It is a canvas of the people of Pennsylvania should be taken to-day Senator Cameron's stand against the repeal of the Sherman purchasing act would be sustained by an overwhelming majority.

The secret of the attack on Senator Cameron is jealousy. He has always waited until he knew the popular will and then has pitched in and made the fight.

For years Cameron has been denounced by some Republicans as being cold and selfish, too slow, incapable of making a speech, etc., but now they arraign him on a charge of talking too much.

The Southern statesmen now in the national saddle propose a "atch" bill of craft by consolidating Utah and Nevada, thus eliminating two Republican senators from the latter.

It is amusing to watch the antics of Democrats and their Republican allies in a vain effort to impress the country with the belief that Cameron has brought upon his own head the denunciation of the people.

HERE is the way they do things in Allentown. Some time ago her self made taxpayers raised $150,000 to induce a big wire factory to locate there. The city issued bonds to that amount and the industry came.
