

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable case in a lady's life will interest everybody. For four years she had a terrible pain in her heart, which flared almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and hold my stomach with my hands until every minute would pass.

Speech Restored.

For five years I suffered with pain and discharge of the throat, hacking cough, feeble breathing, weak eyes, etc. at all times could not talk above a whisper. Lost weight continually, and other ailments. I was treated by the best physicians in the country, but received no relief. After giving up all hope I was recommended to use a bottle of Mages' Magnetic Catarrh Cure. After using it for four weeks my speech returned. All symptoms of catarrh have disappeared and I feel like a different person.

TO CLOSE THE FAIR.

Arrangements for the Great Event Completed.

THE LANDING OF THE DISCOVERER

Will Mark the Beginning of the Program on the Closing Day, and This Will be Succeeded by a Monster Band Concert and Addresses.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The committee on ceremonies has completed the program for Oct. 26, incident to the official closing of the fair. The committee has fully considered the advisability of providing an entertainment for the visitors during the day as will harmonize with the program prepared, and suggests that the national salute be fired at sunrise, at noon and at sunset, at which times the Liberty Bell will be rung.

At 10:30 a. m. a representative of the landing of Columbus will take place on the lake front. Between 11 noon and 1 p. m. daylight fireworks will be fired from various points within the grounds. Following this a monster band concert will be given between 2:30 and 4:30 p. m. on Administration plaza. During the evening there will be a brilliant illumination of the grounds and buildings, concluding with a grand display of fireworks on the lake front and in the court of honor.

The exercises of the day will be participated in by the national commission, board of lady managers, board of directors, foreign and state commissioners and officials of the national commission and of the World's Columbian Exhibition. Suitable reservations will be made in the hall for those bodies, and the unassigned space will be given to visitors who may desire to witness the ceremonies with but the formality of presenting cards of admission.

The following is the program of exercises: Music, prayer, address by the president of the World's Columbian Exposition, music, address by the director general, music, address by the president of the board of lady managers, music, presentation of awards to foreign exhibitors, address by a representative of foreign nations, presentation of awards to American exhibitors, address by a representative of American exhibitors, music, address by a representative of the state commissioners, remarks by the president of the World's Columbian Exposition, and closing of the exposition, "Auld Lang Syne," sung by the audience, directed by Mr. Tomlin.

The total admissions at the fair yesterday were 272,137, of which 249,178 were paid.

REPEAL NOW ASSURED.

The End of the Long Senatorial Fight in Sight.

SILVER ADVOCATES WEAKENED

The Measure May Reach A Vote This Week, and the Senate Are Now Discussing the Question of Adjournment or Recess.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Senators Voorhees, Harris, Aldrich and Dubois, representing the two factions in each party, have authorized the statement that they believe the fight is ended, and that the vote will be taken on unconditional repeal at the earliest possible moment. This is understood to mean as soon as the silver Republican senators have concluded their speeches—a matter of a few hours or perhaps a day or two. It is the general opinion among senators that the repeal bill will be passed not later than Friday.

A conference of silver Democrats, held to decide whether filibustering should be resorted to, was not so large nor long continued, but upon its decision hangs the important question of the possible defeat of the bill and the delay of its passage. After weighing the subject fairly they concluded that while their constituents would justify them in making as strong a fight for silver as they could make in a legitimate way, their people would not endorse them in resorting to filibustering methods. They also recognized the fact that with a majority in the senate against them they would sooner or later be defeated. Furthermore, they concluded that if the settlement of the question should be longer delayed the business depression would be laid at the door of the silver men. They concluded to express their sentiment. Immediately afterwards a halt was called upon an incoherent filibuster, and the long fight was at an end.

It protests Will Not Waste Time.

The Republican silver men conferred among themselves privately, and agreed that it would be a waste of time and in every way foolish to continue the fight. The three Populist senators had agreed to abide by the decision of the Republicans. "We were ready to go on," said Puffer and Kyle, "and could have continued for some time, but are willing to quit when both of the old parties desire. The fight has gone on long enough, and long enough to show that neither of these parties are friends to silver. We feel that to have silver receive this set-back, but politically we view the situation with complacency. We cannot mourn, for it is not our funeral. We expect the result to make millions of votes for the Populists."

But to succeed, and with only his own personal convenience and comfort to consider, each senator would probably decide in favor of adjournment immediately after the passing of the repeal. Most of the Republicans and Populists and many Democrats said they expected congress to adjourn early next week until the first Monday in December. Senator Fairbank, who has acted as Senate Vice-president in the battle which has already closed, said when spoken to upon the subject that he believed adjournment would soon follow. "There is nothing," he said, "to be gained by remaining here now. There is no legislation pressing. The ways and means committee of the house will not conclude its labors upon the tariff bill and have it in shape for presentation to the house before the 25th of November, if then. I think congress might as well adjourn and let the committee continue its work. Most of the senators came here expecting to remain only two or three weeks, leaving their affairs at home to be handled by the Senate Vice-president principal aid in the battle which has already closed, and when spoken to upon the subject that he believed adjournment would soon follow. "There is nothing," he said, "to be gained by remaining here now. There is no legislation pressing.
