron interests were of national character, the letter said, and distributed through out many states.
