

A Weak Digestion

strange as it may seem, is caused from a lack of that which is never exactly digested—fat. The greatest fact in connection with appears at this point—it is partly digested fat—and the most weakened digestion is quickly strengthened by it.

The only possible help in Consumption is the arrest of waste and renewal of new, healthy tissue. Scott's Emulsion has done wonders in Consumption just this way.

LEEDS THE VICTOR.

The Atlantic City Pugilist Defeats Billy Ernst.

KNOCKED OUT IN EIGHT ROUNDS.

The Brooklynite Knocked Senseless by a Well Directed Blow, and is Unable to Respond to the Call of Time—The Sullivan-Kammer Fight a Draw.

CONY ISLAND, Oct. 10.—A crowd of about 2,500 visited the Cony Island Athletic club last night to witness the contests between Horace Leeds, of Atlantic City, and Billy Ernst, of Brooklyn, and Sullivan and Charlie Kammer. The Sullivan-Kammer fight was for a purse of $1,000, and was vigorously contested throughout. When, at the end of the tenth round, referee P. J. Donohue decided the battle a draw there was vigorous hissing, the crowd seeming to think Kammer should have got the decision.

Then came the battle of the night, the Leeds-Ernst fight. It was for a purse of $2,500, with $500 to the loser, and Ernst was a decided favorite with the left hand.

Honors were about even up to the sixth round, when, just before the call of time, Leeds landed both hands on Ernst's chin, scoring a clean knock out.

In the seventh round Ernst came up strong, notwithstanding the previous round. Leeds started in with the left hand and Ernst planted his left in the wind. Fast and furious fighting followed, of which Ernst had all the worst. It was only the clever ducking of Ernst that saved him from being knocked out.

In the eighth round, after some very lively slugging, Leeds suddenly swung his right, catching Ernst on the jaw, staggering him. Leeds' left shot out immediately as quick as a shot, landing on the other side of Ernst's head and knocking him out completely.

It was fully five minutes before Ernst could be taken from the ring. Leeds was greeted with tremendous applause, and in the opinion of many had an easy victory.

Fatally Shot by a Worthless Husband.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—John T. Kelly, a shoe laster, 35 years old, shot and fatally wounded his wife Maggie, about ten years younger, in the presence of a number of onlookers, at Twelfth and Race streets, at 11 o'clock last night. The shooting is the culmination of several years of unhappy married life due to the husband's drinking habits and his abuse of his wife. Mrs. Kelly has refused for over a year to live with her husband, but a partial reconciliation had been effected, and the woman was shot down without a moment's warning while Kelly was escorting her to a street car. Kelly was arrested.

A Drunkard's Hazardous Freak.

ATLANTA, Oct. 10.—A drunken painter named Tucker gave a war dance on the narrow platform at the top of a telephone pole ninety feet above the ground yesterday afternoon. He carried up a flask of whiskey and a can of green paint. With the paint he colored himself green from belt to crown. He assaulted a policeman who went to his rescue, and they had a thrilling fight. Tucker tried to throw the policeman off, but the latter finally got in a blow with his nippers on Tucker's head, knocking him senseless. Tucker was then let down with a rope and taken to the police station.

Pennsylvania W. C. T. U. Officers.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 10.—The state W. C. T. U. elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Anna M. Hammer, of Philadelphia; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Rebecca B. Chambers, of West Grove; recording secretary, Mrs. Olive Pond Aimes, of Philadelphia; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Woods, of Huntingdon; vice president-at-large, Mrs. Mary H. Jones, of Philadelphia.

The Case of Defaulter Weeks.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Mr. Baker, United States minister to Costa Rica, telegraphs that that government is willing to turn over Francis H. Weeks, the New York defaulter. They desire in return, however, either reciprocity in extraditing criminals or a formal extradition treaty, and this may prevent Weeks' surrender to United States authorities.

Death at a Grade Crossing.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 10.—James S. Ferguson, aged 32 years, of this city, and Miss Annie Jacobus, aged 26 years, of Franklin Park, were killed at 8:30 last night at a grade crossing in Franklin Park by being struck by a Pennsylvania railroad train. Ferguson, who was a liverman, was taking Miss Jacobus from a train to her home.

Bank Robbers Captured.

WATPACA, Wis., Oct. 10.—The three men who robbed the bank at Halstead, Minn., on Sept. 25 last have been found near this city. Two were captured, the third escaped, and Sheriff Williams is still after him. Cashier Eckorn is here and has positively identified one of the men. Officers are confident that they will bring in the third.

An Alabama Lynching.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 10.—In Henry county John Davis, colored, entered the bedroom of a Miss Farmer and attempted a assault her. The woman screamed and the negro fled. A posse surrounded the house, and when he came out riddled him with bullets.

Accepted the Reduction.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 10.—The employees of the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern railway have accepted the 10 per cent. reduction in wages, and the men who went out when the reduction went into effect, Oct. 1, have returned to work.

Arrested for Failing to Die.

SCHLANTON, Pa., Oct. 10.—James Donohue, of Fifth avenue, this city, was arrested here yesterday for trying to drown himself in the Lackawanna river. He was rescued with difficulty. This was his tenth attempt upon his life.

A Memorial to Edwin Booth.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 10.—It is reported that Mrs. Grossman, daughter of the late Edwin Booth, as a memorial to her father, will place a mural tablet in Berkeley Memorial chapel, Middletown.

A colored state fair.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 10.—The second annual state fair of the colored people was opened at Chestnut street hall last night. It will continue one week. There are exhibits from all parts of the state.

The Weather.

Fair, slightly cooler; westerly winds, becoming variable and shifting to easterly.

are all intimately connected—practically inseparable. Though the fact is often ignored, it is nevertheless true that a good complexion is an impossibility without good digestion, which in turn depends on good food.

There is no more common cause of indigestion than food. Let the right house-keeper use Kept His Wife in a Trunk.

The authorities of the village of Nombour, in France, were advised recently by an anonymous letter that a peasant named Lebuby was "sequestered" his wife. The peasants presented themselves at Lebuby's house and asked to see his wife. This request, being a threat, they proceeded to search the place from the cellar to the granary, and having found no trace of the woman were about to withdraw when one of them discovered a large trunk and asked for the key. On the key being opened the figure of Mme. Lebuby suddenly jumped up like a jack in the box, and she explained to the peasants that her husband would not allow her to go out and that whenever he left the house he left her locked up in the box, where she could scarcely breathe. Lebuby was at once arrested and will be tried for "amateur imprisonment."

A Narrow Escape!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will be read with interest. For a long time I had a terrible pain in my heart, which increased almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach. I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sleep a room without sitting down and resting. But, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure I am all right and I live another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had tried different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit. I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and on the first day I felt a new sensation. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 105. I feel as if a splendid appetite had been given me, and I have been able to eat and sleep. I have never had any other medicine since I received from physicians. —Mrs. Harry Stutz, Fortville, Pa.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medicine Co., Elkhart, Ind., at retail price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

A MONSTROUS THROG.

Remarkable Gathering on Chicago Day at the Big Fair.

FULLY SEVEN HUNDRED THOUSAND

Passed Through the Gates and the Carriageways—The Record of the Paris Exposition Eclipsed by Hundreds of Thousands—Such a Crowd Never Seen Before.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Seven hundred thousand people—doubtless the greatest crowd that ever congregated—visited the World's fair yesterday, breaking the greatest one-day record at Paris by an overwhelming majority, completely smothering the "big day" of any other exposition ever held, and establishing a mark which, it is safe to predict, the present generation will never see attained.

When the morning sun, looking through a light mist, peeped over the white pergolas at 10 o'clock many people were standing in the different entrances to the grounds, and by the time the gates opened (9:00) fully 1,000 people less than the previous day were in the grounds. From that hour until late in the afternoon there was a constant jam at every gate. The department of admission had an extra force on duty, and every turnstile was kept registering at its highest speed. Yet these facilities were inadequate, and at 1 o'clock Superintendent Tucker ordered every wagon gate opened, and stationed a corps of men at each to take tickets, relieving the pressure from without to a marked degree.

About 4 o'clock, when it was seen that the crowds had diminished sufficiently to permit of their successful handling by the regular entrances, the wagon gates were closed after 500,000 people had been admitted. To this vast army 181,000 were added in the next three hours. The glorious October weather and the grandness of Chicago day at the fair kept the crowds coming all afternoon and evening. A conservative estimate places the attendance for the day and night at 700,000. The official figures will not be given out before this afternoon, as the great mass of tickets nearly swamped the department of admissions.

Previous to this ever memorable day the palm for large attendance rested with Independence day, July 4, when the attendance was 283,273. Other days notable for great crowds are: Illinois day, 242,251; Transportation day, 231,222; Polish day (last Saturday), 222,178; Knights of Honor day, 215,663; Pennsylvania day, 203,400; Railroad day, 202,310. The total number of paid admissions since the opening of the fair is 10,402,070. The greatest day at Paris was 397,150, and at Philadelphia 217,025.

During the afternoon there was a reunion of states, in which thousands of boys and girls took part, but the crowning glory of Anniversary Day was the procession of floats which entered the grounds at dark. It first was an impressive Chicago receiving all the nations of the earth. Then came the genius of music, followed by Chicago and its typical motto "I will," guided by Liberty. The most magnificent float in the entire procession was illustrative of Columbus at the court of Isabella. The members of the float were assumed by the members of the Columbian club of Chicago. The last float in the procession was "Electricity, the genius of electricity," drawn by eight horses. It was represented by enormous dragons
