THE PROTECTION NEEDED.

An Opportunity for the Council to Pass Wholesome Ordinance,

Entron HERALD :- I am one of the bus EDITOR HERALD:—I am one of the bus-iness people who do not side with the present view of the Borough Council in relation to the telegraph, telephone and other copora-tions. The principle is all right, but it is tions. The principle is all right, but it is never applied at the proper time. If they had taken the stand before the telephone company studded the pavements with its new poles public sentiment would have been with them, as it is it looks like a game of squeeze on the supposition that the company will disgorge before it will forfeit what it has expended. My opinion is that the law- territory and gives up all the rifles and suits the proposed ordinance will provoke from in his possession will cut up all the revenue (should the suit be won by the borough) that the tuxes will bring for years to come. Now if these Councilmen want to benefit the people of this town let them listen to the powerful headed argument in one feature of mer chandising now very prominent here and elsewhere. And let them act in time. Slien andesh and every other large town are fremently overene with "bankrupt sales, "fire sales," " assurfacturer's sales," and othe 'sales" of a more or less dublous character carried on by people who are strangers here and of whose integrity or fair dealing ther s no guarantee. They are the leavings and unalrable stocks of wholesalers and manufac turers in other cities, but are freely adver illed as being of the choicest and meet val sable description.

There is an argument in this in fever of an ordinance to project both local merchant and the people who buy from such concerns Our own merchants pay large same in taxes to support the local government, and con tribute greatly in other ways to the properly ty of the community. It is an outrage tha they should be subjected to the dishuner competition of fairly from abroad. Besides it takes large amounts of money out of the own that are needed at home. The presen ordinance applying to such dealers Imposes leense but the tax ought to be guadruples at least and the securer the Council so amend the ordinances the better. The foreign fakirs should also be required to deposit 350 as a hostage for fair dealing with purchases who often do not And that they have bee swindled natil after the fakirs have alsig
