

"Almost as Palatable as Milk"

This is a fact with regard to Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. The difference between the oil, in its plain state, is very apparent. In you detect no fish-oil taste. As it is a help to digestion there is no after effect except good effect. Keep in mind that Scott's Emulsion is the best promoter of flesh and strength known to science.

IN EXECUTIVE SESSION

Republican Opposition to Presidential Nominations.

THE APPOINTEES CONFIRMED.

Senator Hill Said to Have Aided the Republicans by Voice and Vote—Alleged Violation of Democratic Party Principles by the Chief Magistrate.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—With a six hours' continuous executive session the senate yesterday broke the record of the last congress, but in so doing managed to dispose of considerable business and get out of the way a number of nominations against which the Republicans have been making a determined resistance. The session was the result of an agreement, and produced some surprises.

The struggle was over certain nominations of citizens from our state selected to act as Indian agents at agencies located in other states, and the Republicans opposed their confirmation on the general ground that such nominations were a violation of the home rule plank of the Democratic party platform, but added to this was the further charge, in some cases, that the nominees were not qualified for the position. After several previous ineffectual attempts to secure action by the senate it was agreed last week that yesterday should be devoted to this particular business, and within twenty minutes after the senate convened the doors were closed and the debate over these nominations began.

Senators Davis and Washburne of Minnesota, Stewart of Nevada and Dubois of Idaho made vigorous speeches denouncing the violation of the home rule principle, while Senator Voorhees eloquently defended the president from the attack of his assailants. The surprise of the day, however, came in the reported action of Senator Hill, who is understood to have aided the Republicans, not only by his vote, but by his voice.

The Indian agents under discussion were all confirmed, but one, two or three Democrats voting with the Republicans. The men confirmed were William L. Hargrove, of Indiana, to be Indian agent at Western Shoshone agency, Nevada; Joseph Robinson, of Missouri, at Nez Perce agency, Idaho; Robert M. Allen, of Illinois, at White Earth agency, Minnesota; and James A. Smith, of Mississippi, at Yankton, S. D.

Perhaps the most bitter fight was made against Isaac J. Wootten, of Delaware, nominated to be agent at the Nevada agency. Senator Higgins led the opposition against Wootten while Senator Gray was equally as earnest in his behalf. There appeared to be a considerable element of antagonism to this nominee within the ranks of his own party and his case was laid over without final action.

The same opposition manifested itself against the confirmation of Thomas Smith, of Virginia, nominated to be chief justice of New Mexico, but after a discussion of more than half an hour the vote was taken, resulting in his confirmation.

It is understood that an effort was made to have the favorable report on the nomination of R. E. Preston to be director of the mint taken up for action, but Mr. Stewart and other silver senators took such a determined stand against it that it went over, and will be called up probably at the next executive session. Quite a number of minor nominations were disposed of.

No Bid for the G. A. R. Meeting.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Oct. 6.—The convention of G. A. R. delegates held after the parade here yesterday was unable to fix a place for the next meeting. The places where all of the sixty delegates at the convention came from have had residences at recently that no bid was made from them. Milton, Williamsport, Pottsville, Reading and Easton were suggested, but no delegates from those towns were on hand to sanction any action that might be taken. Captain Levi Schumaker and A. F. Bernhart, chairman and secretary, were finally selected as a committee with power to select and choose the next place of meeting.

A Farmer's Timely Warning.

LAFORT, Ind., Oct. 6.—The Chicago and West Michigan railroad bridge between this city and New Buffalo collapsed, entailing a heavy loss and stopping all traffic. The crash of timbers aroused a farmer, who resides near the bridge, mounting a horse and clad only in his night clothes he dashed madly down the track to display the danger signal for the passenger train about due. His timely warning was none too soon, for fifteen minutes later a score of more lives would have been sacrificed in a frightful wreck.

Tried to Cremate His Wife.

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 6.—Olive Server, a drug clerk, who has been ill for some time, returned to his home here after several days' absence to get notice of the household effects to pawn. His wife says she manifested and he applied a lighted match to her dress, her hands and arms being severely burned before she extinguished the flames. Server, who was arrested, says his wife's dress accidentally caught fire.

Dedicating a Gettysburg Monument.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Oct. 6.—The Twenty-first Pennsylvania cavalry yesterday dedicated its monument on the Gettysburg pike, where the first man was killed in the great battle. Hon. Thad Malton, of Chambersburg, delivered the oration, and addresses were made by Major Robert Bell, of Ironville; Captain William J. Hall, of Altoona, and Captain William H. Boyd, of Reading.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 6.—Jack Curry, driver of Aliz, has written the Cumberland Park club, asking that they hang up a purse for Aliz and Directum. He says he will trot Aliz against Nancy Hank, Belle Vera, Arion and Directum, or will go against either of them singly.

Brooklyn's Population.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 6.—Dr. John S. Young, of the Brooklyn bureau of vital statistics, has completed his estimate of the population of the city. It is within 1,000 of one million inhabitants.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Nominations of Van Alen and Preston Reported Favorably.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The senate devoted six hours to executive business yesterday, spending but fifteen minutes in open session. Mr. Hill (N. Y.) gave notice that he would offer an amendment to the rules, providing that a paired senator, on you and may vote, shall be entered on the journal and counted as present for the purpose of constituting a quorum. The nomination of Mr. J. J. Van Alen, to be ambassador to Italy, and of Mr. R. E. Preston, to be director of the mint, were favorably reported.

Interest in the debate on the federal election bill in the house does not increase, and empty benches on both sides of the chamber are the rule and not the exception. At an hour yesterday were there more than 100 members present. The speeches were made by Mr. Murray (S. C.) and Mr. Hatcher (S. Va.) in the negative, and by Mr. Russell (Ga.) and Mr. Money (Miss.) in the affirmative. The fact having become known that the Democrats would hold a caucus to discuss the propriety of passing the bill before the senate had agreed to the Wilson-Voorhees bill many have had something to do with the listlessness manifested. When the house adjourned there were not more than twenty members in attendance. Prior to the consideration of the election bill some routine business was transacted.

Rehearsal on His Wedding Day.

MR. VERNON, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Ruth Byrd McMillan, the pretty 19-year-old daughter of George McMillan, a wealthy contractor at Pelhamville, was married Wednesday night to Isaac Croft, a widower of this city. The wedding was a private affair Monday night, but the bridegroom failed to appear. He says that he went to New York on that day, made some purchases, and then took a car to go to the railroad station. He claims that two men who followed him in the cab chloroformed and then robbed him of $500 and some jewelry. When he came to his senses he was in Troy. A physician verified his statement as to being chloroformed, and his story is generally credited.

Belgian Agents Bombarding Rio.

BRITON AVIS, Oct. 6.—Telegrams received here from Rio Janeiro confirm the report that Admiral Mello is again bombarding the city. All business places in the city are closed. The damage done so far is trifling. Since President Vilela has mounted new guns, and made preparations to return the fire of the rebel vessels, the commanders of the foreign men-of-war are undecided as to whether or not they will be justified in stopping the bombardment, and are awaiting more precise instructions from their respective governments.

The Great Loss of Life Confirmed.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 6.—With the information that has reached the city today from Grand Isle, Cheniere and Camanada, from the Bayou Cocou country and the country adjacent thereto, and from that section lying on this side of the river from the river mouth to the quarantine station, from the lake coast and elsewhere, it is now estimated that between 1,100 and 1,400 lives were lost, and damage to the extent of $1,000,000 has been done to property by the late storm.

The statement is reiterated that there are more cases of yellow fever in Brunswick than appears in the official report. A careful investigation by practicing physicians among Brunswick's colored population will bring to light from fifty to seventy-five cases of yellow fever which are now listed as malarial.

The Administration Determined.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Persons who are hazy as to the president and Secretary Carter's attitude on the subject of the repeal of the silver purchasing clause of the Sherman bill. Every day seems to add to the confidence of Senator Voorhees and his friends that the repeal bill will pass the senate, be accepted by the house and approved by the president before the end of the month.

James, who got himself into notoriety by smashing liquor exhibits at the World's fair, was brought up in the Washington police court yesterday, charged with throwing a brick through a 2000 plate glass window and destroying about $150 worth of stock in a liquor establishment on Seventh street. PALLAS EXECUTED.

The Barcelona Bomb Thrower Pays the Penalty.

HE MET HIS DEATH DEFIANTLY.

Died Denying His Allegiance to the Cause of Anarchy, and Refused the Kind Offices of the Priests Who Were with Him in His Last Hours.

BARCELONA, Oct. 6.—The anarchist Pallas, who attempted to kill Captain General De Campos with a dynamite bomb, and who succeeded in killing a civilian and seriously wounding several others, was executed at 10 o'clock this forenoon by shooting, standing with his back to the firing squad. He met death defiantly, and to the end declared his devotion to anarchy.

Yesterday Pallas was taken before the military judge escorted by a strong guard. He looked pale, yet had a firm bearing. By the judge's order the prisoner knelt while the death sentence was read. Pallas listened quietly, stroking his mustache. On rising the judge asked him to sign the paper. To this Pallas replied: "What sign my death sentence? I would rather sign the death sentence of the public prosecutor." The judge remonstrated with Pallas who answered that the law of retaliation was "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth."

The prisoner then signed the paper with a firm hand. While crossing the castle court on his way to the chapel in which he met the last twenty-four hours of his life, the prisoner repeatedly shouted "Long live anarchy." The commander of the court in vain ordered him to be silent. Pallas entered the chapel singing an anarchist hymn, and he continued singing it for a long time, shouting at the top of his voice, closing words of each stanza: "Kill kill!"

The chapel had been converted into an oratory, in which masses were continually said by the priests commissioned to minister to Pallas during his last hours. There were two desists among the attendants of the doomed man. When the priests exhorted Pallas to confess his sins and receive the last sacrament he told them that he would die an atheist, adding: "I have renounced every former spiritual inclination."

Before going to the chapel in which he spent his last two hours Pallas was allowed to see his wife and children. He kissed and wept over his infant son, exhorted the members of the family to continue in the path of anarchy, and gave them the only money in his possession—one peseta and a few coppers.

The statement is reiterated that there are more cases of yellow fever in Brunswick than appears in the official report.
