"THE KIND THAT CURES".

"Lator On"
Harris theatre was well filled last night by an audience which, for three hours, laughed at the jokes and funny doings of a bright company. The girls of the cast are pretty and are capable singers and dancers. The "Georgie" sons of Miss Laelles always gets an encore, and Miss Wilson's dancing never fails to please. The company's drill ways and their excellent musical entertainment cap the excellence of the form of amusements offered. There is a matinee today.—Washington Post. Will appear here Monday evening, Sept. 25th. 9-18-78

Handsome Dresses for Children.

"My sister's children," writes Mrs. B. in the Ladies Journal, "wear dresses that do duty for several seasons, being dyed with Diamond Dyes from light colors to dark. It is really wonderful what can be done with Diamond Dyes!"

FLEEING FROM THE FLAMES

Families Forced from Their Homes in Minnesota and Oklahoma.

ASHLAND, Wis., Sept. 19.—Since Sunday morning the country has been enveloped in a dense cloud of smoke, and on every side disastrous forest fires are fiercely raging. It has required hard work on the part of the fire department and the citizens to keep the fires from burning residences on the outskirts of the city, and the danger is not over. Several dwelling houses caught fire, also the Lake Shore roundhouse, but were subdued before the buildings were destroyed. When the firemen were vigorously fighting the fire in the East end they suddenly surprised to see two men, a woman and a child rush out of the flames through a roadway. The party proved to be a family of homesteaders who were obliged to flee for their lives. South and east of the city are hundreds of isolated homesteaders, and many of them have been burned out. It is reported, but not verified, that one family left their clearing and started for the city with a yoke of oxen, but were overtaken by the flames and suffocated.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 19.—A courier just in from the Pawnee reservation states that a terrific prairie fire is raging there, and hundreds of settlers have been compelled to abandon weapons, tents and outfit and flee for their lives on their horses. She sues as an acknowledged Wall street operator, and her action is based on alleged transactions in that capacity with Mr. Keene prior to and after his suspension in 1884, and with the late William H. Vanderbilt in an earlier period.
