REPUBLICAN NOMINEE.

HON. D. NEWLIN FELL Republican Candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court.

Hon, David Newtin Fell, of Philadelphia, the candidate of the Republis can party for Judge of the Sopreme Court of Pennsylvania, was born No vemter 4th, 1840, In Buckingham Bucks county, Pennsylvania, where his ancestors settled in 1704. He belongs to the sixth generation of the that work be resumed at the old wages family, members of which still live and that an endeavor be made afterward family, members of which still live there. He was educated under the direction of his father, Joseph Fell, who was a distinguished teacher and superintendent of the schools of the county, and who, for fifty years, was actively connected with and did much to advance the educational interests of the state. It was with pardonable pride and jealous care that he assisted and guided his son in laying the foundation for and building up a broad and deep mental and moral education. Upon the completion of his studies. Judge Fell was graduated at the State Normal School, at Millersville, Pennsylvania, in the class of '62

At that time the Union armies were suffering terrible losses in the Peninsula and other disastrous camp dens, and the clouds which so often hung dark and threatening during those three years of awful strife were lowering from day to day. The holiday aspect of the war had long since passed. The many defeats which had constitute the holiday area. overtaken the Union arms gave fair warning to those about to enlist that the war was a storn and awful reality. As soldiers they would be called upon trandors bardship and suffer rooms. tion in all its forms and possibly meet death face to face. Their mission was not merely to march gally to and fro, out of the reach of harm, and returning after a short enlistment, to receive the praise and honors showered upon some of these who had sprung to their country's defense.

It was at this time, with the wounded constantly returning, and with mourning on every side for these who would return no more, that Judge Fell, in the strength of his early manhood, started for the front. With a full realization of the brilliant prospection, which has sequently pects of success which his education and talents would secure for him at home, he enlisted in Company E, 122d Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. This command was recruited largely from students of the State Normai School. The sterling qualities of mind and heart which have since been Lieutemant of the company. Four days after being mustered hoto service this community was at the front and assigned to the 3d Brigada, 3d Division, ad Corpe, then under commend of General Stoneman, and later commander by General Sickles. The most discisters campaign in which the regiment book part was that of Chancelloreville, where 155 of its galiant men went down on the field of battle. The college chums and comrades of David Newlin Fell, who went through the ordest of war with him, testify to his coolness and bravery, the modest and noffmenting courage, and with it ail, his generous brotherly care for the comfort of every brotherly care for the comfort of every one of his command. Mostered out after the expiration of his term of ser-vice, he again went to his books and studies and devoted himselfassiduously to the science of the law. Again we find him with a preceptor who had a keen interest in his success—his brother. William W. Fell. Passing successfully and brilliantly the examination, he was admitted to the Bar March 17th, 1866, where he soon acan extensive and lucrative

Judge Fratt.

In the following November, as the sole nominee of both the Republican and Democratic parties, he was elected to the same position for the full term of ten years. When this expired in 1887, he was again honored with the double nomination and a unanimous election.

But all the civic hours which have been bestowed upon Judge Fail have never made him unmindful of his old comrades in arms, "the hoys in blue." During more than a quarter of a cen tury he has been an active and enthus stastle member of Post 2 of the Grand army of the Republic. In addition to his services in his Post, he has brought his splendid atminuents to he positions of Senior Vice Depart ment Commarder and Judge Advocate General of the Grand Army of the Re-public, Department of Pennsylvania. He has a large circle of acquaintaness and friends among the war veterans of the Keystone state.

Such, in brief, bus been the career of a brave and valuent soldier, an up-right and public spirited citizen, and a learned and able Judge. This sketch may well conclude with a tribute paid him by the Hon. George S. Graham, of Philadelphia, upon placing Judge Fell in nomination for the supreme bench, when he said;

"His record in every place of public trust is full of hopor and will bear the closest scrutiny. He always acquitted himself well, and won the encomians of the people. Upon the omisms of the people. Upon the bench he has created for himself an bench he has created for himself an envisible name. No man is more highly honored and thoroughly beloved among all the judges of our county courts. His learning, his ability, his dear judicial mind, have made him a valued jurist, and his unswerving adher nea to right, feariessness in the discharge of duty, unfalling courtesy, manliness and modesty, have made him a model Judge, and endeared him loour bar and to our citizens generally."

The House Disposes of the Elections Law Repealer.

A MAJORITY OF A HUNDRED YEAR.

The Vote Was Strictly a Party One, but the Third Party Men Joined with the Democrats-Proceedings in the Sounts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The house yesterday passed by the overwhelming ma-jority of year 201, mays 100, the Tucker bill to repeal the federal election laws. The Republicans had intended to refrain from voting on the final passage, but when first amendment proposed they saw that it was absolutely impossible to break a quorum and yielded as gracefully as might be. The vote was strictly a party one; but the third party men joined with the Democrats.

Sanator Squire gave notice of an amend ment to the eliver purchase repeal bill. It proposes the coinage of silver for private owners to the amount of $2,000,000 a month, not to exceed a hundred millions in all the owners to receive in coin only the com-mercial value of the bullion on the day of deposit, and the difference to be retain by the government as seignorage. It also proposes the issue of five year 4 per cent, bonds to the amount of $900,000,000,the pro-bonds to the amount of $200,000,000,the pro-ceeds of which are to be used for the re-dumption of United States notes.

There were two speeches delivered on the repeal bill, the first by Senator Mc-Pherson, of New Jersey, and the second by Senator Cockrell, of Missouri. Mr. Me-Pherson's speech was in support of the bill. He declared it to be his belief (which was shared, he thought, by two-thirds of the people of the United States who had any opinion on the subject) that the Sher-man law was the main cause, the true cause, the only visible cause, of the business troubles of the country.

Mr. Cockrell's speech was in continuation of the one which he began Monday, and was directed against the pending bill He ridiculed the idea of the Sherman law having any influence in bringing about the financial panie, and attributed it rather to the legislation to establish gold monometaliem in European countries and in the United States. But as international himstallism, in his opinion, was an impossibility, a mere dream, as impracticable as a universal language. He spoke for five hours, and had not then come to an end of his speech. The hours bill to report the special three special the special three special th p at the election laws was received during dem, Syria. As the eve of the test of physical endurance approaches there appear to be mani-festations of uncasiness on the part of the administration senators, and this feeling was evinced yesterday afternoon in numer-ous conferences between administration and anti-administration Democrats, a num ber of these conferences taking place in Mr. Voorhous' rooms. The attitude of the Republicans is causing the Democrats some alarm. Whether they will go to the extent of remaining and assisting through the weary watches of the night in maintaining a quoram is a question that can not be definitely answered. According to the program of the silver men they will make a motion to adjourn this afternoon when the usual hour of 6

A Pawnbreker Murdered.

SAN ANYONO, Tex., Oct. 11.—Marcus Konigheim, a wealthy pawnbroker of this city, was found murdered at his bome here. His body was horribly mutiated, by furgiars, as his safe was rilled of several thousant deliars worth of diagrams and invested heeping up the quorum until about II o'clock, when, as one of them put it, the "screws" will be applied. This means that the silver men will withdraw and force the repealers to have their own quorum present. Should any attempt be made to adjourn or take a recess the allver men will antagonize it, and insist upon a continuous session until some agreement has been reached.
