

AT MEAL-TIMES

Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It may be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your tea, coffee, sugar, butter, eggs, spices and ingredients of other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst, and it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy.

THIRD EDITION

Pattison Will Return to Banking.
HARRISBURG, Oct. 27.—Being asked what he had to say concerning the report that he was to become president of the Lehigh Valley system, Governor Pattison replied: "There is absolutely nothing in it. As soon as my gubernatorial term is ended I shall go back to the Chestnut Street bank in Philadelphia."

Weekly Pay Law Unconstitutional.
OTTAWA, Ill., Oct. 27.—The supreme court, in a short opinion written by Justice J. E. Shoop, reverses the decision of the lower court in the test case of the people against the Hoveyville Coal company, and declares the weekly pay law passed by the last Illinois legislature unconstitutional.

Chaplain's Hasty Death.

A Victim of Hydrophobia.
YONKERS, N. Y., Oct. 27.—Young John C. Bassington, of hydrophobia fame, who resides with his parents at Sixth avenue and Fourth street, Mount Vernon, entered the police headquarters in this city and was taken with him to his home. He was taken with him to his home. He was taken with him to his home.

A Run-Crazed Man's Horrible Death.
FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 27.—Michael Sullivan, aged 35, met with a frightful death as a result of excessive drinking. He was suffering from delirium tremens, and in a crazy fit jumped through the roof of a window three stories high. He was killed in a fall of forty feet from the ground, and doubled helplessly in the air until he struck the ground. He leaves a widow and five children.

Did Not Survive to Death.
NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 27.—The story sent out of starvation in the family of Napoleon J. Moore is denied by the authorities. Post 190, G. A. R., has kept them so well supplied with food that all the grocery orders given by the city have not been met. The children died, it is claimed, of disease which could be attributed to lack of food, and they had been regularly attended by the city physician.

Preached His Own Funeral Sermon.
MOUNTAIN VIEW, Va., Oct. 27.—Governor McKinley refused to give Doc Taylor the preacher's funeral, a preacher of his own denomination. He was here for the purpose of preaching his own funeral sermon on the seafront. At his request, his body will be left above ground three days, when, he says, he will arise from the dead and again preach among the mountain people.

Sending Snailpox Through the Mail.
LIMA, O., Oct. 27.—Marshal John Woods, at Lima, O., received an anonymous letter marked "Monsieur, Inc.," which contained three large snailpox seeds. The postoffice authorities have taken the matter in hand, and will make every effort to trace the letter to the sender. The letter passed through many hands before it reached its destination, and will probably result in many cases of snailpox.

Yale Students Robbed.
NEW HAVEN, Oct. 27.—Many burglaries were committed in the Yale dormitories between 12 and 1 o'clock in the morning. Watches, clothing and money were in several cases taken from the rooms in which students were sleeping. Only one watchman is provided for the campus at night.

No Change in Coal Prices.
NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The western and eastern coal sales agents decided at their meeting to make no change in coal prices for November delivery.

PITTSBURG WORKERS PROTEST.

To Demand Legislation Prohibiting Discrimination Against Organized Labor.
PITTSBURG, Oct. 27.—A mass meeting of iron and steel workers was held in the old City Hall to protest against the anti-union agreement promulgated by the managers of the Wayne iron works. The agreement provided all who sign it not to become members of any labor union while in the employ of the Wayne company, and the meeting was called by the officers of the Amalgamated Association at the instance of some of the men who were requested to sign the document.

Fully twenty-five hundred men attended, a large majority of them being actually employed in the iron and steel trades. President Gabriel, of the Amalgamated Association, presided, and speeches were made by Secretary Kilgallon and Patrick Joyce, who denounced the agreement as a tyrannical attempt to break up an organization which had fought in a fair, honorable and open manner for its rights. Samuel Davis asserted that any firm which would make such a proposition was anarchistic, and that such steps would force the workmen to unite in secret for their own protection.

Andrew Carnegie's name was vigorously abused when it was mentioned in the course of a speech delivered by Vice President Sheehan. President Gabriel announced that while it was not proposed to drag politics into the movement, the workmen must demand legislation making it a crime to discharge a man simply because he belonged to a labor union.

Resolutions were passed, and the company was denounced for its attitude. The meeting adjourned.

On the Road Again.
Engine No. 573 of the Lehigh Valley railroad, which was in the wreck at Wellfleet Junction a short time ago and badly damaged, has been turned out of the Lehigh Valley shops at Delano so well repaired that it looks like a new engine. It made trips to day in the local coal train service. It will be put in the passenger service again after a few days' trial.

His Last Check.
A mule which had done service in and about the Keuley coal colliery for many years received his last check yesterday. He had grown so old and feeble that Superintendent Baird decided to relieve him of the mortal coil, and accordingly the veteran mule was shot.

No more will his mistress whip.
At the snapping of the whip: The driver says: "That's the last of you!" For the mule has given him the slip.

It's Easy to Dry With Diamond Dyes.
A ten cent package of Diamond Dyes colors from one to six pounds of silk, wool, cotton, or mixed goods, according to the shade desired.

There are nearly fifty different colors of Diamond Dyes, some specially for wool, and some for cotton, but all of them are so simple and perfectly reliable. No other dyes equal the Diamond in strength, fastness, or ease of use.

"The Kid" at Ferguson's.
Miss Grace Emmet and a company embracing some very good material produced a farce comedy entitled, "The Kid," at Ferguson's theatre last night, before a pretty good sized audience. "The Kid" is such a piece of an Irishman's Luck, which was produced at the theatre on the preceding night. It is a recital of the trials and blunders of a funny Irishman in and about New York.

"The Kid," however, is better than the other in many respects. Miss Grace Emmet makes her hit while singing and was frequently applauded last night. J. J. Murray was very funny as Macie Mulligan. The specialties consist of songs and dances of a very pleasing character.

Lane's Family Medicine Moves the Bowels Each day. Most people need to use it.

Yokel's Death.
William Yokel, the East Centre street Patch hotel-keeper who reported dangerously ill yesterday, died last night. He had been an invalid for several months, being a victim of consumption. Yokel was looked upon as one of the most prominent and wealthy of his countrymen in this town. About a year ago he purchased the large Ferguson property extending on the south side of Centre street from Bowers street to the Lehigh Valley railroad and opened a hotel in a part of the building.

POINTS.
Election day is approaching. Give us a rest on the Spelt loan. Visits by politicians are becoming frequent. Only four more days of the World's Fair. Tramps are becoming plentiful in town. There is no good quantity which does not become a vice by excess. In a few weeks more we may expect some of the cold autumnal blasts. It won't be long till our merchants will be thinking of their holiday goods. Weddings have been quite numerous of late and more are on the list. If you have any repairing to be done before the freezing weather comes, be up and doing. The Graf property on North Jardin street has been improved by the erection of an awning. Lehigh Valley Railroad men now wear double narrow bands of silver braid around their caps. To gain success in business, it is just as essential to invest part of your capital in advertising as in merchandise. Advertise in the Herald. The Tannapack Manufacturing Company will remove their plant to the town that will donate a site and loan it $10,000 to $15,000 to put up new buildings. The company will give 5 per cent. bonds for the money. Here is a chance for Shenandoah. Found Out. The best and easiest way to get rid of a cough or cold that may develop into consumption is to invest 25 cents in a bottle of Pan-Tina, the great remedy for Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Throat and Lung Disorders. Trial bottles free at F. D. Kiffin's drug store.

Grand Hall.
The Beer Drivers' Association of Shenandoah will give a grand ball in Robbins' opera house on the evening of Wednesday, November 28, next.
