CRYING FOR BREAD.

The appeal put forward in another column in behalf of the 50,000 people in Kensington who, through no fault of their own have found themselves reduced to dire penury by the closing of the textile mills entirely avoids the language of exaggeration...

This is from a Democratic free trade organ which was a strong supporter of Grover Cleveland for nomination and election. We publish also the appeal to which this article refers. Under the operation of the McKinley bill the 50,000 people of Kensington, now on the verge of starvation, were contented, prosperous and happy.

HARD TIMES.

We take from the Philadelphia Record, the most pronounced free trade organ we know of, the following account of the condition of affairs in Kensington, a suburb of Philadelphia:

It is no longer possible to conceal the fact that there is widespread suffering among the unemployed in the mill district of Kensington. Conservative men declare that no less than 50,000 men, women and children who have earned their living in the textile mills are out of work...

To make matters worse hundreds of men have gotten back with their reots, and in many cases landlords have served notice of eviction.

In order to do all that is possible to feed the unemployed several enterprises have been started with more or less success. Bread has been distributed at several points; but, realizing that more substantial food is needed by the working people, a party of men who have grown gray in the mills have set out to open a soup kitchen...

BRITAIN'S COAL FAMINE

Another Attempt to Settle the Great Miners' Strike.

CHILDREN DYING OF STARVATION.

The Mayors of Several Cities Have Called a Conference of Owners and Workers to Prevent, if Possible, a Further Spread of the Prevailing Destitution.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Among the many manufacturing towns that have lately felt the shortage of coal caused by the great strike of the miners are Sheffield, Leeds, Bradford, Nottingham and Derby. Notwithstanding the failure thus far of the efforts made to bring about a general settlement of the dispute, the mayors of these towns decided that some step should be taken by them in the interest of the working class...

The mayors had in view, too, the terrible suffering that is now everywhere accompanying the strike. The men have been out of work for over two months, and hundreds of those who have families have sold or pawned everything of value they possessed in order to obtain food for their wives and children.

With this condition of affairs prevailing the mayors think it may be able to bring about some understanding between the masters and men that will allow of a resumption of work and a consequent output of coal that will furnish the mills, factories, etc., with a plentiful supply of fuel.

The Alleged Conspirators Again.

BIRMINGHAM, N. J., Oct. 8.—The Cumberland county courts, which convened here today, will have a long session. There are thirty criminals in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury. Prosecutor Legue will probably move the case of the state vs. Louis Arrington, Joseph Marshall and Harry Troth, officers of the Green Bottle blowers' league, for conspiracy against the Cumberland glass works.

C., Oct. 8.—In the vicinity of Moore's Cross Church, about four miles from Lake City, near the Clarendon line, George McFadden was hanged by a mob of 200 for having committed a criminal assault upon Miss Sally Towse, 16 years old. The following inscription was placed on McFadden's body: "We do not know any better way to protect our wives and daughters."

A Point for Russell Sage.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Judge Poyer has declined to strike out from the answer of Russell Sage to the action brought against him by Della Keegan for $10,000 for alleged breach of promise of marriage, allegations against her character. The judge says that the evidence may be useful to show that she was undesirable as a wife.

To Investigate Ah Hong's Plein.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

Still No Sign of Concluding the Inter-tribe Silver Debate.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The resolution proposing a postponement of action on the repeal bill and other measures until the three vacant seats from Montana, Washington and Wyoming are filled was brought up yesterday incidentally by the senator who offered it last week, Mr. Duhon of Idaho. He declined any purpose of obstructing in offering it. This revival of the subject gave Mr. Washburn (Minn.) an opportunity of declaring the proposition to be absolutely absurd, particularly in view of the fact that two of the states concerned were not silver producing, and had no more interest in the silver question than other states had, and were, in fact, represented by the senate by men who would vote for the unconditional repeal of the Sherman act.

Prize Ferdinand's Poverty.

VIENNA, Oct. 8.—Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, in great financial straits, despite the advances amounting to 5,000,000 francs made to him by the Gouligers within the last three or four years. Democrat's Legal Defeat.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 8.—Russell Sage, of New York, lost his suit against the Winona and St. Peter railway. It involves 147,000 acres of land, valued at $240,000. The suit was brought to settle the title of valuable land in southern Minnesota.

Shot in a Police Station.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—While Officers James E. Bull and John E. Storms were skylarking in the Thirty-fifth street station the former was shot just below the heart, and it is feared he will die. Storms and Officer Broderick, for the possession of whose revolver Bull and Storms were skylarking, were arrested.

Democratic County Nominations.

BIRMINGHAM, N. J., Oct. 8.—The Cumberland county Democrats nominated Charles H. Pierson for sheriff; William Edward Cox, for surrogate; Francis A. Campbell, for coroner; and William G. Hislop, for assessor in the First district. There were no nominations in the second district.

The Austrorians' Great Defeat.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—The great international cricket match between Australia and Philadelphia, which began on Friday last, ended at 9:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Philadelphia winning by sixty-eight runs and an inning. No such feat has ever before been performed by an American team in an international match in this country.

An Ungrateful Guest Murdered.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 8.—Benjamin Socola, a stranger seeking employment, stopped at the house of Ling Salvadori, a fellow countryman, and was given shelter. During the evening he became drunk, and during the absence of Salvadori the guest attempted to outrage Mrs. Salvadori, falling her to the floor with his fist. Salvadori rushed in and ordered Socola to leave, but he refused. Thereupon Salvadori shot him dead and then surrendered to the authorities.

Minister Terrell's Protest.

LOSBOS, Oct. 8.—The Constantinople correspondent of The Daily News says: "The Porte claims that no school shall be opened in the empire without a special firman, which will be granted to all existing schools, which will be held by the Christians and headed at the expense of the United States."

To Keep "Boynton" Out of Mischie.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The Boynton incident, which looked at first glance to be serious, has been ended by a decision of this government to order Boynton's release from the United States cruiser Charleston, in Rio Janeiro harbor, when it became certain that he can work no harm that might involve the United States with another country.

Opposition to Mr. Preston.
