AN authentic refutation of the disquieting reports about President Cleveland's health would be exceedingly welcome, and we most sincerely hope that a satisfactory statement of the truth can and will be made.

LESS TALKING.

Anxiously all are waiting for the passage of the repeal bill by the Senate. It is presumed that a majority of that body will vote for the bill if it ever reaches a vote without amendment.

Senator Teller makes no concealment of his intentions. No doubt he speaks after consultation, and represents the purpose of other silver Senators.

The difference between the bill which has been passed by the House and the one now pending in the Senate is not of great importance.

It is desirable that those who wish this measure passed in any form should steadily keep in mind the fact that it has a slender chance of passing, unless brought to a vote without essential change.

DOCTOR GRAVES DEAD.

The Convicted Poisoner Found Lifeless in His Cell.

UNDOUBTEDLY COMMITTED SUICIDE

A Letter Written by the Doctor on Aug. 9 Leads to the Belief That He Had Been Contemplating the Act for a Long Time—Statement in the Public.

DENVER, Sept. 4.—Dr. T. Theodor Graves, the convicted poisoner of Mrs. Josephine Barnaby, committed suicide in his cell in the county jail Saturday night, presumably by taking poison.

Another letter, addressed to Captain Crow, the jailer, read as follows: "I would keep a man busy to follow Stevens and answer the lies which he unblushingly peddles out to the papers."

At the present writing Stevens goes and to each one of the convicted and hoodwink him. He will return to Denver with a trunk full of lies, and then expose and deceive the committee and probably induce them to furnish funds to commence again his prosecution.

"I am told that the case may be continued for an indefinite period. Not a word of it. I have freely expounded in my writings the truth about the case, and I will not be silenced by any of your courts."

"I leave little by Stevens to the people of Colorado. Please take care of him." (Signed) T. THEODOR GRAVES, Harvard University.

ECHOES OF THE STORM.

Greatest Loss in Beaufort County. Lives Lost at Port Royal.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 4.—A careful examination of the condition of affairs on the coast of Carolina shows that the loss of lives and property in the storm was far greater than was at first supposed.

As it is evident from the letter addressed to the coroner Dr. Graves undoubtedly committed suicide, but what drug the autopsy alone will tell. It was supposed, however, that he took morphine.

Among other letters left by the doctor was one directed to his wife, a very lengthy one, and another addressed to the public. The following is a copy of the letter:

"To the public: In the spring of 1881 I made the trip to Denver, actuated by a desire to appear before the grand jury to do all in my power to assist in solving the Barnaby murder mystery."

"At the trial no one was put on the jury unless he had first agreed to favor Stevens. Promises of political preferment and value received, were freely offered and taken."

judge and purchasable justly boasted that he expended $65,000 in bribes, witnesses, judge and jury always omitted to remark that he belonged to his wife, and that he was playing for a $100,000 stake.

"The supreme court of Colorado, the most emphatic, searching and bitter pronounced the trial 'unfair' and ordered a new trial. My wife has found since the trial that $25,000 paid out to only one witness. The affidavits of numerous men that were 'sounded' as to whether, in their being summoned by a jury would favor Stevens, and this was by Stevens' bailiffs."

"The jury were under charge of the worst villain on earth, boarded and ordered a new trial. My wife has found since the trial that $25,000 paid out to only one witness. The affidavits of numerous men that were 'sounded' as to whether, in their being summoned by a jury would favor Stevens, and this was by Stevens' bailiffs."

DENVER, Sept. 4.—Rev. Robert McIntyre, formerly of Chicago, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, the latest in the west, for which he receives $5,000 a year, formally renounces political parties and declares a new financial party will be formed and sweep the country.

He denounces the "metropolitan press" as a "liar's trust," and says city people of the east seem to hate the west. He says they took opera glasses to his lectures and viewed him as a curiosity.

Rev. Dr. McIntyre was for several years pastor of McIntyre M. E. church, of Chicago, and has some reputation as a poet and pulpit orator.
