HAS Hoke Smith heard anything drop? He seems to have subsided for an entire week.

WHY doesn't some Democrat in Congress arise and move to repeal the Chicago platform? That is the mouse in the Democratic meal tub.

"THE President doesn't have to crack unifering from the heat. At the head of the procession role the president and cab any lash over Republican backs. They are in the team to pull the load with every buckle fastened and every trace taut. It is Democracy that is made up of bucking bronchos. Just wait and see them vote.

CLEVELAND is tired, his party is not feeling well, and what about the other feelings all over the land? You may tell them it is all caused by what the peaky Republicans did years ago, but they won't believe it, and they know the leaders don't believe it, either.

THE country is too rich in all things of value to the world to indulge in any long-continued panic. Even weakminded vacillating legislators can not the president was heartily cheered by the enthusiastic throng as he arese to make a stampede. The seremonies of today would, he said, ocsupy an important space in the history of the country, and would be of unusual inthe country, and would be of unusual in-terest to the people of the whole and as well as to the citizene of Washington. It was an event of more than local import-ance. To speak of London was to speak of Eugland. The name of Paris covered that of France. To refer to Austria, Vienna only had to be mentioned. And Rome, with her eternal hills, overshadow all Italy. And so exerce citizers of the all Italy. And so every citizen of the Udited States is thrilled with patriotism at the mention of Washington. After summarizing the history of the founding and growth of the national capital, and eulogizing its broad streets, beautiful parks and public and private schools, he declared that Washington had more than realized the hopes of its founder and was the ideal city of the world. Following Mr. Parker's speech, the Ma-

The punkament for the first offense is one to ten years and $0,000 flac, and for the second five years or a fine of $5,000, or both, at the discreclon of the court. After the warrant had been sworn out Superintendent Rosbyshell stated that he believed Cochran was crazy.

At the hearing Cochran was not repre-sented by consul, and the district attorney stated that he was willing to postpone the hearing for a day. In order that the commissioner might fix the amount of bail, however, Colonel Bosbyshell was sworn, and testified that the value of the gold still missing was about $25,000. Bail was then fixed at $30,000, in default of which Cochran spent the night in Moyameneing The prisoner hopes to secure ball his afterno
