THE latest innovation in the way of trolley transportation is in San Francisco where an electric hearse is in use on one of the railways leading from the city to four of the suburban cemeteries. The electric line parallels the tracks of the Southern Pacific Rail- 200 of these picked men are now living road, and by cutting rates hopes to share the funeral traffic. Funeral processions meet the train at any point on the line. The coffin is placed in the electric hearse and the pall bearers occupy a special compartment in the same car. The mourners are carried in an ordinary electric car. At the cemetery a hearse and carriages are in waiting, and the procession is reformed. The suble trapplings of the electric bearse give it a mournful and eminently respectable appearance, and the infection was impossible. This, at teast, is the recommendation of the commission appointed by the Imperial Goverument for the purpose of devising the best means of securing the requisite increase in revenue. It was proposed at one time to augment the impost on malt beverages, with this object in view; but after due consideration the Emperor and his advisers came to the conclusion that it would be impolitic to call upon the worthy Teutons to choose between their patriotism and their beer. Accordingly, it has been decided to look to wine, both native and foreign, for the money to meet the heavily increased military expenditure, and the result is that discontent is assuming alarming proportions among the peasantry of the wine-grow-ing districts in the western and south-ern portions of the Empire. Under the circumstances it is doubtful whether the Reichstag will be willing to ratify the projected financial measures It Passes the House by a Nearly of the Government, and, judging from present appearances, it looks as if Emperor William will find himself prevented from putting into excention the provisions of last spring's Army It Extends for Six Months the Time Albill, owing to the refusal of the imperial legislature to concede the funds necessary for the purpose,

> EMMA GOLDMAN SENTENCED. The Anarchist Gets the Maximum Pen-alty, One Year's Imprisonment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A dense crowd as-embled in the court of general sessions to hear the sentence passed upon Fimma Goldman, the convicted anarchist. When called to the bar she began to speak. Judge Martine interrupted her, informing her that she must confine herself to remarks bearing directly upon the question why sentence should not be passed upon her. It appeared evident from her look of dis-appointment that she was prepared to give a long harrangue.

Martine then said that he was as sured that the jury had rendered the only verdict possible under the evidence. He

The proceedings of the senate were in teresting. They opened with action on a house joint resolution fixing the qualifica-tions to vote and to hold office in the Cherokee outlet, Oklahoma Territory, at the first municipal elections. The joint reso-lution was passed, after an unsuccessful attempt by the Populist senator from Kansus (Mr. Peffer) to suggraft women suffrage upon it. The attempt was sustained by only nine senators. The Union Pacific receivership led to the introduction of a hill by Mr. Morgan for the control of the Union and Central Pacific railroads until their debts to the government are fully paid up or secured. Most of the two hours assigned by the rules to morning business was taken up in debates upon Mr. Lodge's resolutions to amend the rules. They propose to prohibit the read-ing of prepared speeches; require the counting of senators who are present and refuse to vote for the purpose of making a quorum, and propose an arrangemen similar to that now existing in the house under which (through a report from the committee on rules, debate may be stopped and a vote taken. The Lodge resolutions went over and the repeal bill was taken up. Mr. Jones (Nev.) occupied three hours, but did not fluish his speech, and Mr. Peffer (Kan.) went on with the speech which he began last Friday.

The senate got into a curious parliamen tary tangle just at nightfall. During the course of the proceedings, at a point when a quorum was temporarily absent, Mr Voorhees moved that the sergeant-at-arms be directed to secure the attendance of the absentees. Soon afterwards a few stragers came into the chamber, and made up a puorum to answer a call of the senate. Mr ourhees wished to withdraw his motion out Mr. Dubois refused his assent. There was nothing to do but call the year and mays, and the pairs were so numerous tha a voting quorum could not be obtained. As soon as the vote was announced on the yeas and nays, under the rules, another call was in order to develop the presence of a quorum. The quorum answering to the call, again the motion recurred on Mr. Voorhees' original proposition, and so it went on, changing from the year and nays to the cull of the senate. This continued intil 10 o'clock, when a motion to adjourn
