

AT MEAL-TIMES

Do you ever consider the quality of the food you eat? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Butter, Eggs, Spices and innumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy.

The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable and the very best of everything in the grocery line, is kept at

Allen Fitzpatrick.

Miss Katie E. Allen, daughter of G. S. Allen, division master mechanic of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, and J. C. Fitzpatrick, Tamaqua agent for the Reading and New Jersey Central railroads were married in St. Paul's church, in Reading, on Sunday morning by Rev. George Bomemann, Charles W. Allen and Miss M. Edith Allen, brother and sister of the bride, acted as best man and maid of honor. There were no bridesmaids. After a breakfast at the Mansion House, Reading, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick started on their wedding tour, which will extend to the World's Fair and Denver, Col. Upon their return they will reside at 214 West Broad street, Tamaqua.

Library Notice.
All persons having books out of the Public Library will please return same at once. The library will be open for the return of books from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., and from 7 to 8 o'clock each evening this week. The public will note that the library has been removed from the High school building to the new Centre and West street building.

De Giers Quarrels with the Car.
COPENHAGEN, Oct. 17.—It is reported here that M. de Giers, Russian minister of foreign affairs, is again out of favor with the czar, and has received another long leave of absence. Giers was offended because the negotiations for the visit of the French men-of-war at Copenhagen were carried on over his head by Baron Mohrenheim and the czar. He made known his dissatisfaction so vigorously that he brought upon himself the imperial displeasure.

A Harvard Professor Probably Drowned.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The United States minister at Tokio has reported to the state department that Dr. Scott Moncrieff, of Harvard college, has been missing since July last, and is probably drowned. Dr. Moncrieff was sent out by the Peabody museum of Harvard to study ethnology on the east coast of Siberia and while stopping at a village at the mouth of the Amur river, he went out in a small boat on July 11, and has not been heard from since.

Assaulted by a Masked Brute.
CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 17.—A 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Almsworth, who lives on Fifth street, Darby, was brutally assaulted while going to her work at Griswold's mill. A man who had his face covered with a handkerchief sprang from the bushes and threw her to the ground. In her effort to escape from the villain she was terribly bruised and her clothing torn, and she is now suffering from nervous prostration. No clue to the miscreant.

Fireburns Again at Work.
WEST CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 17.—Early in the morning the large stone barn on the farm of John Morris, in East Cain township, was totally destroyed by fire. The building was a very large one and filled with the season's crops. Adjoining it was a wagon house, which was also burned. In the barn were six cows, all the farming implements, and $2,000 worth of crops. No horses were in the building at the time. The cause is supposed to be incendiary.

Mangled to Death by Cars.
WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 17.—Joseph Welsh, aged 19 years, of this city, came home from Philadelphia on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at midnight. Welsh, who was asleep, was aroused by the conductor before the train reached the station. He rose, in a dazed condition, walked out on the front platform of the car, and fell under the train. He was horribly mangled and died on the way home.

British Sailors in Italy.
TARRANTO, Oct. 17.—The reception accorded the British fleet on its arrival here was quite as enthusiastic as the reception given the Russians in Toulon. Sir Michael Culme-Seymour and the other officers of the fleet landed last evening to attend a reception given in their honor. A series of fetes will continue to the end of their visit.

Saved from a Whirling Shaft.
CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 17.—George Stowe, a rigger at Roach's shipyard, was caught by his clothes and whirled around the auxiliary shaft in the machine shop on Saturday afternoon. He escaped instant death only by being literally torn from his perilous position by his companions.

Distillery Destroyed by Firebugs.
LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 17.—Jacob F. Shaeffer's distillery and bonded warehouse was destroyed by an incendiary fire, and the loss will be nearly $100,000. The bonded warehouse was of corrugated iron, with iron roof. It was three stories high, and filled with whisky.

Editor McClure's Condition Serious.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—The condition of A. K. McClure has again changed for the worse, and the distinguished editor is critically ill. His physicians say that while his general symptoms are satisfactory, there is grave danger of his kidneys failing him.

Rescued with a Non-Union Force.
WELLSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 17.—The Riverside glass works, the largest concern of the kind in this vicinity, resumed operations yesterday afternoon. Seven shops are working. Only two of the former employees reported for work.

A Railroad to Climb the Mountain.
SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Oct. 17.—A syndicate has been formed and a railroad will be built to the top of White Face mountain next spring. White Face is 5,000 feet high. The road will be thirteen miles long.

A PERILOUS HONEYMOON.

New Mme. Charbonnet Was Widowed on Her Bridal Tour.
TORONTO, Oct. 17.—Mme. Charbonnet, who went in a balloon on her wedding tour and was thrown out with her husband and his friend, in the Italian Alps on Oct. 11, has arrived here with her husband's dead body. His friend, M. Ponta, is recovering slowly from his injuries. The balloon struck the glacier at 8 o'clock in the afternoon. The car went to pieces, and the three occupants were thrown out. They passed the night on the snow and ice among the Caranella peaks. The next day they began the descent of the mountain, when suddenly Charbonnet disappeared in a crevasse. In the evening Ponta fell and broke his leg. The couple passed a second night in the snow and ice, and then Mme. Charbonnet went alone down the mountain to a hut, where she induced two guides to go back after her husband and Ponta. Charbonnet's body was found at the bottom of the crevasse.

The Army of Pensioners.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The secretary of the interior transmitted to the house, in answer to a resolution calling for information, a statement prepared by the commissioner of pensions regarding the act of June 27, 1890. Up to and including Oct. 31, 1893, there were 317,396 original invalid and 139,821 additional invalid applications filed under this act, or a total of 457,217 invalid claims. The total of widows and other dependent status was 108,107, or a grand total of 565,324. The total issue of all claims prior to March 30, 1893, was 458,091, and the total number rejected was 93,047. Since that date 24,470 claims have been admitted and 62,050 rejected.

London, Oct. 17.—The Herald says that an indictment warrant is in the hands of the police for the arrest of one George B. White, who until recently has represented in Boston the large Pennsylvania bakery firm of William S. White & Co. Mr. White is accused of obtaining money under false pretenses from a dozen different banks in this city, the claim being made that he secured about $200,000. It is also alleged that New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh institutions are out about $300,000 on account of his peculiar financial transactions.

De Giers Quarrels with the Car.
COPENHAGEN, Oct. 17.—It is reported here that M. de Giers, Russian minister of foreign affairs, is again out of favor with the czar, and has received another long leave of absence. POLITICAL POINTS.

No red fire burned yet.
What will the harvest be?
Election only three weeks off.
It may be a compromise after all.
Will it be Mellot or Quinn—or M—r?
The Shenandoah post office appears to be in it in this campaign.

CARL'S TALE OF WOE.
Pyshakes I told you something, if you listen mit your ears.
I never was so foolish, I get in, in fifty years.
I shoud committed suicide: I trowed myself away.
Unt vosse for Grover Cleveland on last election day.

So listen to my story, until I told you how it vos.
Dot I vos been so simple unt a foolish blunder.
There vas a Demmy croaker, his name is Paddy Fell.
He comes in py my house all time his tales of woe to tell.

He talked about Republicans: he said dey vos no good.
Unt like to see dem get knocked out, he vish dey eery yould.
Prent Carl, he said to me one nite, he looked so woful vree.

"You shoud be Grand Old Party unt get plenty vork to do.
We vosse for Grover Cleveland unt lager beer gets cheap.
You'll get your sauer krount for nix: his vords must make me veep.
"Eight hours' vork will pe a tay: three Sunday in a week."

Dot neryly took my breath away: for joy I could not speak.
Vell, I done shoud like he told, for Grover I did vot.
Instead I vish dot I had vent unt cut, my own lars, trost!

Evalked up to do vook dot day proud as a army horse.
Callshout as I vos coming pack I met Tom Jones, my boss.
He shook my hand, said "How vos you?" I hope you get nix.
A sold ticket, Carl, my boy, for friend Ben Harrison.

Shoud dot I got excited, and said I vos no vot To vot rail dose Republicans unt pe a farn plef.
I want do more Protection, dot ding it is played out.
I said, unt waked away with Pat unt for Grover we did shout.

Next day I marched in the parade mit snow up to my knees:
But I vos full with whisky, so of course I could not freeze.
(Slow music.)
Eight months, py jules, have passed away, I got no vork or cash,
Unt all those sunny prospects unt hopes have gone to smash.

I got no peer, I lost my friends, my tick is is played out.
My wife sustained away from me: I got no sauer krount.
In fact, I'm all broken up, by tarn, I vish I was a mule.
So I could shik myself to death for being such a fool.

I heart me what I won't forget, no more: I got took in.
If I live to be a thousand years, I pe a Republican.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."
The New Quarters.
The Shenandoah Manufacturing Company will move from its old quarters on North Bowers street to its newly built factory on North Emeric street this week. The company is sorely in need of its new building. Owing to the limited room afforded by the old factory thousands of dollars worth of orders have recently been refused, yet the working hours for the last six weeks have been from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m. This is the result of a bustling management.

Was Not Beaten.
A report was circulated in town yesterday afternoon that Letter Carrier Barisch was assaulted by three men while making his delivery and terribly beaten. Barisch was as much surprised at the report as any one else when he returned from Yatesville and cannot imagine how it originated.

"The Little Tycoon."
When "The Little Tycoon" was last sung in Shenandoah it delighted a crowded house. You should go and see it at Ferguson's theatre, Friday, for the company which will appear in it is a first-class one.

Judge Cooley Calls it Revolution.
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 17.—Judge Thomas M. Cooley said in an interview: "The action of the senate in permitting the minority to defeat the silver bill by a cowardly dilatory tactics is subversive of the constitution. It is a parliamentary principle of representative government that the majority shall rule. For a minority to prevent legislation by indefinitely prolonging debate is equal to revolution. It is as much revolution as though accomplished with arms and violence."

Intimidated by Striking Miners.
MACON, Mo., Oct. 17.—A delegation of 100 striking miners from Bevier, Ardmore, Huntsville and Higbie visited mine No. 46, owned by the Kansas and Texas Coal company near Bevier, to persuade the men to join them. Their presence frightened the men and they did not go to work. Sheriff White came from Ardmore and ordered the whole visiting delegation off the grounds.

Daily Surprises in Bargains!

—AT—

DIVES, POMEROY AND STEWART'S,

POTTSVILLE, PA.

Constantly we hear business men from other towns saying, "I can't see how they sell goods so cheap at Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart's. They sell goods at retail cheaper than I can buy them at wholesale."

Quantity and Small Margins, Answers This Question.
Our big store is the place to get the most for your money. Try it and see what a large amount of goods you can buy for a dollar.

At Our Millinery Department
You can get a new hat of the latest style at almost any price. Hats to suit all in price as well as in style. You can't find a larger or better assortment of the millinery art than what we have.

IN WRAPS—We are at the top, too, with all the leading and latest manufactured goods. Ladies', misses' and children's coats, capes and circulars at surprisingly low prices. A vast amount have been sold, but new goods are received daily. So come at any time and we will be glad to serve you.

A Big Job in Dress Goods.

We always have bargains at this department, but now we have something special. A lot of all-wool Zebra Cloth, 54 inches wide, for 39c. These goods cost the importer ninety cents, but he needed funds and we bought the job for cash at great reduction.
A lot of 40-inch all-wool Serges for 33c a yard. This material is worth your notice before it's too late.
Another lot of 36-inch Camel's Hair Effect Cloth at 17c. Your early attention is needed to see these goods, as they will go very quickly.

Elegance in Stationery.
You are careful about your writing paper, of course—nothing shows good breeding more clearly than correct correspondence. But your little notes to "the butcher, the baker, the candle-stick maker," do not need to be on such fine quality paper as your epistles to friends. You can save money there by using our cheaper grades of paper and envelopes. The best is here—also the next best. Both correct in every way.
