

THE EVENING HERALD.

VOL. VIII.—NO. 159.

SHENANDOAH, PA., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1893.

ONE CENT.

Leads the Procession

Our furniture leads the procession in style, quality and price. We can mention what we can offer you, but you must see the articles yourself to understand what a golden opportunity it is. We offer an entirely new stock of Parlor suits at $25.00 and upwards.

J. P. Williams & Son.

To make room I offer this week a lot of 6-4 Chenille Table Covers!

For $1.38, Worth $2.00.
$1.67, " $2.50.

Our Ladies' Muslin Underwear is perfect in fit.

Max Schmidt,

116-118 North Main Street, - Shenandoah, Pa.

Now to make Room for Fall Goods!

I have concluded to sell off all the Russet Shoes I have at a Big Reduction.

Children's Shoes, formerly $1.00, now 65 cents.
Children's Shoes, formerly $1.25, now 75 cents.

All kinds of Women's Russet and Oxford Shoes at and below cost.

JOSEPH BALL, 14 South Main Street, SHENANDOAH, PA.

Big Inducements to Buyers

—AT THE—

People's Store!

Ladies' Black Oxford Ties, patent tip, 65c, elsewhere $1.00.
Ladies' Russet Oxford Ties.....75c, formerly $1.25.
Childs' Black Oxford Tie.....50c, cheap at 75c.
Ladies' Foxed Gaiters.....90c, reduced from $1.25.
Men's Tennis Shoes.....only 40c.

M. A. FERRY, 121 North Main Street, SHENANDOAH, PA.

CARPETS!

New Fall Styles
.....in.....

Velvet, Tapestry

AND Body Brussels.

NEW RAG CARPET!

New Oilcloths

AND Linoleums!

AT KEITER'S

AT THE COUNTY COURT.

Several Important Cases Disposed of Yesterday.

GRADWELL IS SENTENCED.

He Gets Eighteen Months on One of the Minor Charges—Smith Wins in the Attachment Suits Against Him—Judgment Creditors Will Share.

COURT of Quarter Session, September term, opened at Pottsville yesterday morning with an exceptionally large attendance of litigants and jurors. There was a full bench and the lawyers appeared in full attendance after two months' vacation, hearing all the business of the summer's rest.

Judge Pershing looked very much improved in health, and it would seem from the many opinions handed down that the judges must have devoted considerable of their vacation to preparing papers.

Among the first Shenandoah decisions handed down were those in the cases of Jos. Wadlinger against P. J. Ferguson, and the Shenandoah Lumber and Feed Company against Joseph Rogers. The motions made by counsel for the defendants were refused and the verdict of the jury stands.

Sampson Gradwell, of Shenandoah, convicted of statutory rape and bastardy, was again called before the court. His Honor, Judge Bechtel, refused the motion for a new trial and Sampson was sentenced to one year and six months imprisonment.

One Michael Kelly was a witness in the case of the Commonwealth against John Hanney, supervisor of Norwegian township, convicted in 1894 of misdemeanor in office. The Supreme Court reversed the lower court and directed a new trial. Hanney died before the second trial. Kelley sued for witness fees in the first trial and in an elaborate opinion Judge Pershing decided against him.

Three petitions were presented to the court in behalf of the citizens of the First ward, of Shenandoah, asking for appointments to the constabulary resigned by Jeremiah A. Toomey, who was yesterday qualified as a Justice of the Peace, as successor to John J. O'Hara, resigned. The petitions were presented by John F. Whalen, Esq., in behalf of Thomas Giblin; M. M. Burke, Esq., for M. L. Phalen; and P. M. Dunn, Esq., for Michael Heaton.

Paul Lamschner, a student at law under A. W. Schalk, Esq., and James Carlin, a student under Nicholas Heblisch, Esq., were sworn as members of the Bar. They are talented young men and will, no doubt, obtain success. Some time ago attachments under the Act of 1869 were issued against C. W. Smith, of Shenandoah, by A. and D. M. Hoppes and Smith, Foster and Co., on which a vast amount of testimony was taken. To-day Judge Weidman sustained the rule to quash the attachment, and thus Smith wins. HERALD readers will remember this case as one in which Smith was fraudulently disposing of his goods to cheat his creditors. His counsel, Hon. C. M. Brumm and George Dyon, were jubilant. Smith's judgment creditors now come in for the proceeds of the Sheriff's sale.

In a masterly oral opinion and review of testimony, Judge Bechtel refused a new trial to Constable Martin Zeigler, convicted of murder in the second degree for the killing of William Hepley.

In the case of Malachi Hoary vs. Patrick McHale, the judgment was stricken off, on motion.

The Gilberton riot cases will not be tried at this term of the court.

The present calendar of cases will be the largest ever disposed of in our courts.

The will of Catherine Kileone, of Shenandoah, was filed yesterday for probate by M. M. Burke, Esq., counsel for Mrs. P. Gibbons, for whom letters of administration will be granted.

Judge Pershing yesterday heard argument in the Butler township School Board case. The arguments were made by John F. Whalen, W. A. Marr, F. W. Bechtel and William Wilhelm and consumed the entire afternoon.

John F. Whalen, Esq., was appointed auditor to pass upon the exceptions filed to the account of Philip Coffee, administrator of the estate of said defendant, restated and resettled said account, and make distribution of any balance that may be found to be in the hands of said accountant.

Thousands walk the earth to day who would be sleeping in its bosom but for the timely use of Down's Elkair.

Married at Camden.
Daniel Werner and Miss Elizabeth Evans, were married at Camden N. J. The contracting parties are both residents of St. Clair.

School Board.
A meeting of the School Board will be held to-morrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Superintendent's office.

Coughing Leads to Consumption.
Keup's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

ONE'S OBSERVATIONS.

What He Sees and Hears During a Travels.

I overheard a mother say to a neighbor yesterday, "When Willie gets to be a little older, then I can govern him." The mother in question I know to be kind and affable to her children, but she is sadly mistaken in her views quoted above. If children are not taught to mind when they are small, how can they be so taught when they get old enough to exercise their own will? I have seen little ones who would not be ruled, and they would not be ruled. They were not properly taught when young. Be gentle, yet firm, and fulfill all your promises to the children if you expect them to love.

Shamokin and Ashland are red hot over foot ball while none of the other towns seem to be the least affected by the fever. There was a time when mention of the game would draw out three or four teams in town "ready for the fray," but now it awakens no interest. It may be that they are holding back until the base ball season closes and colder weather arrives.

Shenandoah is noted for its large number of base ball cranks, and they are all of the high-order kind. A number of enthusiasts were discussing the national game and the relative merits of the players of the home team at the Ferguson House the other evening, when a bystander propounded the following questions on the game for answers:

Suppose a game is going on and a runner on first base tries to steal second on a pitched ball. The record bookman is seven feet high, or even eight feet high; the ball is thrown to him by the catcher and it goes over his head, but within easy reach. Of course an average size man could have never caught that ball. Would that play be counted as an error for the catcher for making an overthrow or would the second baseman be credited with a good catch?

Now suppose the catcher's arms are long enough for him to reach around the batter, would he have dare to catch the pitched ball before it reached the batter?

In another case placed a runner on first base and a man at the bat. The batter's legs are long enough to reach from base to base. Would he be allowed to step over the runner in trying to make second base?

If a batter knocked a ball high in the air and after he crossed the home plate the ball descended and was caught by a player, would the runner be declared out?

The other evening a Hungarian was taken before Justice Shoemaker, charged with attempt to defraud a butcher out of a bill. He was caught as he was getting ready to start for the old country. When before the Justice the man pleaded poverty and showed a stamper ticket and a five dollar bill as his only possessions, aside from his trunk. Finding that the constable was determined to take him to jail in default of payment the "Hun" settled the account, which amounted to $17, not including the costs. While the payment was being made the "Hun" handled a pocket-book that contained almost $1,000 in greenbacks.

Work on the Columbian Brewing Company's plant is progressing slowly, but satisfactorily to the projectors. They are in no great hurry and figure on a completion and operations by next January. They cannot begin turning out beer before they get a license and that cannot be secured until the next license court convenes, in January.

I must congratulate the citizens of Shenandoah upon having so efficient a Board of Health. The editor of the HERALD will also please consider my hat defiled for the persistent manner in which he advocated the formation of such an organization until his labors were crowned with success. I note many sanitary improvements made in many quarters of the town, and yet the board has hardly organized. This time next year the change in this respect will be sufficient, no doubt, to cause this town to be called something besides a Polish settlement. The most pleasant feature about the board, and especially the present Health Officer, is that orders are issued without partiality, placing all property owners and tenants upon the same level.

During the vacation season the School Board went to considerable expense to erect fences in the yards of the school buildings to comply with the recently enacted laws requiring that the recreation grounds of the boys and girls shall be separate. This morning I watched the effect of the fence law on the school children with a very amusing result. I was looking up at the yard of the White street building when I noticed a number of boys playing in the far end of their yard, away from the fence. The girls on the contrary were all crowded close to the partition, some chatting, others playing, while quite a number were peeping through the cracks of the fence, evidently trying to see what was transpiring on the boys' side.

Orwigburg Fair.
The Orwigburg Fair opened to-day and will continue for three days. Sixty horses have been entered for the race, and some that time is expected. The management offered a prize of $150 for a game of ball between Shenandoah and Pottsville, but Manager Heber refused to play. He wanted Lansford, but the Orwigburgers would not have it that way. Quite a number of Shenandoah sports attended the fair.

Best photographs and crayon at Dabb's.

CHURCH WEDDING.

The Ceremony Took Place in the Trinity Reformed Church.

As announced in yesterday's HERALD, the wedding of J. C. Knable, of Somerset, and Miss Ella O'Boyle, of town, took place in the Trinity Reformed church at noon to-day. The wedding was a simple and unostentatious one, but its very simplicity made it most beautiful. James O'Boyle acted as usher and Miss Tillie Brey was maid of honor. During the ceremony at the altar the couple were standing under a beautifully decorated bell, suspended from the ceiling. The marriage ceremony was short but impressively rendered by Rev. Robert O'Boyle, brother of the bride.

J. C. Knable, the groom, is a prosperous business man of the western part of the state, where he intends to reside with his newly-made wife. The bride, who had her home with her brother, has, during her stay in this town, made herself beloved by all. She was a faithful worker in the Trinity Reformed church, and the members of that denomination will miss her very much. The many friends of the happy bride wish her much continued happiness.

The bridal party left this afternoon on an extended trip through the west, after which they will go to housekeeping in Somerset, Somerset county, in a house already prepared for them.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

FEBRUARY.
Neah Owens, of Mount Carmel, is visiting in town.

David Evans, of Frackville, spent the day in town.

T. J. Davis spent yesterday afternoon in Mahanoy City.

M. L. Kemmerer left town yesterday for the World's Fair.

Francis Steele, of Shamokin, visited town friends yesterday afternoon.

John R. Leisenring, of Hazleton, was a visitor to town yesterday afternoon.

Joseph Oliver left town to-day for Newport, Luzerne county, where he may locate.

John E. Doyle, of Shenandoah, wearing blue glasses for hay fever, was a visitor to Pottsville.—Republican.

Miss Hannah and Mary Warnick, of Reading, have returned home after spending several weeks with friends in town.

Happy Jack McCarthy, the bustling editor of the Hazleton Sentinel, spent a few minutes in town yesterday afternoon.

Miss Day Steelman, of Clayton, N. J., left for home to-day after a week's visit here as the guest of her friend at Swathmore College, Miss Emma Wasley.

Mrs. C. G. Grosser and family, of Jacksonville, Fla., who spent the summer here with relatives, started for their home this morning, accompanied by Miss Kate Grosser, of town.

Capt. Edward Reese and his daughter, Miss Rachel, of Centralia, have arrived home from their trip to the old country. They both enjoyed the trip very much, the sea voyage being beneficial to their health.

Just received, a big car load of prime Jersey peaches, at Costlet's. 9-5-11.

"Dave Ball"
In spite of the miserable showing the home team made in the game against the Renovos, many predict that the game at the Trotting park on Friday between the Pottsville and Shenandoah clubs will be the game of the season.

A Pottsville man said yesterday that the Shenandoah won't see the ball after the fifth inning on Friday. The Pottsvilles may run against a surprise.

The home team played a practice game at the Trotting park this afternoon. The management has read the riot act and told the players that Friday's game will mean victory or ruin.

The home management has not setled upon the insinuations made by the Lansford people. It is said Palmer is so well liked here the Shenandoah people do not wish their team to beat his first love.

Frank Henry complains that he has a sore knee.

Scotley is red hot over base ball now and says he will play in dead earnest in every game. When asked where he is stopping now he answers with a cheery air, "Down in Girardville with the folks." He likes married life and will stay either in Girardville or Shenandoah all winter.

Many people are complaining of the rowdy element that spreads itself among the spectators on the grand stand and thinks it makes the games more interesting by crying "fight! fight!" without cause, and otherwise behaving in a hoodlum manner. The management should detail a special officer to all who compose this element and take other steps to have the patrons of the park who wish to do so enjoy the game.

Tommy is still in town and will in all probability be retained on the home team for the balance of the season.

Don't fail to try the prime Jersey peaches Costlet has just received. 9-5-11.

Concert Postponed.
The open air concert which the Grant Band intended giving at the north end of Main street this evening has been indefinitely postponed on account of the illness of a member of the band who was to play an important part in several of the selections.

Spring Follies Already.
A HERALD reporter was given a quiet tip today that several friends of Patrick Coary, president of the School Board, are preparing to urge his for the Democratic nomination for Chief Burgess next spring.

DOINGS IN THE TOWN.

A Justice and a Saloon-Keeper Under Arrest.

RYNKAWICZS ARRESTED.

The Father Charged With Selling Liquor on Sunday and the Son Charged With Falsely Arresting and Imprisoning a Countryman—Both Waived Hearings.

SPIRIT of malice has arisen between the Rynkawicz and the Stok, Polish families of town, and it looks as if their bitterness will carry them into court.

Last Friday Stok caused the arrest of Felix Rynkawicz, the saloon keeper, charging him with selling liquor on Sunday. When the case was before Justice Bailey, Rynkawicz appeared with his attorney M. M. Burke, Esq., waived a hearing and entered bail for trial.

It was thought Stok would be content to wait until court would convene and hold in check his spirit of revenge for some wrong he feels he has sustained, but instead of doing so he caused a warrant to be issued for Walter Rynkawicz, Felix's son, who is a Justice of the Peace in the Fourth ward.

In the latter Stok charged Justice Rynkawicz with false arrest and imprisonment and the hearing was fixed for last evening before Justice Bailey. Stok was represented by Lawyer Haughwout, and Lawyer Burke appeared for the accused Justice, who decided after a consultation to waive a hearing and entered bail for trial at court.

Rynkawicz says that both charges are without foundation and that they are simply trumped up by Stok for vengeance for a wrong which the latter imagines has been done to him by the father and son. Their attorneys say the trial of the cases will be interesting.

Felix Rynkawicz is looked upon as one of the most prosperous Polish residents of the town. He recently purchased the Evans property at the corner of Centre and White streets for $10,000, and owns a saloon and a butcher shop. The son, Walter, is the first and only Polish Justice of the Peace elected in town. He has held the office for two years and is said to wield considerable influence in the Fourth ward politics.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

"New York Day by Day."
Melville and Thompson's "New York Day by Day," a perfect picture of life in a great city, is drawing crowded houses on this their second annual tour. The company is a strong one, the scenery fresh, crisp and realistic. The views presented of the many points of interest are true to nature; the Battery, N. Y., in 1888, the Harlem bridge in a blizzard, the Outcasts' Home, etc. The dialogue is charming, the situations startling and effective, the entire a beautiful conception of life in the great metropolis.—The Call, Philadelphia, Aug. 30, '92. Will appear at Ferguson's theatre on September 8th.

A Blockade.
A gondola loaded with coal was thrown to the rails on the mountain grade of the Lehigh Valley Railroad west of Brownville this afternoon by the breaking of a wheel. The car was badly wrecked and the coal heaped about the track. A wrecking crew and car from Delano arrived upon the scene soon after the accident and succeeded in getting the track clear after about an hour's work and in time to prevent any delay to the passenger train due here at 2:57. Three coal trains were blockaded for about half an hour.

The School Directors.
It is said that the act of March 31, 1893, and that of April 30, 1893, provides that "any person who shall be found intoxicated in any street, highway, public house or public place, shall be fined, upon the view of or upon proof made before any mayor, alderman or justice of the peace $5, to be levied with the proper cost upon the goods and chattels of the defendant, which shall be paid to the treasurer of the school district where such conviction is had by the Magistrate collecting the same."

Death Dealers.
It is not surprising that the death rate among the Polish, Lithuanian and Hungarian people is so great. The parents and the children are frequently seen eating cucumbers as others eat apples, not even taking the care to peel them. A reporter saw two children, one about six and the other about five years of age, munching the crisp promoters with as much relish as a negro experiences when devouring a watermelon.

Arnica & Oil Liniment is equally good for man and beast. 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

25 Cents up to $2.00 per yard for Oilcloths. Call and see them. Also a number of Remnants at your own price. Reg Carpets made to order at C. D. Fricke's Store and Factory, 10 South Jardin street.