PROBLET the pendeners won't think much of the Mases at the head of the Pension committee;

In many Instances those "robber barons' of whom we used to read in Democratic papers, have | been succeeded by receivers.

With an assurance that the tariff wouldn't be touched in ten years every factory wined in the United States would turn within a week.

A hurener, named Mark Toop, writes the Geaugn Republican athat "beetsteak does not go down in price, notwithstanding the cheapness of cattle, because hides are on the free list and are so cheap. Mark Toop is wasting his time in keeping agment market in Chardon. He ought to join teams with Hoke Smith, John A. Sullivan and other Democratic statesmen. His grasp of the tariff question is something profound. There is a fortune In that name of Mark Toop If it were only properly used. JUDSON OF GLOVERSVILLE.

A sad eyed, sover faced, elderly gentieman passed through New York on Saturday on his way to Washington. He was headed for the Ways and Mesus Committee, and this week the HERALD expects to read his tests. Cain, amony before the committee now engaged in the preparation of the Fortnight Tariff bill. Daniel B. Judson was the delegates to the exposition. He said it once one of those cheerful but deluded wietims of the false reasoning of Demoindustries could be out down and stestroyed, and other people's opera-tives thrown out of employment, eigners that could be seen nowhere else in

The archbishop's torical ectasy he promised to give employment to all the good people of Gloversville who were thrown out of when introduced, said that that religions was the grandest that joined all religions. employment in consequence of Demo-eratic victory. Already he has from 10,000 to 12,000 people on his hands with such applianse as Pung Quang Yu, secretary of the Chinese legation at Wash-ington. In Introducing him Mr. Bonney employment in consequence of Democlamoring for employment The HERALD is informed that the streets but in spite of which the emperor of China of Gloversville are alive with men and women out of work, and that general alarm is expressed as to the future of the leading industry there—the manufacture of gloves.

Naturally the good people in their dismay turn to the patriotic citizen who offered them plenty of work and high wages in the event of Demoeratic ascendency. Alast Mr. Judson is poweriess to help, for his business has gone down in these troublesome free trade times. "But you must do something or the people will soon starve," urged the unemployed. "I will go straightway to Washington," said Mr. Judson, "acknowledge my error and entreat the Democratic Ways and Means Committee to leave at least 50 per cent, ad valorem duty on gioves.17

And it is on that errand that the mad eyed, sober faced elderly gentleman left Saturday afternoon for the mation's capital. The HERALD earnmatty hopes, for the sake of the unemplayed at Gloversville, that he will succeed. The moral to this story is that when a man is convinced that he has been dead wrong, the most courageous way is to own up and endeavor in every possible way to undo the mischief which his folly has brought apon others.

secutor Hill Opposes a Resolution Offered by St-wart of Nevada.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The senior sen-stor from New York broke off yesterday ator from New York broke off yesterday from his imputed alliance with the ex-treme wing of the silver senators. Mr. Siewart, of Nevada, offered a resolution for an inquiry into the fact of senators being stockholders in national banks. Mr. Hill apposed the resolution in a strong deuted, and a gross reflection on the sen-ate. The resolution went over.

The session of the house was brief. It was expected that a report from the com-mittee on accounts, announcing the committees that were entitled to clerks, might lead to an acrimonious debate, but owing to the absence of Mr. Ruck the report was not brought in. The colored representa-tive from South Carolina, Mr. Murray, attempted to get consideration for a joint resolution appropriating $200,000 for the relief of the cyclone sufferers in the south, but Mr. Kilgore, of Texas, objected and the resolution was referred.
