BREAKER DESTROYED.

Flames Rage at the New Boston Colliery.

CAUSED BY AN EXPLOSION

Of a Boiler, Which Scattered Flames in and About the Breaker—The Structure Was Completely Destroyed—Fortunately None of the Employees Were Injured.

THE breaker of the New Boston colliery was totally destroyed by fire this morning. The breaker was an old structure and owned by the Mill Creek Coal Company. The fire started at about 10 minutes past six o'clock this morning. It was caused by an explosion of a boiler in the breaker. Fortunately no one was injured either by the flames or the explosion.

The fire raged fiercely for about two hours and at the expiration of that time the structure was transformed into a mass of blazing embers.

The breaker was first built in 1864 and was looked upon as a tinder-box.

The colliery gave employment to about 250 men and boys, inside and outside. The breaker will probably be rebuilt.

At the time the fire started there were but few men in the mine or the breaker and those who were there succeeded in making their escape before the flames had made much progress. There was no means other than a bucket brigade with which to fight the fire and the flames had full sway.

"Mines' Weights" Construed.

Justice Dean, of the Supreme Court, has made an important decision in the case of Drake vs. Laco. The case involved primarily the construction of the phrase "miner's weight on all merchantable coal." The plaintiffs, that is the Drakes, contended that this phrase meant 2,464 pounds of coal in the vein, including impurities also. The defendants contended that the phrase "miner's weights" meant such quantity of coal, slate and dirt as is agreed upon between the operator and miners to be sufficient to make a ton of prepared coal for the market. The opinion of the Supreme Court coincides with the theory of the defendants in the case and sustains the finding of W. W. Lastrope, who was the master in the original litigation.

A Tamagus Meeting.

The parlor of the United States Hotel was the scene of a meeting of much significance on Friday night last, and if the walls could speak they would tell what it is to be done in Republican politics this fall. As it is the object can only be guessed at. The following persons were present: Hon. Charles N. Brumm, Hon. Samuel A. Loech, ex-District Attorney Whitehouse and Koch, ex-Clerk of the Court Daniel Duffy, Candidates Severn and Shortall, and our townsman, Charles F. Allen, candidate for County Commissioner.—Tamagus Courier.

New Superintendent.

Mr. E. W. Ash, lately of New Canaan, Conn., and formerly of Tamagus, yesterday assumed the position of superintendent for the Schuylkill Traction Company, as successor to B. Elwood Jones, resigned. Mr. Ash is an experienced railroader and it is expected that he will inaugurate several changes looking to the improvement of the schedules and other matters pertaining to the operation of the Traction Company's lines.

A New Dress for Any Woman.

Take any half worn gown, no matter how badly faded, and with one or two packages of Diamond Dyes, who can dye it so nicely that it will look fresh and new. Diamond Dyes give more dye for the price than any other dyes. They are pure, simple and strong, and are not adulterated with worthless ingredients to make a bulky package. They are all dyes.

Arnica & Oil Liniment is equally good for man and beast. 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

USE WELLS' LAUNDRY BLUE, the best blueing for laundry use. Each package makes two quarts. 15c. Sold by Cushman Bros.

Best work done at Brennan's steam laundry. Everything white and spotless. Lace curtains a specialty. All work guaranteed.

LOST TO POTTSVILLE.

The Shenandoah Club Meets Defeat in a Good Game.

The home team went to Pottsville yesterday and lost to the club of that place in a well-contested game. Setley, who was released by Manager Bradigan on Tuesday, played third base for the Pottsvillians and made an excellent showing. He accepted the seven chances given him, made a sacrifice hit and figured in a double play.

Strange as it may seem the defeat was received with gratification by a great many of the Shenandoah base ball enthusiasts. The sentiment that has been aroused in Setley's favor since his release is remarkable and nearly all the cranks were praying that Pottsville would give Setley a chance to pitch yesterday, so that he could more directly bring about a defeat for the Shenandoahs. The feeling against the management is very bitter and several of the best patrons of the game were heard saying last night that they would not care if the home team would dunder to-morrow.

Christ Fulmer umpired yesterday's game and acquitted himself in a manner that won the applause of both sides. Jordan's pitching was very effective, but the Pottsvillians jumped upon his waning delivery and of the eleven times they hit him one was a home run, three were three-baggers and two were two-baggers. Bauswine said last night that a pitcher stands a poor show against heavy batters on the Pottsville grounds. Everything goes over the fence. Massey was the only man on the Pottsville side to make an error. Ward, El. Heary and Toman had one each.

The story of the defeat in a nutshell is this: Pottsville batted hard and fielded almost perfectly. Shenandoah couldn't hit the ball, had costly fielding errors and tried to play the bug in stealing bases.

The score was 5 to 3 in favor of Pottsville.

The Portrait Swindle.

Gentlemanly looking strangers are about swindling confiding women on an old scheme and have succeeded in making a number of victims in neighboring towns. They promise for $2.50 to $5 to furnish an excellent crayon portrait in a handsome frame from a photograph. They ask for a photograph for use at headquarters and later make a call with samples of frame and sample of the picture. This plausible evidence of good faith induces payment of half the contract price and "they never come back." The swindlers take the photographs they receive to their hotels and the samples they exhibit are only outline sketches they make from the photographs while waiting for their meals. The sketches serve as good bait and after working the town thoroughly the swindlers seek a new field for their operations, and not infrequently leave their hotel bills unpaid.

Experience of an Ex-Champion.

Athletes and men who take ordinary outdoor exercise such as walking, running, bicycle riding, jumping, swimming, tennis, etc., are often the subjects of acute troubles. The experience of an ex-champion walker will be of interest to all who are afflicted. Harry Brooks writes:

"No. 324 East 19th St., New York, Apr. 2, '93. Numerous statements relative to the merits of different plasters having been brought to my attention, I take this opportunity to state that I have used Alcock's Porous Plaster for over 20 years and prefer them to any other kind. I would furthermore state that I was very sick with catarrh of the kidneys, and attribute my recovery entirely to Alcock's Porous Plaster."

Operating Under Difficulties.

The Schuylkill Traction Company are operating the system under great difficulties owing to the lack of water for steam purposes. Less than one-half the cars are in service, and only one engine is running to furnish the electric power. As the Girard Water Co. can only supply them with water for one hour a day they find much difficulty in operating at all. A well has been sunk near the power house and a good spring developed, but it is strongly impregnated with sulphur water from the mines, and in order to use it it must first be purified.

Free of Charge.—Before buying write to Messrs. F. A. Richter & Co., 17 Warren St., New York City, for the valuable book, "Guide to Health," and read the instructions that the "Anchor Pain Expeller" receive at the hands of prominent physicians. 25 prize medals awarded to the manufacturers of this valuable preparation.

THE SILVER STRUGGLE

A United States Senate Record Broken.

AN UNTIRING SPOUTER.

Senator Allen, the Populist from Nebraska, Commenced to Talk on the Silver Bill Yesterday Afternoon and Held the Floor Until This Morning.

Special to the Herald.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12th, 11 a. m.

THE longest speech ever made in the United States Senate was on the silver bill concluded this morning by Senator Allen, the representative of the Populists, from Nebraska. He opened his address at a quarter past five o'clock last evening. He had scarcely begun before Mr. Palmer interrupted to ask whether it was the view of any member to resist a vote on the passage of the bill until a majority submitted to do something. Mr. Allen replied that so long as he could see within the pale of the law he would do so.

Senator Allen then proceeded with his address and kept his feet for fourteen hours and three-quarters, concluding the speech at eight o'clock this morning.

This is the longest speech ever recorded in the Senate. There were occasional requests for roll call and references to an absence of a quorum. At roll call forty-eight Senators responded. And at nine o'clock this morning there was no quorum. The Senate is still in session.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

Farewell to Thomas G. Slattery and Family Last Night.

A number of ladies and gentlemen tendered a farewell surprise party to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Slattery and their daughters, Misses Tessie and Sadie, last evening. The family will move to Philadelphia next week. The surprises called at the family residence on West Oak street at about 8:30 and after presenting Mrs. Slattery with a handsomely upholstered chair and the Misses Slattery each with a World's Fair souvenir silver spoon, proceeded to Ferguson's hall, where there was dancing until midnight, at which hour the surprises again went to the Slattery residence and partook of an elegant supper. Dancing was continued in the hall after the supper. The surprising party included Misses Mary O'Connell, Marie Garrett, Cassie Keating, Mary and Katie Gorman, Katie and Mame Main, and Messrs. Harry and Michael Mellet, Timothy Bronnahan, Thomas O'Connell and Thomas Gorman, of Mahanoy City; Eugene McAtton, of New York; William O'Hara, Joseph Collins and James Carlin, Pottsville; and the following town people: Misses Annie Sheehy, Libbie Cavanaugh, Annie Burke, Julia Monaghan, Katie and Annie Burkhardt, Nellie Finney, Jessie Glover, Katie Walsh, Katie Graham, Ollie and Ida Lewis, Annie Hennessey, Julia and Nellie Bradigan, Nellie Conners, Sallie and Mary Delaney, Annie Curtin, James Quinn, Michael Tierney, H. Special to EVENING HERALD.

CENTRALIA, Oct. 12, 4 p. m.—Dominick Hart, an old soldier employed as a miner in Logan colliery, operated by L. A. Riley & Co., had both legs crushed by a fall of coal this afternoon. He was taken to the Miners' Hospital.

Base Ball Notes.

The team is in drawing to a close.

Chris Fulmer umpired yesterday's game at Pottsville.

Shenandoah plays at Pottsville again this afternoon.

Shenandoah will play with the Demorest team of Williamsport on the 15th. They will undoubtedly draw a large crowd.

The management of the Pottsville club will likely play Sunday games for the balance of the season. They have asked permission from the Yorkville Town Council.

This morning's Journal says: "Next to the interest of the great battle which resulted in a victory for Pottsville was the appearance of Setley playing with Pottsville. Only a few days before the crowd cried, 'crucify him,' but yesterday they sang hosanna's to the highest, and Setley was the hero of the hour."

Horizontal Artesian Well.

The Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company now has a supply of clear water that will give abundance to its collieries in the Gilberton and St. Nicholas district. It is derived from a horizontal artesian well which was driven 1,200 feet from the face of what is known as the Pot-Hollow tunnel, near the Boston Run colliery, and which has a pressure of 150 pounds to the square inch on a four-inch pipe. The water has been in use since Monday. It will supply the Boston Run, Bear Ridge, St. Nicholas, Suffolk and Maple Hill collieries.

New Through Sleeping Car Line

From Chicago to Seattle via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and Great Northern Railways, has been established and first-class sleeping cars will hereafter run daily from Chicago at 10:30 p. m., arriving at Seattle 11:30 p. m., fourth day. This is undoubtedly the best route to reach the North Pacific coast. For time tables, maps and other information apply to the nearest ticket agent, or address John E. Post, District Pass. Agent, C. M. & St. P. Ry., Williamsport, Pa.

Water Notice.

Beginning Tuesday, October 10th, the water will be turned off each evening at 7 o'clock and remain turned off until 7 o'clock in the morning. This will be continued until such time as the dams are replenished by rain. All consumers are requested to be extremely careful in the use of water and under no circumstances should hose be used for the purpose of washing shop windows, pavements, carriages, etc.
