SHE NAILED HIM.

Gain Made by a Mt. Carmel Woman's Shrewdness.

A woman residing at Mt. Carmel is said to have made herself a couple of hundred dollars richer by an exhibition of tact which was admirable. Recently a farmer from the Brush Valley drove to the woman's house with a load of chickens and after considerable dickering over the price sold some of them. They were placed in a coop in the yard, but the next morning the woman discovered that "the birds had flown." Upon walking about the yard the woman found a bag bearing the name of the farmer from whom the chickens had been purchased and close to it was a wallet which, upon being opened, was found to contain $200 in bills. Later in the day the woman saw the farmer walking about the yard. She asked him what he wanted and he answered rather hesitatingly that he "was just lookin' round." Then the woman drew upon her tact and said, "Last night somebody stole the chickens out of that coop, but whoever it was he or she left a pocket book and $200 in the yard and I found them. Now I am waiting for some one to come and claim them and when the time comes I'll send him as high as the law will carry him for stealing those chickens."

Base Ball Notes.

The Pottsville favorite are kicking on the class of ball furnished them by Manager Reber.

The Lykens club only received a $40 guarantee at the county seat.

Pottsville doesn't appear to be in a hurry to play the return game with Lansford.

An effort is being made to get a game with the Easton State League team.

It is said the Shamrocks of St. Clair have issued a challenge to the Pottsville team.

AS ONLY A BABY CAN.

Conso es one for All Sorrows Save Those it Brings—The Attempt of Mother: Awakened to the Need of Better Diet.

A baby is a despot in long clothes.

The mother's tenderness and her marvelous intuition for doing the right thing accom- plishes much; but it often happens, with all her solicitude, that ignorance of infant needs endangers baby's health and life.

"In looking over my cases of summer diarrhoea for the past few years," says Dr.

Holt, physician to the New York Infant Asylum, "I find that in over 400 cases the most common exciting cause was improper feeding."

Because it is the most nourishing, most palatable, most digestible, purest of foods, physicians and experienced nurses recommend and use lactated food.

Lactated food has saved thousands of infants from cholera infantum and fatal diarrhoea. It more closely resembles mother's milk than any other food known. Its base is sugar of milk, which is the basis of mother's milk. With it is combined the nutritive parts of wheat, barley and oats in such proportions as best meet the requirements of the growing child.

"Our little Cassandra," writes Mrs. T. W. Wal- berlin, O., "has been using lactated food, and has never seen a sick day." Babies live on lactated food!

Open Air Concert.

If the weather is favorable the Grant band will give an open air concert at the B-scur house, on North Main street, this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. The following will be the program:

March, "The Guard of Honor".....Sherman Overture....."Mourning of the Forest".....Bouliet.

"The Advance and Retreat of the Salvation Army"....."The Fair".....Hallett.

"A Trip to the Country".....Lucomb.

Waltz, "After the Ball".....Luscomb.

Polka, "The Fair".....Hallett.

Synopsis of comic descriptive pieces, "A Trip to the Country"—A hot and dusty day in the city; longing for fresh air and a change; meditating on the delights of the country; reflections interrupted by a hand organ slightly out of tune; organ moves on; hurried preparations for a trip to the country; walking toward the station; "all aboard"; train starts out of station; "Scrattown" air brakes; "free bus to the hotel, right this way!" the bus ride; hotel gone; laboring under depression of spirits; dejection inter- rupted by serenade from local band; hand breaks down; preparing hastily to change locality; meditating consolation in the max; dance; fiddlers tuning up; the dance; general disgust arising; walking back to station; "no place like home;" finale.

THE GRIM REAPER.

Another Old and Respected Citizen Passes Away.

Within the past year quite a number of the earlier settlers in this town have died and last evening another one in the person of Jacob Shelly has departed this life, which occurred at the house of his son-in-law, Evan J. Davies, on North Jardin street. Within the last two or three years the deceased has suffered from three severe paralytic strokes, and together with general debility and old age, was the cause of his death. Through some misunderstanding about three weeks ago he was taken to the almshouse, but remained there only a day or two, when he was removed to his son-in-law's, and has remained there until his death. He was an old soldier, serving during the late war in Company G, 129th regiment, Penna. Vol., and at one time was a member of the Grand Army. He was one of the earlier settlers in Shenandoah, and was well-known and highly respected throughout the county. He leaves a family of six grown-up children, as follows: Mrs. Lambert Koffing, Locust Gap; Thomas Shelly, Mahanoy City; Mrs. John P. Driscoll, Pottsville; John F. Shelly, West Virginia; Mrs. Morgan Stetler and Mrs. Evan J. Davies, of town, and Mrs. Thomas Tindle, of Pottsville. The funeral will take place on Thursday at 2 o'clock.

Joseph Lloyd died at his residence on West Centre street this morning, in his 63 year. The deceased had been ill about ten days and heart disease was the cause of death. He is survived by his wife and six adult children. Rev. J. T. Lloyd, of Wilkes-Barre; Rev. J. M. Lloyd, of Freedom, N. Y., and J. W. Lloyd, of Girardville, are the surviving sons. The funeral will take place at 3 p. m. on Thursday.

Robert, the two-year-old son of Thomas Clements, of Apply alley, died on Sunday.

SINGULAR COINCIDENT.

Harry Mills' Second Serious Accident on a Railroad.

On Sunday evening Harry Mills, aged 19 years, met with an accident on the Philadel- phia and Reading Railroad tracks, near Rappahannock. He is a cripple, having lost his right leg below the knee on the same rail- road about a year ago, but a false leg enabled him to walk well and quite fast. Sunday evening he was descending the mountain side at a rapid gait and when near the track saw a train approaching, but the momentum given by the descent was so great that Mills was forced on to the track and struck by the train. He was thrown about fifteen feet, but fortunately fell to the side of the track and escaped being crushed by the car; but the injuries he sustained are of such a character it is feared he will not recover. The thigh to which the false leg was fastened was fractured, his left leg was broken above the knee and his head was badly cut. The victim was sent to the Miners' Hospital. A singular feature of the case is that Mills lost his right leg in a similar manner and near the same spot on the railroad about a year ago.
