

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Tollens captured her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a heavier burden in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an enviable place. In war and literature Solomon Yewell, well known as a writer as "Sol," has won an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 2d N. Y. Cavalry and of the 11th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows:

"Several of us old veterans have are using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving wonderful satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities pointed out in a preparation of their nature we have ever known. We have none but words of praise for them. They are the outgrowth of a new principle in medicine, and tone up the system, wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies."

—Solomon Yewell, Marion, Ind., Dec. 5, 1862.

These remedies are sold by all druggists, or a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. They positively contain nothing but the most dangerous drugs.

NO FAIR FESTIVITIES.

Instead There Was a Memorial Service for the Murdered Mayor.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The most signal exhibition of sorrow over the death of Mayor Harrison was the absence of all festivities at the fair today. There was a big crowd in attendance, as it was the last day of the great fair. This was in accordance with an order issued by Director General Davis, in which he said:

"In view of the assassination of the chief magistrate of the city of Chicago, the ceremonies in connection with the closing of the World's Columbian exposition will be wholly discontinued, except that all heretofore invited guests and the public generally are requested to assemble in Festival hall at 1 p. m. as originally intended."

At that hour the great hall was packed to suffocation, but everywhere there were emotions of mourning, and what was to have been a grand celebration, with the dead mayor as a central figure, was changed to a scene of funeral solemnity. All the big buildings were draped, and most of the exhibits displayed evidences of mourning. The scene in Festival hall was very impressive. Prayer was offered by Rev. John R. Dwyer, after which appropriate resolutions formulated by a joint committee of fair officials, which had been appointed for the purpose, were submitted by President Higginbotham. These were unanimously adopted, and the great meeting quickly dispersed.

At sunset an appropriate salute will be fired, the United States flag lowered, and the great fair ended. It has been ordered that the flags on all buildings shall hereafter remain at half mast as long as they are kept flying.

It has been decided that the obsequies will take place on Wednesday. The body will be placed in a vault at Graceland cemetery, and the interment, which will be private, will occur later. Mayor Harrison's body will be taken to the City hall tomorrow, where it will remain until the funeral, which will probably take place there. It has been decided that the active pall bearers will be eight police captains, who will be selected by Chief of Police Brennan. The honorary pall bearers, who have been chosen by the mayor's family, will be the following: Thomas W. Palmer, N. N. Higginbotham, General Nelson A. Miles, ex-Governor Richard Oglesby, Judge Lyman Trumbull, F. A. Winston, General Fitzhugh, N. J. Jones, G. K. G. Higgins, Adolph Kraus, D. D. Armour, Frank Weiler, ex-Mayor John A. Hoerth, ex-Mayor Joseph McNeill, ex-Mayor Hempstead Washburn, Judge Francis Adams and R. A. Waller.

CARTER HARRISON'S CAREER.

Serving His Fifth Term as Mayor of the World's Fair City.

Carter Henry Harrison was born in Fayette county, Ky., Feb. 25, 1825. Richard A. Harrison, Crumwell's lieutenant general, who led Charles I to the scaffold, is his earliest ancestor preserved in the family archives. The name was conspicuous in Virginia during the colonial period, and Carter Z. Harrison, his great-grandfather, and his brother, Benjamin Harrison, the signer of the Declaration of Independence and father of William Henry Harrison, are enrolled in the annals of the infancy of the United States of America.

Carter received superior educational advantages, and in 1845 graduated from Yale college. He then studied law, but did not practice. In 1851 he visited every part of England, Ireland and Scotland and other parts of Europe, and passed into Egypt, and in company with Bayard Taylor explored Syria and Asia Minor. Two years later he entered Transylvania law school at Lexington, and finished the course in 1855. In 1855 he went to Chicago, and engaged in real estate speculations.

His political life commenced in 1851, when he was elected county commissioner. In 1852 he was nominated by the Democrats to congress to represent a strongly Republican district, but was defeated. He reduced the Republican majority so greatly, however, that he was again placed in the field and elected by a majority of 8 votes.

At the time he was put up he was traveling with his family in Germany, Austria, the Tyrol and Switzerland. He at once came home to represent his district in 1855, went back, and after traveling through northern Europe, ended his trip in Paris. His family went to Germany and he came to Chicago, only to be called back by the death of his wife.

While absent he was re-elected to congress. In 1857 his name was first suggested for the mayoralty, and in April following he was elected by a majority of over 8,000, although the city had gone Republican the fall before by a majority of 7,500.

In 1861 he was re-elected by a majority of 8,000, although the city went Republican the fall before by 8,000. In this campaign not only the press but the pulpit was opposed to him. In 1863 he was re-elected by an increased majority. In 1865 he was again elected.

The recent history of his election as York's fair mayor after a hot and bitter struggle with Washington Hoist, editor and proprietor of the Staats Zeitung, is too well known to go into detail. His majority was overwhelming, and during his term he met and entertained the Duke of Veragua, the Infanta Estelle and many other distinguished foreign visitors. As a World's fair mayor, Harrison was a grand success as well as a political success. On the Fourth of July he created a wild scene of patriotic enthusiasm by waving "Old Hickory" Jackson's sword in the air and calling upon the immense assemblage to swear by the old blade allegiance to the Stars and Stripes. On Chicago day he was the particular star of the occasion.

A few years after the death of his first wife he married again. His second wife dying about two years ago. Recently, however, he met his fate for the third time in a beautiful young girl at the home of his son, Preston Harrison, publisher of The Times. She was Miss Anna B. Howard, of New Orleans, founder of the Louisiana State lottery. She is a beautiful woman, and has been the acknowledged belle of the Crescent city. They were to have been married Nov. 7.

Oscar D. Wetherell, city comptroller of Chicago, who by the death of Mayor Harrison becomes acting mayor, is a Republican. He is a native of New Hampshire, but removed to Chicago many years ago and became a prominent lumberman. Something like twelve years ago he was elected to the city council of Chicago, and served for at least two terms as chairman of the finance committee. Three years ago he was elected president of the Globe National bank, and last spring, on Harrison's election, Mr. Wetherell was appointed comptroller. He is about 60 years of age.

The Weather. Generally fair, slight changes in temperature; light variable winds.

RUSSIA'S WARLIKE ATTITUDE

An Authority Who Denies the War's Proximate Occurrence.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The Observer, which is generally considered to be unusually well informed in regard to the foreign situation, has the following from its diplomatic correspondent: "It is unquestionable that Russia, in spite of the pacific attitude of the czar, continues her armaments. The people of the central governments have observed that during the last few months nearly the whole of the troops have gone towards the German frontiers, where barracks for their accommodation have been erected. The government evidently expects war shortly, and the movement of the army against Germany may be more than a collection. The Russian visit occurred at a moment when it was not completed the progress in readiness for a Russo-German war. Right or wrong the Russian government thinks the equality should be fairly tried, and it is only natural that it should respond to the overture of France."

California Still Driving Out Chicanos. Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 30.—More anti-Chinese riots occurred in the California valley, a vegetable garden on a dike between this city and the ocean. Since the Geary law passed to banish the vegetable growers because so many and so demoralized that nearly all the Chinese left of their own accord. A hundred and fifty members of the anti-Chinese league organized, however, and moved upon the creek, Gillin and Doherty families, here of the largest in the valley. Eighteen Chicanos were driven to the city, and so badly frightened that they will not return. The evicted Chinese have employed counsel.

Countess Dappenhofen Home Again. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—Countess Dappenhofen, formerly Miss Wheeler, of Philadelphia, arrived at New York yesterday from England, on the American line steamer New York. This is the first time she has been in this country since her separation from Count Maximilian Dappenhofen, her husband. She took an early train for this city. She and Count Dappenhofen are now in the city of Philadelphia. The count and countess returned to Philadelphia where every attempt was made to bring them by the society of this city. Miss Wheeler and the count arrived and lived happily until within the last few weeks.
