

AT MEAL-TIMES

Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Butter, Eggs, Spices and all the other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the price of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy. The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at

LISTEN TO MY WALL OF TOE—
A little corn on a maiden goes—
Listen to my wall of toe—
Caused by the pinch of a too tight shoe.
Instead of a three a number two,
It grew, it grew—
Listen to my wall of toe.

As thus went on (as time will do)—
Listen to my wall of toe—
The corn waxed red—the maiden blue,
"Wasn't ten times worse than the grip (verruca),
Too true!"
Listen to my wall of toe.

She had a seat in the end of the pew—
Listen to my wall of toe—
And a man with another seat in view
Put his eyehole boots on his kangaroo,
Oh, where! Oh, where!
Listen to my wall of toe.

—Washington Post.
A gentleman in town remarked to another, a few days ago, that he would like to see a good rain, in order to give the fall what a good start for the winter. The other gentleman remarked that the Lord had nothing to do with the wheat crop, that the Democratic party had agreed to look after the wheat crop and regulate the price thereof. Gentleman number two walked off laughing.

Something new is turning up every day. The latest, not entirely new, but resurrected, is the establishment of a chair in journalism in the University of Pennsylvania. A professor has been engaged to teach journalism, or in other words, how to edit and run a newspaper. To use an old saying, you might as well try to teach a silk purse out of a sow's ear, as to try to teach a young man how to run a newspaper. The rule that would make one a success, would make another a failure.

A CRAZED FATHER'S CRIME.

Deprived of His Child, He Cut His Throat and His Own.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 16.—Haven F. Winn killed his 3-year-old son yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor, and then committed suicide in the same way. His wife obtained a decree for separate maintenance from the probate court on Wednesday, and had been given the custody of their only child. She then went to live with her father. Since his wife left him Winn has showed a determination to obtain possession of his child at any cost. He called frequently at the house and tried to induce his wife by persuasion and threats to live with him again. She positively refused to do so, and the refusal maddened him.

He had been given permission by the court to see his child on Sundays, and going to the house with a razor he was allowed to enter, and for several hours he carried the baby up and down in the sitting room. His wife and her father, meantime, had driven to church. Just before noon Winn began to act so strangely that Mrs. Hecox, his mother-in-law, became frightened and sent her son for assistance. He called a policeman, and on the way back met Mrs. Hecox, who told them that Winn had killed his child and himself. He had laid the baby on the bed and severed the jugular vein with one stroke of the razor, but the child had been able to crawl to the foot of the bed, where he hid. Winn had then gone into the sitting room, and standing in front of a looking glass had cut his throat, dying instantly.

Winn was about 30 years old and was of a sullen and morose disposition. He was married four years ago at Hattie Creek, Mich. He had previously been stenographer for General Draper, in the Hopkinton mills, and on leaving was given a Bible and a warm endorsement as an earnest worker in Christian and temperance causes. He then went to Providence, R. I., where he was the treasurer of the Home Building association in 1900. He was forced to give up this position and leave the city because he forged the names of two officers of the association to two notes, one for $500 and another for $300. His father and brother made up this amount and prosecution was prevented.

Rescued by Volunteer Life Savers.
NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 16.—Schooner Willina D., of Sydney, N. S., bound from Brava, Cape Verde islands, to this port, went ashore fifteen miles from this city, near Westport. Eugene Clifford, James Manchester and Charles B. Hastings put off to the vessel in a skiff, and two children were placed in the boat and the crew started for shore. Just as the boat was entering the last line of breakers it was capsized and the five persons thrown out. The crowd on shore formed a line by grasping hands, and rescued the crew and passengers. The crew of the schooner was taken from the wreck by a volunteer life crew.

A Novel Tour.
NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Mrs. M. V. Terhune (widely known by her non-de plume of "Marion Harland") has sailed for a projected tour in the east. It is Mrs. Terhune's purpose to travel through Syria and Palestine. She has engaged David Jamal, of Jerusalem, the most experienced orientalist dragonman, as her escort, and will make camel back pilgrimages to Bethlehem, to Abraham's tomb at Hebron, to the tombs of Dananeus, to the famous monastery of Mar Saba, the oldest in the world, and to other places. She is accompanied by her son.

North Carolina Whitecaps Threatening.
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 16.—Special advice from Shelby, N. C., are to the effect that whitecaps of the Tennessee stripe are threatening the owners of all the cotton gins in that section that unless they stop ginning until the price of cotton reaches ten cents a pound their gins will be promptly burned to the ground. It is believed that these whitecaps are none other than the fellows who composed Giddens' band organization which was broken up about a year ago.

His Will Try for the Record.
RACINE, Wis., Oct. 16.—Mayor Jackson I. Case will hold a three days' trotting meeting at Hickory Grove park, commencing tomorrow. M. J. Jones, of the Standard Trotting company, of Kenosha, states that he will bring up Alex and start her to beat the time of Maid S. (2:05) to a high wheeled sulky. She will probably start Wednesday.

Death of a Flemington Banker.
FLEMINGTON, N. J., Oct. 16.—John W. Priestly, president of the Hunterdon County National bank, died here yesterday, aged 74. Mr. Priestly was a well known capitalist and the senior member of the pottery firm of Tulper Bros. & Co. He had large real estate interests in Flemington and in Kansas City, Mo.

Fatally Burned by Gasoline.
TOLEDO, O., Oct. 16.—Miss Ida Dussan, a beautiful young lady of this city, was fatally burned, the flesh dropping from the bones. She was cleaning some clothing with gasoline when the fluid ignited. Her father was also terribly burned in his efforts to extinguish the flames.

Another Little Prince.
RICHMOND, Oct. 16.—The crown princess of Romania, formerly Princess Marie of Edinburgh, gave birth to a son yesterday. Both she and the baby are doing well. Dr. William S. Playfair, physician accoucher to the Duchess of Edinburgh, is in attendance. The princess was married on Jan. 10 last.

NOTED BALTIMOREAN DEAD.

Ex-Congressman John L. Thomas a Victim of Abscesses.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16.—Mr. John L. Thomas, ex-congressman, ex-collector of the port and a general after dinner speaker, died yesterday at his residence from heart failure, brought on by an abscess of the bladder.

About two weeks ago the abscess formed, but after treatment disappeared, and Mr. Thomas seemed to recover. Then another abscess formed, and preparations were made for an operation. Three days ago Mr. Thomas began to improve, and his improvement continued until yesterday morning, when for the first time since his illness he enjoyed a light breakfast. At midday his daughter, Miss Zaidie Thomas, called to her brother, William S. Thomas, that "Father was worse; that he was breathing heavily." The son thought his father had been taken with a nervous chill, to which he was subject, and sent for a physician. When the doctor arrived Mr. Thomas was dead, and died at 11:30 a. m.

Mr. Thomas was born in Baltimore, and was 58 years of age. At the outbreak of the civil war he took a strong position in favor of the Union, and on the night of April 18, 1861, he made a conciliatory Union speech. The next day, April 19, he witnessed the firing on the Massachusetts Sixth regiment. In 1865 he was elected to congress from the Second district, and was re-elected in 1867, but was defeated.

Pontifical High Mass in Brooklyn.
BROOKLYN, Oct. 16.—The consecration of the new St. Agnes' church, at Hoyt and Sackett streets, yesterday took the form of the rarest known ceremony in the Roman Catholic religion. The ceremony was conducted according to the form of the Latin church. The church proper, the aisles, walls, salons, crosses and altars were blessed and anointed with holy oils. Then Archbishop Natoli celebrated high pontifical mass before an immense congregation. The service was the highest that has been performed in Brooklyn in many years. The papal delegate intoned the litany.

The London Times on the Senate Debate.
LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Times says in a leader concerning the senate debate on the repeal bill: "We fear that no result will be reached speedily, and that no more diminution of the amount of silver purchase, as suggested by advocates of compromise, will remove the existing financial uncertainty or replace credit on a secure basis. At the same time the prolonging of the purchases under the Sherman act, which obviously will result if the compromise be vetoed, will perpetuate all the causes of the recent disturbances."

Her Husband Led the Whitecaps.
LOUISVILLE, Oct. 16.—The trial of some whitecaps at Salem, Ind., has developed some sensational features. The accused are John Peyton, George Holsapple, Otto Barnett, Elijah Dalton and James Dalton. The victim of the night riders is the wife of Elijah Dalton. John Peyton was so badly scared that he turned state's evidence. On the stand he admitted that Mrs. Dalton had been most brutally whipped, and declared her husband incited the deed.

A Conductor Fatally Hurt.
ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 16.—G. W. Zinn, a conductor on the middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad, living in Harrisburg, was engaged making up his train here when he stepped in front of an engine which was passing on an adjoining track and ran over. His right leg was crushed off at the thigh, his right arm above the elbow and three fingers were cut off his left hand. He cannot survive.

Afraid to Tackle Dalton.
STILLWATER, O. T., Oct. 16.—Bill Dalton and two of his gang, Bill Doolin and Texas Newcomb, came into town last evening and boldly paraded the streets. They were not molested, and no depredations were attempted. The desperadoes were heavily armed and prepared for trouble. They departed at midnight. Officers and citizens seemed unwilling to attempt their arrest.

Confessed to Four Murders.
COLUMBUS, Oct. 16.—William Whalen, a colored man, confessed to Chapman W. R. Dudley, of the state prison, that he was the author of four mysterious and brutal murders that have been committed near Yellow Springs, Green county, in the last year. The victims were William Kogler, Louise Keys, Allen Wilson and an old farmer named Buppings.

Lord Aberdeen at the Fair.
CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—The governor general of Canada and Lady Aberdeen paid a visit of ceremony to the Administration building at the World's fair, where they were received by Director General Davis and President Higginbotham. They next visited Victoria house and afterwards went to the Irish village organized by Lady Aberdeen.
