The Republican State Headquarters have been opened in Philadelphia, and the great Republican party in this State has a large chip on its shoulder waiting for some party of the second part to knock it off.

It would be interesting to know, says the Philadelphia Star, what percentage of the money withdrawn from savings banks and hoarded away in old stockings, tin coffee-pots, carried in coat pockets, sewed in skirts, hid away under carpets, buried in cellars, and foolishly spent has been lost to its owners. Add to this the lost interest, and the aggregate would astonish.

Here is a Southern idea on the tariff, printed in the Richmond Dispatch, a Democratic newspaper: The Republican charge that the success of the Democratic party in 1892 was frightened manufacturers as to cause them to shut up their factories and await the action of the present Democratic Congress on the subject of the tariff, must not be treated as unworthy of the consideration of that party. Let the tariff be revised at once or the public notified that the factories may go to work without fear of being stopped by unfriendly legislation.

"My dear Professor, will you not kindly give me a history of the world in the next fifteen minutes?" The old story is suggested by the action of the Ways and Means Committee of the House, which, till there was a vigorous protest from the Republicans, seriously proposed to allow the industries of the United States two hours a day for twelve days to present their views on a projected rearrangement of tariff duties. The time finally set was from September 4 to September 20—fifteen days, two hours, more or less, each day. This is the way in which the Democratic party promotes the confidence which is essential to a restoration of trade and production in the United States.

ALL sensible readers will agree with the New York Press in its statement that speech is free in the United States, as action is free, so long as it does not invade the rights and safety of others. The anarchist has a right to his opinions and a right to their expression while he does not incite to acts of lawlessness. But when the line that society has drawn for its own protection is deliberately overstepped, it is time for the strong arm of the law to make its power felt. Anarchists of the type of Most, Berkman, Emma Goldman and her accomplices, Timmermann, now in prison, are the deadly foes of the working people whose interest they falsely pretend to advocate. They are the enemies of property, of law, progress and civilization, of everything that elevates men and women above the brutes that perish. When they openly preach assassination and robbery, decent society, in self defense, must take vigorous steps for their suppression.

A Schooner's Crew Rescued. WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Superintendent Kimball is informed that the crew of the schooner John P. Kelsey, bound from Rockland, Me., to New York, was taken off by the life saving crew of the Monomoy life saving station, near Handkerchief Shoals, Mass. The cargo of lime was on fire, and the crew were in great peril.

To Arrange a New Schedule. NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 9.—The mill managers and the spinners' union have agreed to each appoint a committee to consider a new schedule of wages, in place of the proposed old down.

More Work for Idle Hands. BOSTON, Sept. 9.—All the large rubber boot and shoe factories will start up on Monday after their summer vacations. This will give employment to about 30,000 hands.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Condition of Great Industries Has Distinctly Mended.

THE PRODUCING FORCES INCREASE. More Works Have Resumed During the Past Week Than Have Stopped Operation—The Premium on Currency Has Almost Vanished—Business Failures.

New York, Sept. 9.—R. G. Dun & Co's weekly review of trade says: Improvement has extended from the banks to the mills. The condition of great industries has distinctly mended, though still seriously depressed. More important by far than any rise in stocks is the fact that more works have resumed during the past week than have stopped operation, so that the producing force of the country, after months of constant decline, has begun to increase. It is expected that most of the Fall River mills will start soon, the hands assenting to reduced wages.

The money markets are more healthy, the premium on currency has almost vanished, the embargos in domestic exchanges have well nigh disappeared, and while very little money is yet available for commercial or industrial loans, there is some relief in that respect also. It was time for some improvement. Sept. 1 the output of iron furnaces in blast was only 85,510 tons weekly, against 107,042 Aug. 1 and 181,531 May 1, so that much less than half the producing force was engaged, and yet the manufacture was so stagnant that unsold stocks of pig iron increased 22,000 tons a week in August. It is stated that further reductions in the output have been made since September began.

The Thomas Iron company has reduced its price for pig iron fifty cents, but some other concerns are selling standard No. 1 much lower—at $14 per ton. Soft steel has reached the lowest point on record, $30 at Pittsburg, and substantially all rail mills in the country are idle, but there is a somewhat better demand for hardware, wire rods, barbed wire, and contracts for architectural work and agricultural implements are reported at Chicago.

While money markets have greatly improved, they are yet far from the normal condition, and the crops are in doubt. The prospects for corn have not improved, and the injury done by drought seems to have a much smaller yield than was expected. The price during the week has advanced fully 1/2c. Western receipts of wheat have also been only 3,375,527 bushels for the week, against 7,629,024 bushels last year, and as accounts of short crops abroad grow more definite the price here has strengthened fully 1c. Exports for the week have been only 2,169,733 bushels, against 2,473,783 for the same week last year.

Cotton has advanced to 8 cents, with assurance that a new treasury arrangement will facilitate the supplies of money for moving the crop. After touching 3 cents the price has fallen a sixteenth, and crop reports are still favorable on the whole in spite of the damage by the storm in South Carolina.

The stock market has been somewhat weaker during the latter part of the week, with considerable realization of profits, and more attention is paid to railway earnings, which thus far show a decrease of 12.8 per cent. for August. The average price of active stocks, rising 65 per share on Tuesday, has gradually declined.

Failures for the week have been only 233 in number, against 523 last week and 430 for the week preceding, and 25 in Canada against 33 for the same week last year.

PAUL HALLIDAY BURIED.

His Body Laid Beside That of His First Wife with the G. A. R. Ritual. MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Paul Halliday was buried beside his first wife in the little cemetery in Walker valley with the ritual of the G. A. R. yesterday, and the excitement over the triple murder is subsiding somewhat. Late in the day it was rumored here that a skeleton of a boy had been found on the Halliday premises, but as nothing definite can be learned the report is not generally credited. After the funeral Halliday's two sons, James and Robert, came to Middletown to consult a lawyer regarding the disposition of their father's property.

James, upon being interviewed by a United Press reporter, said: "Halliday had recently died every day in her conversation with his wife." After the Halliday shanty, James admitted that he had never spoken to his stepmother. He said that he was satisfied that his crippled brother John had been killed by his stepmother.

Charles Higham, of this place, while looking about the Halliday house, picked up an old memorandum book, which he took away as a memento. Upon looking through a number of important entries were found. One leaf was folded over and pinned down. It was indorsed "Lizzie Halliday's crime." On the other side of this entry appeared "Burr barn May 26, 1891. May 6, 1891, the house was burned. Paul Halliday, May 21, 1891. Yesterday Mrs. Halliday was committed to the county jail at Monticello to await the action of the grand jury.

The Philadelphia physicians' committee will entertain them all tomorrow morning, when they take the 9 o'clock train for New Castle, Del., and will meet the revenue cutter Hamilton. A visit will be made to the quarantine station at Reedy Island. The delegates will return to Philadelphia in the evening, and after dinner in the Hotel Lafayette leave for New York, where they will spend Monday. Monday evening the party will leave New York for Boston. From Boston they will go to Saratoga, thence to Albany, Niagara Falls, Detroit, Toledo, Cincinnati and Chicago, arriving at the last named place at 9 a. m. Tuesday, Sept. 19, where the excursion will end. The final session of the congress was held in Washington yesterday.

Empress William's Grand-Trade. ALBANY, Sept. 9.—Empress William has ordered that in view of the loyalty manifested by the people of Alsace-Lorraine during his visit, all the exceptional laws enforced in the provinces since the war shall be abolished. After the announcement of the order, Chancellor von Caprivi and Prince von Hohenlohe, governor of Alsace-Lorraine, held a long conference, presumably as to the details of its execution.

The Catholic Congress. CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Yesterday the Catholic congress was given up to the discussion of "Catholic education," papers being presented by many of the prominent educators in the church. The attendance at the congress, which closes today, has been well maintained throughout the week, and it is the universal verdict that it is one of the most successful denominational gatherings ever held.

THE STORM'S HAVOC.

Strange Freaks of Lightning and Wind Reported. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 9.—During Thursday night's storm at Pond Hill, near this city, Mrs. Siegfried and children, her sister, Mrs. Money and children, were grouped in terror in the former's kitchen near the stove. A bolt of lightning descended the chimney, knocked over the kitchen stove, and went thence to the floor, tearing the carpets into shreds and prostrating all the persons in the room. One of the children had a shoe torn off and a foot burst open and burned. Three of those rendered insensible by shock are likely to die. The strangest feat of the lightning was that it apparently cured the son of Mrs. Munny of a violent attack of asthma, which had nearly made him speechless and his breathing had been agony.

BURDGETOWN, Conn., Sept. 9.—The small cottage at Milford Point, occupied by Alfred Bragg, of Shelton, and his family, consisting of his wife, two daughters and one son, was toppled over and over by the wind yesterday during the severe storm. Mr. Bragg was injured so seriously that death resulted. During one of the squalls of the house Mr. Bragg was hurled out of the door. Mrs. Bragg and the children were badly bruised, but not fatally injured.

CORNING, N. Y., Sept. 9.—It is estimated that there was 20,000 window panes broken by the storm. The buckwheat, corn and tobacco crops in this section were totally destroyed. The loss in the Chenango valley will not fall short of a quarter of million dollars.

Died with a Gas Jet in His Mouth. NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—E. G. Palmer, of Pittsburg, Pa., a civil engineer, committed suicide yesterday afternoon in his room at 199 Washington street, by inhaling gas. He was found sitting on a wash stand with the gas jet in his mouth. The gas was turned on full. Some of the neighbors say he was not quite right in his head. He was 55 years old. An examination of his effects showed that he was interested in a patent bicycle railroad.

The Scaffolding Gave Way. NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Two Italian laborers, while working on a scaffolding near one of the upper stories of the Fulton Hotel, when her commander reports her arrival at some South American port, directing the vessel to proceed immediately to Brazilian waters.
