The crowd of loafers that congregate at the orner of Main and Oak streets appears to be worse than ever. The vilest talk is indulged in, which makes it unpleasant for decent people to pass the theatre after six o'clock, especially when there is a performance going on. They do not, however, confine them-The Value of Health Greater Than the selves to indepent language, but have taken to pinning paper and other things to the coats of persons passing. Some of those who go to make up the crowd are at an age when, if they ever expect to, should know better. This ertainly speaks well for the society, and especially Miss Priscilla Smith, who is the operintendent of this department. I am informed by a member of the union that any miributions or notice of persons being sick will be kindly received and appriciated.

I was informed to day that William V berry, a train despatence at Delane, and who a favorably known throughout the Mahanov division of the Lebigh Valley system on Thursmay hied himself to Jersey City, ecompanied by a former resident of this own, and took unto himself a helpmate. The fortunate young lady is Miss Maggie Brooks. Upon the return of the wedding party to Delano they found that a goodly number of their friends had taken possession of the residence of J. Pierce Schlier, where Mr. and Mrs. Perry expect to reside for the present, and by handsome presents practically lemonstrated their regard for the young suple.
