Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Butter, Eggs, Spices and innumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES." A Fine Road to Travel. In this great Columbian year, when all eyes are turned towards Chicago and the great exposition, it is comforting to know that the railroads leading thither are prepared to handle the immense traffic and carry it expeditiously to its destination. One of the roads that is winning golden ecumens by the excellence of its service is the Nickel Plate. The line is through a fine section of country, a great distance of it in view of Lake Erie, and passing numerous cities and towns. Its new passenger service is superb. The dining cars cannot be spoken of too highly, while the sleeping and day coaches are models in their way. Quick time is made going and returning and the service is in all respects first class. What more can be asked—cheap rates, courteous attention, luxurious sleepers, magnificent day coaches, faultless road bed, unexcelled dining cars. Can anything be added to make the Nickel Plate Road more popular? It runs three trains daily in each direction. Its station in Chicago is central and easily accessible from all directions. If you are going anywhere at any time, don't let the fact slip your memory that a magnificent new passenger service has been established on the Nickel Plate Road. You who have not yet done the World's Fair, try the Nickel Plate and know what it is to enjoy the luxury of first class travel.—Clipped from Allentown, Pa. Chronicle, August, 22d.

CAPSIZED IN A SQUALL. Five Were Drowned, and the Three Survivors Suffered Terribly. BOSTON, Sept. 22.—The Spanish steamer Palestine, from Matanzas, brings three men of the schooner Windermere. The Windermere was capsized in a heavy squall Sept. 7 180 miles off Mobile. The captain, the captain's wife, first mate, steward and one seaman were drowned. The three rescued men had been clinging to the bottom of the vessel for many days when taken off by the steamer. One of the rescued men told this story:

"On Sept. 7 a squall was seen coming down upon us from the windward. The captain was called on deck, and just as he came up the gangway the squall struck the vessel and she almost immediately went over. Not more than one minute elapsed before she was bottom up. When I got to the keel I looked aft and saw James Clarke, and on the forward part of the keel was John Mattson. Cries for help were heard from the water, but we were utterly incapable to render the slightest assistance. Over the part quarter was Captain Charlton struggling to get on to one of the rail boxes, which he succeeded in doing.

"In the meantime Mr. Holmes, the mate, and Seaman August sank within a few yards of each other, the mate not uttering a word, but poor August as he went down gave an awful scream. The captain, clinging to the rail box, was now floating away astern. We had to watch him drift away from us, and continued to watch him until he disappeared.

"Two days after we saved a little rain water by rinking it out of our saturated clothing. On the next day we caught two small sea birds, which we were very glad to eat raw.

"The night of the next day was very cold and the seas were going right over us, making our suffering almost unendurable. No more vessels were seen until the 13th, when three or four passed by us, all a considerable distance away. On the 14th other vessels passed us, but again we were unable to attract their attention. It was very hot, and our lips and mouths were parched as if we had been eating glue. We could scarcely open our mouths.

"On Saturday morning at about 5 o'clock we discovered a steamer on our starboard quarter, which, thank God, came to our assistance and took us on board. The steamer was the Palestine."

IN SENATE AND HOUSE. To Vote on the Federal Elections Repeat Bill Oct. 10. WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The first hour of yesterday's session of the senate was occupied in a discussion of the resolution offered by Mr. Platt (Conn.) for the establishment of a closure rule. Mr. Platt made such a strong and clear argument to show the necessity for such a rule that Mr. Voorhees (Ind.) felt called upon to express the debt which the senate and the country owed to him for it. The junior senator from Massachusetts, Mr. Lodge, also supported the proposed rule. Amendments to Mr. Platt's resolution were offered by Mr. Hoar (Mass.) and Mr. Hill (N. Y.), and the resolution went over until today, when Mr. Teller (Colo.) will argue against it. The repeat bill was then taken up, and an argument against it made by Mr. White (Cal.) who spoke for over four hours. After he took his seat a motion was made by Mr. Voorhees to lay on the table Mr. Peffer's amendment to the bill. The motion was opposed by the minority, who resorted to filibustering. After an hour or so spent in that way Mr. Voorhees withdrew his motion, but the general discussion went on until 7:30, when the senate adjourned.

In the house the committee on rules reported a resolution, which was adopted, providing for the consideration of the federal elections bill on Sept. 23, the debate to continue until Oct. 10, when a vote will be taken.

Dakota's Terrible Prairie Fires. GURBIE, O. T., Sept. 22.—The scene of the recent terrible prairie fires on the Pawnee reservation is one of devastation. Scattered all over the prairie are partially burned wagons, wrecked pump outfits and the charred remains of human household goods, and here and there a body of a horse. For miles and miles, as far as the eye can reach, it is a black waste, and to add to the horror of it all in a number of places are found blackened and burned human trunks. Nearly a dozen of these bodies have been found, and it is feared that many have perished.

An Outraged Father's Speedy Vengeance. GRAND FORKS, N. D., Sept. 22.—Three weeks ago the 6-year-old daughter of M. F. Murphy, president of the State Bank of Reynolds, was brutally assaulted by Charles Link, 35 years old. Yesterday Link was arrested, taken to Murphy's house and fully identified. As the officer was leaving with his prisoner Mr. Murphy drew a revolver and sent a bullet through the burglar's brain. Murphy gave himself up, and is under arrest, but at liberty on his own recognizance.

The Argentine Republic Revolt. BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 22.—The situation here remains critical. Yesterday thirty conspicuous radicals were arrested. The charge against them is conspiracy to overthrow the government. Dr. Alem, leader of the radicals, has fled to escape arrest. The national troops in the long disturbed province of Corrientes have gone over to the insurgents. The Iron gunboats Bermejo and Republica, stationed in the Parana river, have joined the anti-government forces.

"Later On." Harris' theatre was well filled last night by an audience which, for three hours, laughed at the jokes and funny dialogues of a bright company. The girls of the cast are pretty and are capable singers and dancers. The "Georgie" sons of Miss Lucelles always gets an encore, and Miss Wilson's dancing never fails to please. The company's droll ways and their excellent musical entertainment cap the excellence of the form of amusements offered. There is a matinee to-day.—Washington Post. Will appear here Monday evening, Sept. 25th. 9-18-7c
