Long Winded Speeches Expected in the Senate.

NO VOTE LITTLY REFORE OCTOBER.

Messrs. George, Jones and Daniel Will Each Speak for Two Days on the Repeal Question, While Thirty Others Are Booked for Speeches.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.-The repeal bill will continue to be the absorbing topic of interest before congress this week. Today in the senate Mr. Teller may conclude his speech begun on Saturday last. Notice of speeches to come have already been given sufficient to fill in the greater part of the week, and others are knows to be in course of preparation, so that in the ab-sence of an agreement of some kind there is no reason to believe that a vote on the bill can be reached this week.

Although he has not fixed definitely upon the date of delivery of his speech, Mr. Mills, of Texas, may follow Mr. Teller Our Government Urged to Prevent the in the debate.
