A DISGRACEFUL SCENE.

Mahanoy City's Rowdy Element Again.

THE HOME TEAM STONED

One of the Most Disgraceful Scenes Upon the Green Diamond Took Place Yesterday Afternoon at Mahanoy City—The Umpire Ignorant of the Rules.

MORE disgraceful affair than the closing scene of the base ball game at Mahanoy City never took place in this county, and it will remain a lasting disgrace upon that borough. When the HERALD a few weeks ago denounced the hoodlum element that seems to rule at the games there one or two of the papers of that place seemed to burst with indignation. It is history repeated. Mahanoy City never was and apparently never will be a town where true sport can succeed. There are some people in the town who admit genuine sport and try to sustain it, but they are so overwhelmingly outnumbered that no base ball club or other sporting organization can go to the place and feel assured that they will be given fair play.

The result of yesterday's game has so thoroughly disgusted the Shenandoah people that it is not likely they will allow their club to go to Mahanoy City again, or the club of that place will be allowed to play on our grounds.

It can be said without fear of contradiction, and with a full recollection of all the indignities that Shenandoah people were subjected to on their way from the Pottsville grounds last Saturday, that Mahanoy City is the meanest and dirtiest sporting town in the county and should be wholly ignored by every respectable organization. The element that prevails there yearns for dog and cock fights, and that field should be left to them.

The players and managers of the Shenandoah team have established themselves as gentlemen even in the estimation of their most bitter rivals, and they will be justified in refusing to play hereafter with any club or at any place which has failed to secure a like reputation.

Mahanoy City had prepared to cover itself with glory by defeating Shenandoah, and thus claim the championship of the region, and to that end strengthened itself by the addition of Huston, Ely and Shineshouse, late of the State League. But all the preparations were for naught, as the Shenandoah players outwitted them by battling the much coveted upon Ely's delivery quite freely. Mahanoy City, on the other hand, only got four hits off Bradley. He was the stumbling block to the realization of success of the hoodlums.

Mahanoy City scored the first run and added one in the fifth and sixth. Shenandoah commenced to score in the third inning and made two runs. Two were added in the fourth and seventh innings each. This left the game 3 to 3 in favor of Shenandoah, and in the next inning Umpire Leary, who deliberately robbed the Pottvilles of several decisions when that club played at Mahanoy City a few weeks ago, got in his dirty work for his hoodlum admirers.

Johnson, of Mahanoy City, went to the plate in the beginning of the eighth inning and got his base on balls, Bradley at the same time retiring because he had twisted his knee. Setley then went into the box and after he had delivered four balls Bumpire Leary gave Huntzinger his base on balls. Setley claimed that he had delivered three petty strikes, but did not insist upon the same and prepared himself for the next batter.

Connell was at the plate and in a few moments Bumpire Leary again called "Three balls!" This time both Setley and Messitt protested that two petty strikes had been given and a large number of the people on the grand stand shouted approval of the claims made by the players. But the Bumpire was pig-headed. Many expressed the opinion at the time that he must have had money on the result of the game and was trying to make a steal.

Setley braced himself and sent the ball whirling over the plate again and then turned to the Bumpire and said, "What do you call that?"

"We call that nothing," was the answer.

Setley then turned to the Bumpire again and called him "a dirty mean rascal!" and added that he (the Bumpire) was no good.

Although he had lost his temper momentarily Setley stepped into his box again and was preparing to pitch the ball when the Bumpire waived his arm and shouted to the Mahanoy City players "Come on, Mahanoy City wins this game by a score of 9 to 0." Almost instantly a great crowd of hoodlums surrounded Setley on the field. Manager Bradley and several others say that were it not for the prompt action and stalwart form of Liveryman Smith, of Mahanoy City, Setley would have been very badly injured and perhaps killed. Smith stood by Setley and shielded him to the club's wagon. Setley afterwards said he was struck on the back of the neck by a brick, but the blow was not a hard one.

The hoodlums armed themselves with stones and bricks and seemed to be starving for want of a riot. They followed the Shenandoah players' wagon to the foundry crossing and stormed it with missiles of every desirable character, but fortunately no one was seriously injured. The hoodlums also followed the Shenandoah people who had been on the grounds as spectators and kept in their wake all the way to the depot, but contented themselves with shouting and making violent gestures.

It was indeed a disgraceful sight upon the streets of a town which claims to uphold law and order.

The result of the game when broken up by the Bumpire was as follows:

PERSONAL.

County Commissioner Bowes was in town yesterday.

Miss Birdie Waaley spent part of yesterday in Pottsville.

Charles Hingleberger, of Newark, N. J., is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. John L. Williams, of Shamokin, visited friends in town today.

John R. Leisenring, of Hazleton, was a visitor to town this morning.

Thomas Greenwood, who a few years ago gave up a long residence here for a new home in Reading, is visiting friends in town.

Frank Reutz, of Ashland, Republican candidate for County Commissioner, was circulating among his friends in town yesterday.

A young daughter made her appearance at the residence of R. D. E. Hagenbuch, on East 101 street, last evening, and genial "Bob" is all smiles in consequence.

E. C. Lark, M. D., at one time a prominent resident and practitioner in this town, and who is now located at Repersdorf, was seen at the Lehigh Valley depot today.

IN A COLLISION.

Ex-Councilman Nelswander and Family Have an Exciting Time.

William Nelswander, his wife and daughter returned from Scranton last evening and were among the passengers on one of the trains that collided on the Lehigh Valley railroad. In speaking of the collision Mr. Nelswander said to-day: "Our train had just passed through a cut, which is about fifteen miles north of Wilkes-Barre and about two miles north of Fairview, when the other train came around through another cut and struck our train when it was on top of a high embankment. It was remarkable that none of the cars were thrown over the embankment. One man had his thumb badly cut and a lady lost some of her teeth. I understand our engineer had orders to lay on a siding and failed to do it. I never want to get in a wreck again. The shouts and screams of the people were demoralizing. Many of them jumped through the car windows when they saw the collision was about to occur and it is miraculous that none were killed. I reached home with my family at midnight. We came home on a special train sent from Delano to Hazleton."

"Later On."

Harris' theatre was well filled last night by an audience which, for three hours, laughed at the jokes and funny doings of a bright company. The girls of the cast are pretty and are capable singers and dancers. The "Georgie" sons of Miss Locelles always gets an encore, and Miss Wilson's dancing never fails to please. The company's droll ways and their excellent musical entertainment cap the excellence of the form of amusements offered. There is a matinee today.—Washington Post. Will appear here Monday evening, Sept. 25th. 9-15-74.

Go see Guelling at Kendrick's.

Go to Camden.

Frank Sagar and Miss Sallie Zeigler left town this morning on the 2:08 P. M. train for Camden, N. J., and no doubt are united by the bonds of matrimony by this time. The groom is a resident of this town and the bride's home is in Centralia. This announcement will be news to her parents, but it is understood that the groom's family were aware that there was to be a wedding.

Base Ball Notes.

Dirty Huston!
Dirty Mahanoy!
The umpire was very Leary.
Shenandoah plays at Pottsville on Saturday.

Ely, late pitcher for the Yorks, has joined the Mahanoy City nine.

One Griff Griffith is put down as leading the mob on the grounds.

Yesterday's outrage has killed Mahanoy City as a base ball town.

No respectable club will play with Mahanoy City either on or off its grounds.

Bradley's one hand stop of a hot ball from Huntzinger's bat was another feature.

Shenandoah went to Mahanoy City to play ball, not to take part in a stone battle.

The best part of the Shenandoah club is that they are all gentlemen.—Journal.

The Pottvilles will positively play a game with the home team at the Trotting park on Friday.

Our champions are in great demand. A number of towns in the region would like to get a date.

Frank Henry's assist by a throw from deep centre to third base was a feature of the game.

Ward displayed his abilities as a base runner yesterday to great advantage. And he hit the ball, too.

The rowdy element has killed base ball in Mahanoy City, and the manager of that club is responsible for it.

"Whoever says so is a d---d liar!" was one of the expressions used by Manager Webber on his grounds yesterday.

Manager Webber was personally responsible for many dirty insults addressed to Shenandoah people on the grounds.

Shenandoah audiences always treat visiting teams as gentlemen, and expect the same treatment for our team when they leave home.

Everything indicated that the game was to have been broken up in a wrangle and Bumpire Leary was finally obliged to do the dirty work himself.

Huston knew Mahanoy City. He made the management pay him a week's salary in advance and it is said the money had to be raised by subscription.

Hon. William E. Jones, of Mahanoy City, and Phil Connell, of Pottsville, denounced Manager Webber for engaging and upholding such an umpire as Leary.

In the fourth inning Ward said to Manager Webber, "If you're a gentleman you will give us another umpire." Webber replied, "Play under that umpire or leave the grounds."

Webber might make a manager of a base ball club in the Sandwich Islands, but he is absolutely unfit for such a position in this region. He has neither control of his players or himself.

If Manager Bradigan allows his club to go to Mahanoy City again or gives the club of that place a date here the Shenandoah people will withdraw their patronage from the Trotting park. This is not a heated conclusion.

"Buck" McFittigan tells a Pottsville paper that the one ambition of his life is to whip Shenandoah. "Buck" will have to live many years more to see his ambition realized, if he continues playing in the Pottsville team. Besides, "Buck" and his Pottsville friends are not in our class.

In the fourth inning a ball knocked by Huston was felled by Tomson just as Huston got on the bag. The latter grabbed Fox and prevented him from throwing to third to put out Ely, who had started from second. The umpire's attention was called to the facts and he was asked to either declare Huston or Ely out but he declared both men safe.

In the sixth inning a ball was hit foul to left field and was felled in by Setley. Webber, the manager, threw a new ball out and Henry threw it back. Webber told the umpire to make Bradley use it. During the wrangle Ward rubbed the ball in dirt and otherwise changed its appearance so much like the old that Bradley finally took it and pitched.

Huston had been counted upon by Shenandoah as one of its regular players, the club having paid his expenses from Harrisburg. Monday night Huston received a telegram from Mahanoy City offering him $20 a week and expenses. Yesterday he left Shenandoah without a word to anybody and donned a Mahanoy City uniform. He will be remembered by Shenandoah.

Another sample. In the sixth inning Salmon was at the bat. The umpire called "Two strikes!" Salmon protested and after dropping his bat walked toward Leary, who at once called out to Manager Webber, "How many strikes were there?" The manager answered "One!" Leary then turned and proclaimed aloud, "One strike!" Salmon walked back to the plate again, but went out soon after on a pop to Bradley.

Oh! What a "Berg"—Kendrick's to-night.

THE GILBERT OPERA COMPANY.

There are many strong points about the presentation of the "Black Hussar," by the Gilbert Opera Company, that is looked for the near future. The company containing some forty members and carrying their own orchestra, ensures a musical treat of a kind rarely given here. Besides this the costumes are exceedingly fine, and the opera is perfectly mounted. As a special feature Flurette, the famous dancer, has been secured, and the wonderfully clever performance of this little lady will amaze the audience. 9-14-93

A PRETTY WEDDING!

Two Prominent Young People United for Life.

MANY COSTLY PRESENTS

Ex-Town Clerk Portz and Miss Lizzie Evans Married at Noon To-day at the Residence of the Bride's Parents, South Jardin Street.

YMENEAL ceremonies of a very pretty character took place at high noon to-day at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. David Evans, on South Jardin street, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Lizzie Evans and Mr. Warren J. Portz. The ceremony took place in the parlor under a bough of white roses and smilax and were witnessed by a number of friends. Rev. Robert O'Boyle, of the Trinity Reformed church, officiated. The bride-maid was Miss Lillie Hagenbuch, of Bloomsburg, and the groomsmen Mr. Charles Portz, of Lansford. The bride was dressed in very becoming cream silk bengaline, trimmed with thread lace, and the bridesmaid wore a cream surlah.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party and friends partook of an elaborate breakfast, after which there was a reception, during which Mr. and Mrs. Portz received the personal congratulations of many warm friends of this and other towns and a number of substantial tokens of esteem and good wishes. This afternoon, at 4:10, the couple left town on the Pennsylvania train for Philadelphia. The bridal tour will include trips to Washington and Boston.

The groom is the son of ex-Councilman F. J. Portz, and was formerly clerk of the Borough Council. He is an accomplished musician and has acquired quite an enviable reputation as a teacher of instrumental music and as a member of the Grand Band and Schoppe orchestra. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Evans.

The presentations made to the happy couple to-day were very numerous and some of them are enumerated below with the names of the donors: Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Portz, couch; linen, by Miss Hattie Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. David Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Roberts, New Philadelphia; Mrs. Gilpin, Mrs. Pettit, Mrs. John W. Morgan, Mrs. Fred. Scheid, Tanawaga; Mrs. P. A. Krebs, Tanawaga; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Briggs, Bloomsburg, and Mrs. William K. Schorle, Pottsville. Spreads by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Richards, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Owens; Miss Lizzie Hughes, tidy; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Price, portiere; Misses Annie and Mary Maley and Mr. and Mrs. John Basterfield, cushions; Mr. C. D. Fricko, sweeper; R. A. Dawsonport, spine boxes, bowl and pitcher; Daniel S. Owens, rocking chair; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Burkhardt and Mrs. and Miss Hagenbuch, rings; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Williams, picture and enamel; silverware by Mr. and Mrs. Portz, Lansford; Harry and Miss Ella Krebs, Mahanoy City; Mr. and Mrs. John G. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hagenbuch, John Portz's family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hagenbuch, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Womer, Mrs. William Schoppe, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, Catawissa; Dr. G. W. Hamilton, Dr. Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Williams, Shamokin; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bellie, Leo Bamberger, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoehler, and Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Williams; chinaware by Miss Jane Owens, Wrexam, Wales; china set by Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, and Mr. and Mrs. Gough, Frackville; embroidery by Miss Mary Pomeroy and Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Scheid, Tanawaga. The bride presented the bridesmaid with a gold hair pin and the groom presented the groomsmen with a handsome gold fountain pen.

Another day has passed and yet the Daily Advertiser's prediction as to the Reading Railroad has not been verified.

With a $15 fare to Chicago the railroads will hardly be able to accommodate the rush from the East.

"Oh, if Harris would only resign or do something," is the wish of the "affidavit editor," so that its reputation for reliability could be maintained.
