Setley Released.

Pitcher Setley, who has been a member of the home base ball team for the greater part of this season, was to-day notified of his release by Manager Bridgman and at the same time notified to turn over his uniform. Setley called at the HERALD office this afternoon and gave the first information of his release to the press. He says he will not surrender the uniform until he receives two days pay he claims is due him.

No Change Yet.

No change in the superintendency of the Schuykill Traction Company has taken place. E. W. Ash, who was to have taken the position yesterday, as successor to R. EMMA GOLDMAN CONVICTED.

The New York Anarchist Must Suffer for Incendiary Utterances.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The jury in the trial of Emma Goldman returned a verdict of guilty last evening. When the jury returned Miss Goldman's face was unusually pale, and her lips twitched nervously. She smiled half contemptuously when she heard the verdict, and Attorney Hall immediately arose. At his request the prisoner was remanded until Monday and a motion for a motion for a new trial was given.

The offense for which she was convicted was attempting to incite to riot. She may be sent to the penitentiary for a term not exceeding one year or may be let off with a fine.

He Worked the Alleged Heirs.

READING, Pa., Oct. 10.—Officers arrived here last night having in custody A. J. Dress, of Phillipsburg, Centre county, whom they arrested at that place on a charge of false pretence in receiving about $2,000 from the alleged heirs to the estate of John George Spang, who died over sixty years ago, and is supposed to have left in Germany an estate which is now worth anywhere from $40,000,000 to $100,000,000. In default of bail Dress was committed. He sent the Spang heirs what has since been proved a forged copy of the will of John George Spang. There is no Spang estate awaiting American heirs in Germany. Several hundred people of the Spang family have been deluded, and Dress has made several trips to Europe at their expense.

An Old Man's Murderous Jealousy.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 10.—At Hazelton, a suburb of this city, shortly after midnight, James Campbell, aged 69, killed his wife with a revolver, and attempted to murder Patrick Finney, aged 64, firing two bullets into his head and abdomen. The wife died almost instantly and Finney was taken to the hospital in a dying condition. Helices at New Bedford, Pa., and was visiting the Campbell family. Jealousy, without any cause, and the use of liquor are the reasons assigned for the double murder.

THE DEVIL A ROOSTER.

How well I remember last fall at the rally I marched in line with the workin' min surs, and felt just as proud as a king at behouidin' the fall of the rich and the rise of the poor. Sure that's what they told me was meant by the victory.

And so wonder I was elated at that; As I stepped to the music just like an old ager, An' wore a big rooster on the top o' me hat.

I invited the boss with his riches and comforts; No share of the profits I'd git if actin' I voted to kape up the tariff that only Protected the bosses and burdened the min; I'm sure I'll git even now wid ya, my honey, I'll vote just as sure as my name is Pat. For Grover, and thin, at the ratification, I'll wear a big rooster on top o' me hat.

I lone it, bad luck to the day and the hour; 'O like to recall that same vote if I could, And once again hear the old stame whistle soundin' That called me to work when the times they were good.

The boss he looks worried, the foreman is sour, The old mill's deserted and gloomy at that, And all I have left for my share of the glory Is the old battered rooster I wore on my hat.

I mustered up courage to speak to the foreman And ask him how long we'd be idle. You see, The mill had been closed for a fortnight, an' I loatin'.

Wid not a cent comin' was tellin' on me, He see to me: "Pat, you an' I will both suffer; Our business is crippled, our credit is flat; But if you get hungry, yer know," he said atly, "Yez can ate the old rooster yer wore on your hat."

So there's the whole story and none can deny it, The truth must be told though the heavens should fall, We made a mistake in defaultin' the party That gave us protection, good money and all, Is four years from now yer may tait till you're apachless, An' arstly until you're gray as a rat, But if that same party again is triumphant, The devil a rooster yer'll see on my hat.

Experience of an Ex-Champion.

Athletes and men who take ordinary outdoor exercise such as walking, running, bicycle riding, jumping, swimming, tennis, etc., are often the subjects of acute troubles. The experience of an ex-champion walker will be of interest to all who are afflicted. Harry Brooks writes:

"No. 324 East 19th St., New York, Apr. 2, '86. Numerous statements relative to the merits of different plasters having been brought to my attention, I take this opportunity to state that I have used Alcock's Porous Plaster for over 20 years and prefer them to any other kind. I would furthermore state that I was very sick with catarrh of the kidneys, and attribute my recovery entirely to Alcock's Porous Plaster."

Have you tried McElhenney's Fried oysters?

Have Ball Notes.

EDITOR HERALD:—The Hayseeders, of Kingstown, crossed bats with the Hopville team and were defeated by a score of 7 to 0 on the latter's grounds. Had the mapire given the Hayseeders a half square deal they would have won with hands down. The game was called at the fifth inning on account of darkness. James Applegate pitched for the Hayseeders and J. M. Fry caught. The Hopville battery was Joseph McGrady, pitcher; Frank Brown catcher, Applegate struck out 11 and McGrady 5. Nuremberg, Oct. 5, 1893.

Setley has again shown himself an excellent all round player.

He pitched for Ashland at Mahanoy City on Saturday and struck out fourteen of the "rioters." They only had four hits of his delivery. Setley's field work at the Trotting park was also excellent. It is stated upon authority of one of the Pottsville players that if the home management will fix a date for a game at Shenandoah for the benefit of Fisher Bradley the Pottsvillians will volunteer to play the Shenandoahs.

Betts has gone to Easton and will return Wednesday night.

The requirement of the State League players has made the Pottsvillians pretty near a match for the home team. The Jonesville base ball club has disbanded and gone into the foot ball arena with Keener, the pitcher, as captain.

Ward's knowledge of base ball rules, together with his known ability as a player, makes him very popular wherever he plays.

The Pottsville players, with the exception of Baby Potts, are a gentlemanly aggregation. The exception, Mr. Baby Potts, makes himself very obnoxious to the lovers of good ball by his incessant kicking. The change from Cavanagh to Potts, so far as ball playing is concerned, was not a very wise move on the part of the Pottsville management. Perhaps the latter's great ability lies in his incessant kicking and baby acts on the diamond.

Consistency is a stranger in the newspaper offices of the county seat. Patronizing the game and pleading for the sanctity of the Sabbath in the same breath is on a parallel effusions of those papers.

Manager Reber, of Pottsville, should care Potts and exhibit him at the World's Fair as the greatest "baby" player of the age.

The average base ball reporter of the county seat, the town of "culture and morality," know as little about the fine points of the game as they do of morality. Will they kindly state wherein Shenandoah made three errors in the last game?

The bookings of the home club for this week are as follows: Thursday, at Pottsville; Friday and Saturday, at Williamsport. The next big game at the Trotting park will be played by the home team and the Demorets, of Williamsport.

MANY people had been looking forward to its coming and made themselves happy by visiting one of the most elaborate displays of Dry Goods, Coats, Capes and Millinery ever exhibited in the county. No labor had been spared in making each department speak for itself. Style, quality and price was back of them all and pushed them right to the front. Many varieties of all the newest fabrics woven were found at our Dress Goods Department and many patrons were pleased to find just what they had read was going to be the style this fall and winter, and had been wanting it so badly. Therefore many beautiful patterns were swept from our counters, but new goods are supplied daily.

Our Coat Room

Was and is a very interesting place to those in need of a fall or winter wrap. It is impossible to describe all the beautiful Capes, Coats, etc. There are so many different styles, qualities, etc., that your best plan is to come and see them.

But remember we have hats untrimmed and a work-room full of busy workers to trim you a hat just as you wish, should you not find any to meet your approbation. We mean to please our patrons regardless of any trouble, so if you give us your careful, as well as critical, attention, you will find us to be just as we say, giving an honest value for every dollar spent with us.
