

AT MEAL-TIMES

Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Butter, Eggs, Spices and tannable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the price of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy.

The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at

While returning from church last Tuesday, Miss Katie Mahoney lost her gold watch and chain and has not yet recovered it.

T. R. Condran, manager of the Gilberton base ball club, would like to have a game with Manager O'Neill's "Stars" of Lost Creek. Tom is confident that his club could gain a victory.

The small boys of town have a bad practice of getting on coal trains every evening. Parents should be on the watch and punish their children before they lose them.

Joe Earley, our popular tea agent, transacted business at Locust Gap yesterday.

The paymaster would be a welcome visitor in town just now.

JENNESS-MILLER'S SISTER.

The Famous Lecturer to Women Sets Them an Example.

"A beautiful woman in a beautiful gown" is the way they describe her.

The Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix finds fault with women, says the New York Sun, "for thinking more about their personal charms than about their souls, but Miss Jennie Miller feels it her duty to instruct them as to the best use of those charms in the attainment of a correct and elegant carriage, and by the proper 'artistic care of the body.' In her view the soul expresses itself through the body, and action goes on between the two, with the result that physical grace has a moral value."

As Mrs. Jenness-Miller is known the world over for her ideas on dress reform, so her sister, Miss Jennie Miller, whose likeness is given above, is celebrated for her crusade for physical culture among the gentler sex.

Her system of physical training is attracting a great deal of attention. "She is herself a society girl, and yet finds time," says the Sun, "to practice her system, and in the midst of her multitudinous duties is never tired, never sick, doesn't know where her nerves are, and is a stranger to headaches." The reason is apparent in a letter written July 16, 1893, from Washington, D. C.

"I was induced," writes Miss Jennie, "to try Paine's celery compound at a time when I was suffering from over work and the effect of an accident. I began immediately to realize tonic and blood-nourishing effects. I take pleasure in saying that, although opposed to medicine in general, I really consider this an excellent preparation."

"I have not been able to take one day's rest since I returned from my long, hard western trip. I am sure were it not for Paine's celery compound, which has a tonic effect, I should not be able to keep up and work hard."

"I recommended Paine's celery compound to a friend who dined with us yesterday, and on leaving here she went and bought a bottle. I shall do all I can for it, for I believe in it."

So the society woman, whose health and grace are famous the country over, and who is in a position to command the best medical advice, finds in Paine's celery compound the same relief from the effects of overwork and illness that the poorer, harder working woman finds.

And this great remedy that makes people well is equally within the reach of all. It is for sale in every respectable drug store in the country, and is in greater demand to day than any remedy in the world.

It is the one true specific for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system, probably the most remarkable remedy that the scientific research of this country has produced.

Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college, first prescribed what is now known the world over as Paine's celery compound, a positive cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, and kidney troubles. For the latter Paine's celery compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

Washington correspondents have recently given it a great deal of attention since the cures effected in that city.

The medical journals of the country have given more space in the last few years to the many remarkable cases where the use of Paine's celery compound has made people well than to any other one subject. Try it and be better.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

Mr. Blackman's Amendment to the Sherman Silver Purchase Law.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Blackman, of Kentucky, offered an amendment to the silver purchase repeal bill. It adopts the bill as it passed the house, strikes out the Voorhees declaration favoring bimetalism and adds to the house bill a provision for the free coinage of silver of American production—the difference between the metal price and the silver purchase price being paid by the treasury.

The debate on the silver purchase repeal bill was carried on by Messrs. Call, Butler and Teller.

Not even the earnest manner of Mr. Cummings, of New York, could awaken the house yesterday from the lethargy into which it seems to have fallen. There was no increase in the attendance, and the various speakers, Messrs. Warner, H. C. Brooks, Rye, English, Baker, Tawney, Talbot and Gassenhauer, received very little attention.

FOREIGN SHIPS AT RIO.

Eleven European vessels in the harbor of the Brazilian City.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—In response to a telegram from the navy department Captain Ticking, commanding the United States steamer Charleston, in the harbor of Rio Janeiro, cables that there are eleven European warships in Brazilian waters.

England is represented in the harbor of Rio by the Sirius, the Racer and the Eagle; Italy by the Bausan, the Dogali (both of which took part in the Columbus naval review) and the Venerio; Germany by the Alexandrina and the Alconet; France by the Archimede (which also took part in the Columbus naval display) and Portugal by the Mindello.

Naval officers on duty at Washington are congratulating themselves that they are not attached to any of the United States vessels assigned to duty in Brazilian waters, but because of reports received that the officers of the Charleston are losing money through the high prices asked for provisions at Rio.

Gilman, of the Johns Hopkins university, to replace ex-President Hayes; George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, to replace Hon. A. J. Drew; Charles E. Tamm, of New Orleans, to replace Senator B. L. Gibson. Hon. John R. Pierpont Morgan and Dr. Samuel A. Green were unanimously re-elected to the positions of treasurer and secretary respectively.

THE OPPOSING TICKETS.

The Battle for Supremacy in the Empire State.

JOHN PALMER TO OPPOSE MEYER.

CHANCELLOR, N. Y., Oct. 7.—The Republican state convention, and Miss Little Devereaux Blake Talks to the Democrats, the latter lauding Tammany.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 7.—The Republican state convention was called to order shortly after noon yesterday. Patrick W. Cullinan was chosen temporary chairman, and made a lengthy speech of acceptance. He concluded the Republican party and scored Judge Maynard, the Democratic candidate for court of appeals, for his connection with what the speaker called the theft of the last legislature by the Democracy. At the conclusion of Mr. Cullinan's speech and the appointment of the usual committees the convention took a recess until 3:30.

When the convention resumed a motion was adopted that Mr. Chauncey M. Depew be invited to address the convention. Mr. Depew carried the convention by storm. In his speech he said it took the convention twenty years to make up their minds that they wanted a change, and it will take them about a year to decide to change back.

At the conclusion of Mr. Depew's remarks the report of the committee on credentials was presented and adopted. The report of the committee on organization, nominating Hon. Frank Brundage, of Buffalo, for permanent chairman, and a number of well known gentlemen for honorary vice presidents and secretaries, was then made and also adopted.

Mr. Brundage on taking the chair addressed the convention at some length. He reviewed the record of the Republican party, and compared it with what the Democrats had done and were doing. He believed that the sentiment of the people was such that they could redeem the state and elect an honest legislature, which would give to the people a clean government.

Nominations were next declared in order for the office of judge of the court of appeals. The names of Judge William Rumsay, of Bath; Edward T. Bartlett, of New York; and John S. Smith, of New York, were presented. Theodore C. Hancock, of Syracuse; state engineer and surveyor, Campbell W. Adams, of Utica; judge of court of appeals, Edward T. Bartlett, of New York.

After the members of the new state committee had been named the convention adjourned sine die.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Oct. 7.—When Chairman Lockwood called the Democratic state convention to order yesterday the report of the committee on credentials and permanent organization was read and adopted. Mr. Lockwood was retained as permanent chairman of the convention.

Then Chairman Ralnes, of the resolutions committee, read the platform. It calls attention to the benefits accruing to the state from Democratic rule, favors liberal pensions, applauds the administration of Governor Flower, recommends the further extension of woman suffrage, and has this to say of Cleveland's administration:

"We congratulate President Cleveland and the country upon the auspicious beginning of his administration, and pledge him our earnest support in all his efforts to secure the enactment of Democratic measures and the carrying out of Democratic policies. We especially approve his patriotic action in convening congress in extraordinary session for the purpose of ridding the country of the reckless financial legislation enacted by the Republican congress in 1890, against the unanimous vote of the Democratic members."

The plank recommending further extension of the right of suffrage to women was vigorously applauded, as was also the demand for the speedy repeal of the Sherman law. The convention broke into enthusiastic cheers at the mention of President Cleveland's name. Governor Flower's name, however, was cheered longer than the president's.

Miss Little Devereaux Blake was then granted permission to address the convention. She created a furore of applause, and she was cheered for a full minute when she said woman suffragists had special confidence in Tammany Hall.

The naming of candidates was then declared in order, and the following ticket was placed in nomination: For secretary of state, Cord Meyer; controller, Frank Campbell; state treasurer, Hugh Duffy; attorney general, Simon W. Rosendale; state engineer, Martin F. Sobenick; judge of the court of appeals, Isaac H. Maynard; delegate at large to the constitutional convention, General Henry W. Bloom.

The convention then adjourned sine die with cheers for the nominees.

The new Democratic state committee met at the Adelphi hotel after the convention adjourned and organized. Senator Edward Murphy, Jr., was re-elected chairman.

Fears for the Pope's Safety.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Tablet, the most influential Roman Catholic weekly in Great Britain, says: "Events now transpiring in Italy render the pope's position one of extreme and imminent danger. The position of Italy is too insecure and unstable to make her a safe guardian of the venerable person of the pope or of the monuments which are the sacred heritage of the Catholic world."

WEEKS MAY ESCAPE.

Nothing Accomplished Toward Securing the Defaulter's Extradition.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Yesterday a cable message came from Mr. Baker, the United States minister to Nicaragua and Costa Rica, reporting that nothing definite has yet been accomplished toward securing the transportation of Francis H. Weeks, the New York defaulter, to this country. The delay over the granting of extradition papers is causing some uneasiness in the department, for the United States has no extradition treaty with Costa Rica, and can depend only on the friendly attitude of the president of that country towards the United States.

About the middle of last month the Costa Rican president issued a decree granting amnesty to all offenders in his province with the exception of Weeks, and he gave the United States forty days in which to secure the extradition of the defaulter. This limit will expire in little more than a fortnight, and if extradition papers are not granted in that time Weeks will be free from arrest. It is believed that the defaulter has instituted legal proceedings in the hope of delaying action on his case within the forty days limit.

New York, Oct. 7.—R. G. Welling, assignee of the absconding lawyer, yesterday presented to the creditors a detailed statement of Mr. Weeks' assets. It shows that the actual value of the assets are about $200,000. The liabilities have been estimated at $1,300,000.

Colonel Rodgers Resigns.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 7.—The trouble growing out of the candidacy of Colonel John I. Rodgers, judge advocate of the National Guard, for the position of naval officer at Philadelphia, brought about the resignation of Colonel Rodgers yesterday. The Philadelphia board of directors of the National Guard should not be used to influence parties in the hope of securing a nomination for Colonel Rodgers forwarding to the governor his resignation.

Australians Playing for Revenge.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—The second great international match between Philadelphia and Australia began yesterday on the grounds of the Germantown Cricket club. The Philadelphia eleven were retired in their first innings for only 119 runs, and when darkness and rain combined to stop the game for the day the Australians had compiled 76 for a loss of only two wickets. Their prospect of a big score is promising.

A Youthful Highwayman.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—Charles Voeringer, 11 years old, was arrested yesterday for attempted highway robbery and assault on Mary McElough, 10 years old. Mary had been sent to change a $5 bill when Voeringer attempted to wrest it from her. She successfully resisted the boy's efforts, but on arriving home went into hysterics, and has since been at the point of death.
