PASSENGERS AND CREW RESCUED.

The Vessel Herself, Owned by the Pacific Mail Steamslep Company, Will Probably be Dushed to Pieces and Her Valuable Curgo Prove a Total Loss.

San Fhancisco, Oct. 27.—The Pacific Mail company's steamer City of New York went ashore had evening in a fog, and will probably be a total less. She sailed for China and Japan at 1220 p. m. and want down the bay under a full head of steam. About 4:20 p. m. the big occan steamer was lost sight of, and a half hear later the beaming of entires could be able the bounding of causes could be sent and signal rockets could be seen arriting above the fug.

The station at Port Lobes at once sent a mosage into town and some every tog in the bay was racing for Point Boulta. Ar-fiving there it was found that the absorber was hard and fost on the riels, loving, gone on them under a full head of strain. She was in charge of Pilot Stevenson at

The steamer is lying broadside upon the rocks, and three or four hig holes are stove in her bottom. The vessel will be a total loss. The tide is receding, and she is now high upon the rocks and the surf pounding in upon her. There is not much wind, however, and very little swell. The rugs now are invering about the wreck and could possibly pull the steamer from the rocks, but it would be useless.

Before signals of distress brought as-sistance from San Francisco the passen-gers were landed at Point Boults. About this time Captain Johnson decided to jettism the curgo and save as much as possible. He dispatched a third officer and a crew of six of the saliors in a small boat directing them to row to San Francisco for tags and lighters, but the crew could PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—Coroner Ashidge held an inquest this ferencen bridge field an inquest this ferences of the body of Mary Simpson, who wes brutally murdered at her home on Phila-delphia street by John Rosmelle on Trus-day night. The testimony addited showed that Roemelle, though having a wife and two children, had been living with the Simpson women for soveral years, and that the murder was committed in a mo-ment of jenious frenzy produced by ex-cessive drinking. A pseudiar feature of the case is the attitude of W. S. Haun and John Kurts, to whom the murderer con-fessed his crime, and who, through fear of Roomelle, who threatened to kill them if they becomed the affair, kept it secret for twenty-four hours. Coronar Ashiridge held the murderer without hall for the action of the grand jury.
