Now most of these people ave changed their minds and they not only begin to look at Mr. Seltzer as a possibility, but some of them go so far as to say that his clumees of election are better than Judge

I will tell you what has caused this great

There was, you will remember, considerable pposition to the nomination of a candidate for Judge in the Republican convention and ecause Mr. Seltzer's nomination was a foregone conclusion and they were believed to be against him first, last and all the time. But it didn't take long for Mr. Seitzer and his friends to demonstrate that he had a strong following in the county, and he very soor sized up as a very strong candidate. This brought under his standard all the leaders of he anti-nomination growd of the convention nd they are now among the strongest sup orters Mr. Seltzer has, They talk and work for Salizer, Shortall, Severu, Samuela and the whole Republican ticket, and you would be surprised if you could see in print a minute calculation of the power of these men to aid a candidate when they are really in
