gan with admirable grace, and had Reilly' ily in his hand, but dropped it. Reilly got to first and then tried to steal second, but Satley' great throwing powers knocked has ambition into a cocked hat. Setley quickly recovered the dropped hall and sent it to Henry with great accruracy from the left field, and thus aved bimself from criticiam. The Pottsvilles cannot say that they were in the game at any stage. It kept them busy to prevent Shenandoah from piling up the runs, and the latter's players went out by reckless attempts to steal bases. Both Fox and Cavannugh made this their principal point of battle, and to their credit it can be said they succeeded well; still the home team stole four bases on them. In different three innings Shenandoah go seven men to the bat, and in one they got six In no inning did Pottsville get more than five nen to the bat, and that only occurred twice The only time the Pettavilles made the ome people apprehensive was in the third uning, when Salmon got his base by bein; hit and Hill started him on a run with a two bagger. Salmon was sprinting like a trotte toward third when Toman missed the throw Salmon got home and Hill reached third The people were really nervous then. Moore followed with a bot hit which Bradley stopped with an excellent high left hand eatch and retired Moore at first. Bradley then restored confidence by striking out O'Rourke and Johnson, Reilly won hearty applaume by capturing a terrific ball from Fulmer's bat in the sixth inning.

There was only one double play during the game and that was made by Relliy capturing a pretty stiff drive from Bradley's bat and retiring Falmer at second. Martin showed up in his old time form at short stop, and captured some excellent drives, although on a couple occasions Shaffer's first base work saved him from errors. Patchen established himself in the estimaion of the audience as a great batter and good player generally. Fulmer played his usual steady game and started the work of binding down the visitors by capturing the first fly sent to the outer field, which was hit by Salmon Salmon's sprinting ability didn't avail him

There is one class of people who are be tinning to feel joyfal. It is the hay fever class, of whom there are a great many in this town, and it is said that the attacks of the annoying disease this season have been un usually severe, partaking somewhat of the cyclonic order. They are fully entitled to neral sympathy, for although the disease not of a fatal character. it is of all others ns of the most annoying and distressing.

EDITOR HERALD, I hope you will publish n answer to Titman's statement before Conn cil. As one of the sewerage company I my he ics when he says we asked $300 from him or the cap factory. We asked him $300 dol ars for that square on Coal street-that, $3; per lot, or $15 per single bouse; and the cap actory thrown in. As far as John Robbins concerned he can get his $100 any time he mes to the undersigned. For all his houses do not think he has room to grumble. As ar as $400 cost is he lies, and the public will uke his statement for what it is worth. M. GHAHAM.
