IS IT FOR BLACKMAIL

A Prominent Citizen Under a Serious Charge.

THE COURT WILL DECIDE

The Accused was Called Into a Case to Give Advice and Finds Himself Subjected to a Prosecution—Says He is a Victim of Conspiracy.

BLACKMAIL or no blackmail is the question which arises in a case before one of the Justices of town. Attempts have been made to surround the matter with secrecy, but as in all cases the gossip have got inklings of the affair and the reporters have eventually hit upon some of the facts in their search for news.

The accused man in the case is one of the most prominent in the town and the accuser is a woman who has resided here but a few days.

According to the facts given the reporter the woman and her husband recently moved to this town from Mahanoy City, bringing with them some furniture which had been purchased on the installment plan and which had not been wholly paid for. The firm from whom the purchase was made swore out a warrant before a Mahanoy City Justice, charging the husband with larceny. Being unable to furnish bail the man was obliged to go to the Potomac prison.

This is the prelude. The play itself begins with great excitement on the part of the wife over the husband's arrest and it remains for a trial at court to decide whether this worryment led to what the accused prominent man says is blackmail. In speaking with friends over the furniture case the woman said she believed that if she could secure legal advice her husband could be extricated from his trouble, and one of the friends offered to introduce the woman to a gentleman who could perhaps give the advice wished. The introduction followed and the gentleman promised to see a lawyer and ascertain what could be done.

Thus closed act one of the play. Act two opened with a call upon the woman by the gentleman whose aid had been sought to state the advice given by the lawyer. During this call, the woman alleges, the visitor forgot his business and was guilty of a flagrant violation of the law. She says he took advantage of the absence of others and committed an assault with criminal intent. It is also alleged that the visitor was exceedingly bold and refused to leave the house even when the woman and her sister threatened to throw boiling water upon him.

The woman who claims to have thus been wronged appealed to the law and the intermediate legal adviser was arrested and put under bail for trial at the next term of court. The accused man protests that he is not guilty and that the charge against him is an attempt at blackmail. A singular feature of the case is that while the woman states that during the assault a determined attempt was made to ravish her, the charge in the case is one only of simple assault, but that the complainant is determined to press the charge is shown by the fact that she has employed a lawyer. Meanwhile the furniture case has dropped out of view on account of the sensational character of the other case, but at last accounts the husband was still in jail.

Not Lawful. Judge Savidge, of Sunbury, has rendered a decision to the effect that a man who allows his cattle to pasture on the unenclosed wild lands of another must pay for that pasturage, and declares that the owner of such unenclosed wild lands is not required to fence in his land.

First Electric Road for Cost. Cox's electric railway, the first of its kind in the Hazleton region, built for coal transportation, has just been completed. The road extends from Black Mountain to Eckley, and will be used to haul from the mountain strip-pings to the Eckley breaker for preparation for market.

The Spectacular Drama, "Faust." Francis Labadie and Battie Kowell, assisted by a strong company, among whom are Huber Labadie, Edwin Southern, E. Gayle Bligg, Madalaine Price and others, will appear at Ferguson's theatre on Friday next, in "Faust." The company carries all its own scenery and calcium lights.

School Board Meeting. A special meeting of the School Board will be held at the superintendent's office tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of electing teachers for the evening schools.

Change of Prices. The management of "The Kid" company, which is to appear at Ferguson's theatre tomorrow evening announces that the prices for the performance have been changed to 25, 35 and 50 cents, instead of 25, 50 and 75 cents.

WEDDING BELLS.

The Borden-Whitely Marriage Takes Place at Philadelphia.

The wedding of Dr. C. M. Borden, of town, and Miss L. D. Whitely, of Philadelphia, was solemnized in Calvary P. E. church, on 11th street, above Brown, in the latter city, at 10 o'clock this morning. Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Whitely, where the contracting parties received the well wishes of a host of intimate friends and relatives. They left Philadelphia this morning at 11:30 o'clock on the Columbian limited express for an extended western trip, including the World's Fair and other points of interest. On their return they will take up their residence in Shenandoah at 36 East Oak street. The groom is well and favorably known here, where he has followed the profession of dentistry for several years, building up a lucrative practice. The doctor's large circle of friends will give him and his newly-made bride a hearty reception upon their return.

CERTAIN GRADY. John W. Curtis, the genial and accommodating freight clerk at the Lehigh Valley depot, and Miss Lizette Grady were married to-day at the Amunition church, on West Cherry street. Miss Elsie Mellet was the bridesmaid and Richard Conners the groomsmen. The ceremony was performed in the presence of but a few of the most intimate friends of the contracting parties.

Completing the Circuit. The Pennsylvania Telephone Company will finish stringing their wires in this region in a few days. Superintendent George F. Moore now has a force at work on a line between Mahanoy City and Dolans, which will complete the circuit. There was over 800 miles of wire used and all the principal places in the county are included in the circuit. The work of planting the poles and stringing the wires was under the direct supervision of District Superintendent T. J. Larch and Division Superintendent George F. Moore. The work of painting the poles is now under way at Potomac, and in a few days the poles in this town will receive a coat of paint in accordance with the provisions of the borough ordinance, granting the company the right of way.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, IT'S "THE KIND THAT CURES."

"A Stroke in Time." Mrs. Frank A. Everett, of town, met with a mishap while visiting relatives at Bradfordville yesterday. In descending a stairway she slipped and fell, sustaining some painful bruises. Dr. Daniel Dechert of Schuylkill Haven, the Republican candidate for County Treasurer, happened to pass the house just after the accident and was called in. He attended to the injuries and convinced the patient and her friends that he is an excellent physician and surgeon, as well as a gentleman of excellent qualities.

Gold Buttons for Valley Men. General Passenger Agent Lee, of the Lehigh Valley railroad, will, in a few days, issue to the trainmen, station masters and other employees of the road, gold and enamel buttons to be worn on the lapels of their coats. The buttons, which will be circular in shape, will be on the outer edge, solid gold. In the center will be a red flag with a blue ensweled background, and in the middle of the flag will be a black diamond with the initials, "L. V."

Can't Wash it Out. Anything dyed black with Diamond Dye fast black always stays black. There are three kinds: fast black for wool, fast stocking black for cotton, and fast black for silk and feathers. They will dye dresses, cloaks, suits, trousers, ribbons, feathers, stockings, etc., a rich, full black that will not crack, fade or wash out. Be sure to get Diamond Dyes, as they embody the latest discoveries and are superior to all other dyes.

Greater Privacy to the Voter. The Commissioners have received a large invoice of curtains to be attached to the front of the election booths, so as to give the voter, whilst preparing his ticket, a great privacy. These curtains will at once be delivered to the various election districts throughout the county, so that they may be in hand on election day.

Don't take Hood's for that tired feeling. See Maloy at the theatre this evening, October 25th.

SHE WAS ROASTED!

Little Ellie Longofski's Terrible Fate.

SUFFERING GREAT AGONY

The Child Set Fire to Its Clothing While Playing With Matches and Was Fatally Burned Before Its Mother Could Give Assistance.

HERE was a heart-rending occurrence at No. 231 West Line street this morning. Ellie, the four-year-old child of Joseph and Amelia Longofski was almost roasted to death.

As it is the case will prove a fatal one, Dr. W. Straub says the child has no chance for recovery. It is burned terribly from head to feet and presented a horrible appearance as it lay writhing on a cot at the family residence this afternoon. The accident happened at about ten a. m. and Dr. Straub was hurriedly summoned. He gave treatment, but said nothing could be done to save the child's life.

Mrs. Longofski says that while she was in the house a next door neighbor the child took some matches from a bureau drawer and commenced playing with them in the yard. The shrieks of the unfortunate child were heard, but it was thought by the mother and neighbor that the noise was made by children playing on the street. But upon the shrieks continuing with increased vigor they ran into the yard and found Mrs. Longofski's child wrapped in flames. The clothing was almost completely burned from the body.

The child was still alive and conscious this afternoon, but tossed upon its cot in great agony and will hardly live until morning.

The mother of the child said to-day that a little over a year ago she lost a six-year-old daughter through burns received by her dress being ignited by contact with a lamp fire on the mountain; and not long ago the present victim set her dress on fire while playing with matches. In this instance the mother appeared in time to put out the fire and save the child from injury.

One Young Man in White. Three young men were seized in Roberts' stable last night singing "Two Little Girls in Blue," when a fourth young man stole up to a loft above the stable, where coffins are stored, and set the singing sheet by allowing a keg of nails to fall heavily upon the floor of the loft. The singer jumped up and ran into the street, supposing the coffins above had fallen and threatened to drop into the stable. They were somewhat alarmed, but their flight went up to fever heat when they looked up at one of the loft windows and saw a dancing figure in white, which was that of the fourth young man enveloped in a white carriage cover.

Obituary. Patrick Gallagher died yesterday at his home, 517 West Centre street. He was a single man 30 years of age and employed as breaker engineer at Pacler No. 3 colliery. The deceased was stricken down by typhoid fever, but was supposed to be making good progress towards recovery, when a relapse set in yesterday. The deceased was a brother of School Director Gallagher. He was a young man of model habits and very popular.

Challenge Accepted. EVENING HERALD.—On Monday your paper contained an article stating that the J. A. Cochlin foot ball team was open for challenges. The undersigned will accept the challenge for a game of foot ball at any time and for any sum of money. If Manager Cochlin will meet me at the corner of Canal and Jardin streets the preliminaries can be arranged. HENRY POER, Manager. Shenandoah, Oct. 25, 1893.

Report Denied. The report that Brewer Youngling, of Potomac, and John A. Reddy and H. J. Muldoon, of town, had formed a combination to secure control of several saloons in the town, is emphatically denied by one of the gentlemen mentioned, who says that he knows of no such movement.

Rhonda Glee Society. On Monday evening next the Rhonda Glee Society of Wales, which organization won the $1,000 prize at the recent contest at the World's Fair, will give one of their concerts at Mount Carmel. The appearance of these celebrated Welsh singers will be a great musical treat. A number of Shenandoahans will witness the concert.

Notice. The undersigned will be absent from his office, East Oak street, Shenandoah, until November 6, 1893. Dr. C. M. BORDNER, Dentist. 10-23-93

PERSONAL.

C. K. Titman spent to-day at the county seat.

Charles Adams, one of Ashland's bright young men, was a town visitor yesterday.

Mrs. Elsie Unstead, of Mooreburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Emily Shapbell, on North Bowers street.

Mrs. William Gibson, of Wanamie, Luzerne county, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. George Rohland.

John R. Jones and Miss Ada Shapbell have returned from a visit to friends at Danville and Mooreville.

W. D. Seltzer, Esq., the Republican candidate for Judge, spent last evening in town. Mr. Seltzer says that unless all signs fall he will be Judge Weidman's successor.

Dr. David Dechert, the Republican candidate for Treasurer, accompanied by D. R. Severn, the next County Controller, added many supporters to their list in this section to-day.

Joshua Rumbel and wife, of Morgan, Kansas, are visiting the family of Daniel Landerman, on West Coal street. Mrs. Rumbel at one time was a resident of this town and is a sister of Mr. Landerman.

Hyociting the Home Printer.

There is a class of short-sighted and penny-pinching store-keepers, calling themselves business men, who will do anything possible to give their money for job printing and advertising to non-residents of their town, in preference to the home printer. They are always ready to be caught on any cheap and utterly worthless scheme presented by an outsider, but never have one cent's worth of work for the home printer. Paper sacks, tin cards, calendars, or anything in that line is the kind of bait they are itching for and gulp it down like a lot of hungry suckers. This was demonstrated in a near-by town a few days ago, when a stranger called upon several merchants, got their order for cards at 45c, contracted to have the cards printed for 85c, and left that town within two hours with 27c of the merchant's money. No home man could do it, yet these same people growl at the home men if they go out of town to buy anything. It is a poor rule that does not work both ways.

Arnica & Oil Liniment is equally good for man and beast. 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

Mr. Carmel-Shamokin Electric Road. The boroughs of Mount Carmel and Shamokin, from present indications, will soon be connected by an electric railway line. An important meeting of the stockholders of the company was held yesterday afternoon at Sunbury, when it was finally decided to commence work on the road as soon as push its construction to a speedy completion. It is stated that $300,000 in cash has already been raised for this purpose, and the fact that some of the leading and influential men of that section are interested in the project is a good indication of its success.

Ferguson's Theatre. "The Fairies' Well" should be witnessed by all lovers of refined Irish drama. It is pure in tone, refined in sentiment, enlivened by sweet singing and excellent dancing, while the scenery is a magnificent reproduction of Ireland's picturesque beauties. The play is a tribute to the events and dignity of the Irish character which every descendant of the Emerald Isle can point to with pride, in comparison with the hideous burlesque so often seen on the stage to-day. A company of more than usual excellence will personate the characters in the drama. Will appear at Ferguson's theatre on Monday, Oct. 30th.

Mooney Returns. "Tourist" Mooney, the traveling umbrella mender who has become so well known in town through his odd characteristics, returned here yesterday from the Miners' Hospital, where he was under treatment. While skylarking with some friends at Tower City about six weeks ago Mooney was thrown down and his right leg was fractured above the ankle.
