ADVICE TO SENATORS.

Resolutions Adopted by the Board of Trade Convention.

REPEAL THE SHERMAN LAW

It is Regarded by These Representatives Business Men As the Cause of Lack of Confidence—Remedies May be Suggested Afterward.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—In the national board of trade convention, which opened yesterday, twenty-one states, including the District of Columbia, were represented by 175 delegates appointed by sixty-two organizations. Ex-Senator Hill, of Colorado, delivered the principal speech yesterday, being present by invitation.

A permanent organization was effected by electing the following officers: President, ex-Governor E. O. Stauffer, of Missouri; secretary, Byerson Ritchie, of Cleveland; second secretary, F. S. Gardner, secretary New York board of trade, New York. One vice president from each state representation was also chosen.

In taking the chair ex-Governor Stauffer expressed thanks for the honor conferred upon him. He referred to the privations and hardships by which the west had been transferred from a wilderness into a garden. The business men, farmers and mechanics of the west had become satisfied, from the education which they have received in the past two months, that the national government has purchased too much silver. This convention had been called to urge upon the United States senate the necessity of repealing the Sherman act. There is sufficient money to conduct the country's business, but there must be a restoration of confidence. This could easily be accomplished by the prompt passage of a repeal bill.

At last night's session the committee on resolutions reported. The preamble reported by the committee recites the financial distress which has recently prevailed, and expresses the belief that the monetary and industrial troubles are traceable to the continued purchase of silver bullion. The committee offered for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we heartily commend and endorse the president's message and the financial action of the house of representatives in passing an act in accordance with his recommendation, and we earnestly urge upon the senate of the United States the necessity of speedily and unconditionally concurring in said action.

Resolved, That it is the conviction of the business organizations represented by this convention that any considerable delay on the part of the senate, or any failure by it to repeal the purchasing clause of the said law, will plunge the business interests of the country into a more serious crisis than that from which they are now beginning to emerge.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this convention that the only action in regard to this matter which is desirable for congress to take at this time is the speedy and unconditional repeal of the purchasing clause of said law, leaving for future consideration any further effort at financial legislation. It is the opinion of this convention that the only action in regard to this matter which is desirable for congress to take at this time is the speedy and unconditional repeal of the purchasing clause of said law, leaving for future consideration any further effort at financial legislation.

John W. Vernon, of the Providence board of trade, advocated the adoption of the resolutions. He repudiated the proposition that banks and money lenders have conspired to produce a panic for the purpose of reducing the debt-paying ability of the borrowers in this country by seeking to perpetuate a gold standard of value.

Representative Bell, of Colorado, opposed the adoption of the resolutions, and in the brief space of time allotted to him made a ringing speech. But he was not sympathetic with the meeting, and was hardly accorded courteous treatment. He said he thought it highly presumptuous on the part of the meeting to attempt in a dictatorial manner to instruct the United States senate, especially such men as Jones and Stewart, who were acknowledged the world over as among the greatest economic authorities. He wished to say to his friends from the east that they were laboring under a misapprehension. What was the difference, he asked, whether the balances abroad were paid in gold or silver. The best customer the manufacturer of New England and the east had was the silver coin.

Waldo Smith, of the New York Grocers' association, denied the impression sought to be created in the minds of the people by the anti-silver advocates that the commercial interests of the east were dominated by Wall street.

Representative Pence followed. As a member of the committee on resolutions, he said he must dissent from the resolutions presented. He then proposed a substitute from the silver standpoint, which, of course, was received by the meeting as a joke. Mr. Pence then proceeded to ridicule the importance of the meeting, if it had any, on the United States senate. Did they have the presumption to suppose that any action taken by them would have influence on such men as Vest and Cockrell? "You might tickle the fancy of the chief executive," said Mr. Pence in conclusion, "but I shall be greatly disappointed if a representative of a sovereign state will be influenced by such resolutions."

The vote on the resolutions resulted: Ayes, 157; Nays, 5. A committee of ten was appointed to wait upon Senator Voorhees, chairman of the senate finance committee, and present a copy of the resolutions.

After votes of thanks to the chairman of the convention, the Washington Board of Trade and the New York Board of Trade and Transportation, an adjournment was taken, and the president authorized to call another meeting when he may deem it proper, to continue the work now taken up.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION!

Too High Pressure.

In these days of keen competition in every line, when the business man is compelled to bend his intellect and every energy to the success of his business; the clerk, book-keeper, professional man and laborer, to drive themselves at a terrific rate, there can be but one result—an explosion, which, if not resulting in immediate death, leaves them with shattered brains and bodies. They are running at too high pressure. The strain is too great. Something must and does give way. This is equally true of women. Though their sphere is more limited, they have their daily burdens, frets, and worries, and the results are the same as with their stronger companions.

This condition is growing worse every day. The rapidity of its increase is awful to contemplate. Our homes, hospitals, and insane asylums are full of these unfortunate, and are being crowded still further. There is but one solution of the matter. Recognize the importance of the situation at once, and take the necessary measures to overcome it. If you have falling memory, but flashes, dizziness, nervous or sick headache, biliousness, irritability, melancholy, sleeplessness, fainting, nervous dyspepsia, epilepsy, etc., know that any one of them is but a symptom of the calamity that may befall you, and even though you have used so-called remedies and treated with reputable physicians with little or no benefit, give Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine a trial. It is the only remedy that may be depended upon for nervous disorders.

Two years ago I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine with most excellent results. My son, who had been sick with catarrh of the bladder five years in the hands of our best physicians, to try it together with Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills. He was so wonderfully benefited that he is now in business again. My wife, who had been sick with catarrh of the bladder five years, and who had used all the best remedies, and who had been told by all the physicians that she would never be cured, was cured by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I can give you a positive guarantee, or send you Dr. Miles' Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, and six copies prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs. Free book at druggists, by mail.

ANOTHER CHINESE BILL

It is Now Being Prepared by Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky.

TO ABOLISH THE EXCLUSION LAW.

Private Citizens Cannot Force the Government to Enforce a Law Which It May Think It Wise for the Time to Suspend.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Another Chinese bill is now in course of preparation by Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky, chairman of the foreign affairs committee of the house, who recognizes the necessity for some prompt action by congress. The new bill will do away with the exclusion act.

The government has suspended the enforcement of the Geary law by declining to make further arrests. In any case of California 500 Chinamen could be arrested within an hour for being in this country in violation of the Geary law, but United States officers are instructed not to disturb them for the present. In the Los Angeles case, where private citizens made complaint to United States Judge Ross that certain Chinamen were in the United States in violation of the Geary law, Judge Ross held that Chinamen could be arrested and deported on the complaint of a private citizen, and that the United States government must deport an alien Chinaman so found here. In doing this he construed that the law of September, 1888, was in force.

Acting under a decision of the solicitor of the treasury rendered Oct. 16, 1888, the treasury department, in a circular letter of instruction, held that the Chinese act of Sept. 13, 1888, never went into operation and is of no binding force, for the reason that it is dependent on the ratification of a treaty with China, never ratified. Various interpretations have been put on it by various United States judges sitting in various sections of the country. If the construction of the treasury be upheld, then it will follow that private citizens cannot force the government to execute a law which it may think it wise for the time to suspend.
