Republican Candidates.

HON. D. NEWLIN FELL, Candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court.

COL. S. M. JACKSON, Candidate for State Treasurer.

Republican party proposes, by the nomination of these two excellent candidates, to improve the soldier's lot during the Cleveland Administration.

They don't call this an 'old year' out in the town where Benjamin Harrison lives, and tell Republicans that their voters have no party significance.

DEMOCRATIC OX.

If the Democratic press of the country think it strange that the Senate don't take strong measures to bring about a vote on the Silver repeal bill, it can look back only a short time ago and see what it had to say about a measure of that kind during January, 1891, when the Republicans wanted to change the rules in order that a majority could rule.

The New York World said, then, 'every device for delay must be used in the Senate, no legal act of any conceivable kind done to prevent the passage of the bill will be other than praiseworthy.'

The New York Herald said, 'the minority are quite right to cause delay by every means within their reach; the minority demand that the customs, traditions and usages which have governed the Senate for the last hundred years shall not be tampered with, a closure resolution is revolutionary and should not be tolerated.'

The New York Times said, 'nothing so subversive of inherent principles of legislation under representative government has ever been attempted in the United States. We are far within the truth when we say that never in the proudest and most illustrious period of the dominion of the slave power in Congress was anything so plainly inconsistent with the first principles of our government done or attempted. The men who are planning and leading the assault on some of the most valuable safeguards of free institutions are also those who have in times past fought with the utmost courage and fidelity against the abuses of Executive influence.'

These papers have made it impossible for the Senate to adopt any measure to secure a vote. They can, now think of the old Spanish proverb, 'A goose's quill often hurts more than a lion's claw.'

The fact is disclosed that the birney stone of the Chicago Fair is a delusion and a fraud. No part of the original block has been removed from Ireland, and those people who have paid their dimes and dollars to acquire the 'gilt and oily art' of saying sweet things to women and persuasive things to men have only paid that tribute which folly pays to fraud the world over.

Annapolis Haters Sentenced. ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 20.—The court martial now in session at the Naval Academy has found verdicts in three of the cases of hazing under trial. Cadets David F. Boyd, Jr., William Jeffers and William C. Leahy were found guilty as charged and recommended to dismissal. The superintendent sentenced Boyd and Jeffers to one month imprisonment on board the Santee and 100 demerits, and allowed Cadet Leahy to go unpunished.

Relief for the Distressed. POTTSWOM, Pa., Oct. 20.—The depressed condition of the iron trade has resulted in many of our citizens being out of employment. Many have large families, and in consequence a number of them are suffering for the necessities of life.

Hungarian Murderers Convicted. PITTSBURGH, Oct. 20.—In the criminal court the jury rendered a verdict in the case of John Karpo, John Koutra, Michael Salokay and George Sulo, the Hungarians who have been on trial for the murder of George Kleayk, at Wilmerding. Karpo, Sulo and Salokay were convicted of murder in the second degree. Koutra was acquitted and discharged.

Moorish Tribesman Surrounded. MADRID, Oct. 20.—A dispatch from Tangier states that the forces of the Sultan of Morocco have surrounded the hostile Frajano, Mezquita, and Mazza Kabyles, who made the recent attack on the Spanish garrison at Meilla. The place at which the tribesman are said to be surrounded is between Tallet and the Atlas mountains.

Officers of the Bankers' Association. CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The American Bankers' association elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, M. M. White, president of the Fourth National Bank of Cincinnati; first vice president, John G. P. Odell, president of the Union National Bank of Chicago. A vice president from each state was also chosen.

Killed by a Falling Building. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 20.—A building in Hopkinsville, Ky., which was undergoing repairs, collapsed, killing John Parker, a bricklayer from Nashville, and fatally injuring Charles Davis, of Clarksville, Tenn., and another workman, name unknown. Several other workmen were slightly hurt.

As Commanded the Irish Brigade. NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—General Denis P. Burke died here at a sanitarium on West Forty-first street. He had been ill for some time. The dead general was a veteran of the rebellion. He commanded the Irish brigade which went to the front from this city.

A GOOD BUILDING UP of a run-down system can be accomplished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. A long procession of diseases start from a torpid liver and impure blood. Take it, as you ought, when you feel the first symptoms (languor, depression, and you'll save yourself from something serious.

As an appetizing, restorative tonic, to replenish and build up the needed flesh and strength, there's nothing to equal it. It cures every organ into healthy action, purifies and enriches the blood, braces up the whole system, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease caused by a disordered liver or impure blood, it is the only golden-foot remedy. If it doesn't benefit you, you can't have your money back.

STILL NO COMPROMISE.

Mr. Carlisle Yet Stands for Unconditional Repeal.

NEW PROPOSITIONS PRESENTED.

It is believed the Administration may concede a Repeal to Take Place at a Future Time, but Optimum Differ as to the Period.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Senators Gorman, Ransom, White, Cockrell, Vilas, Gray, Wallhall and Blackburn, the committee appointed to wait on Secretary Carlisle and to submit to him several propositions looking to a compromise, remained in 'executive session' with him at the treasury from 3 o'clock until 4:30. Mr. Carlisle was seen after his senatorial visitors had departed, and stated that he had nothing whatever to communicate as to the nature of their call or its result.

Senators Camden, Harris and Jones (Cal.) subsequently held a long consultation with Mr. Carlisle. So far as could be ascertained nothing definite had been accomplished. Mr. Carlisle, it is said, was yielding in the original stand taken by him in favor of unconditional repeal. No compromise was agreed upon, but it was intimated that another conference would be held. The belief exists in the minds of the committee that the administration will concede a repeal to take effect at a future date, and that was one of the contentions discussed for some time.

A representative southern silver senator said after the committee returned that if they could get nothing better they would accept July 1, 1895, but pointed out that this was his preference. The objection here made, he said, that the administration would favor silver legislation after this bill had been repealed and Democratic repealers had expressed their intention to assist in enacting such legislation. With the acceptance of a compromise the agitation would not end. He thought within five days after the passage of this bill two score of financial measures would be introduced and Congress would be in the midst of a discussion on the subject that would be continued until the next elections, all the time increasing the trouble attending its settlements, and bringing about a condition hazardous to the Democratic party.

The report contends that, owing to the enthusiasm and self-abnegation of the adherents of socialism, the party does not spend in elections a quarter as much money as is expended by other parties. It is stated in the report that the executive committee of the party finds the utmost difficulty in supplying the demands throughout the empire for the foundation of new and the extension of existing branches, all of which, it is claimed, shows that the tide of social democracy is sweeping on with irresistible force.

GROWTH OF SOCIALISM.

Stronger by Half a Million Than Any Other Party in Germany.

BRUNNEN, Oct. 20.—The Vorwaerter, the organ of the Social Democrats, publishes the report that will be submitted to the annual socialist congress that will be held in Cologne next week. Much of the report is devoted to the recent elections for members of the Reichstag, in which the socialists made very heavy gains. The report admits, however, that it will be impossible to maintain the rapid progress of socialism as shown at the polls in the late elections, since the force of resistance must increase. Nevertheless, the report continues, the increase of nearly 500,000 socialist votes since 1893 is a most substantial gain, and by the aggregated socialist poll, 1,800,000, the party distances by more than 500,000 votes the polling strength of any other party.

The report concludes with the usual list of convictions for political offenses during the year. The sentences imposed on persons thus convicted aggregate over eighty-six years imprisonment, and the fines amount to 31,967 marks. It is noteworthy, however, that the penalties include punishment inflicted upon anarchists and independent socialists with whom the Social Democratic party usually disclaims any connection.

IN THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

Senator Butler Invites Senator Hill Out, but Not to Fight.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The third and last act of Tuesday's legislative session was performed yesterday. The subject of the performance was whether the name of Mr. Teller, of Colorado, should be entered on the journal of Monday as having been present and having refused to answer when called. The closing speech was made by Mr. Butler, of South Carolina. After a well-phrased dialogue between him and Senators Hill and Palmer the galleries and spectators were so often, and were so sharply rebuked by the vice president that one of the offenders, a well-dressed, intelligent man rose and confessed that he had been a conspicuous transgressor, and would leave the gallery, where he had been a constant visitor for the last six weeks. Mr. Butler intimated that the galleries were packed for the benefit of Mr. Hill, and he invited that senator to have it out with him on a street corner. Mr. Manderson misinterpreted the invitation as having a hostile meaning, and made a point of order, which he withdrew when Mr. Butler explained, with an air of surprise, that his invitation was one to speak, not to fight. At the close of Mr. Butler's speech the journal of Monday was approved, and it is the record of that day that will be the subject of the day was consumed in legislative addresses to the late William Mitchell, of Pennsylvania.

Looking for 'Gimny' Logos.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—There being now but little doubt in the minds of the police that the heap of bones found beneath the floor of No. 1230 North Eleventh street are those of Johanna Logue, an effort is being made to arrest 'Gimny' Logue, her husband. For this purpose a general request was sent to the police of the leading cities asking that a search be made for the well-known burglar. He is believed to be in hiding.

Philadelphia Oppose the Race Track. PHILADELPHIA, N. J., Oct. 20.—The Salem county Republican convention assembled here and nominated John P. Ward, of Pitt's Grove township, as senator; Charles W. Powers, of Lawrenceville, as clerk; for assemblyman, and Oliver M. Wright, of Pitt's Grove, for sheriff. Resolutions were adopted denouncing the race track legislation.

New Pennsylvania Postmasters. WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—These Pennsylvania postmasters have just been appointed: Isaac Ludeman, Balltown; J. T. Bristingham, Chadds Ford; William McElhinney, Coal Valley; W. A. Kribbe, Keltville; James H. Swank, Pennsdale.

Mr. David M. Jordan, Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless. A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Onsego Co., N. Y.

Liver and Kidneys gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue.

Hood's Sarsaparilla I feel free to say is the best I ever used. It cured my liver and kidneys, and gave me back my health and strength.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills. They assist digestion, cure headache and biliousness.
